

Council Recognizes AUF

The Daily
Nebraskan

Vol. 85, No. 29 Lincoln, Nebraska Friday, November 19, 1943

UN Debaters Tie Northwestern U

UN debaters again shared top honors with Northwestern university as they returned from the intercollegiate conference on war problems at the State University of Iowa Thursday. The conference was attended by 75 students from 12 colleges in Illinois, Iowa, South Dakota and Nebraska.

The Nebraska debaters won seven out of eight debates as did the Northwestern team. The affirmative team of Mary Ann Mattoon and Gerry McKinsey were victorious in all their contests. The negative team, composed of Jean Freskin and Jean Kinnie, lost only one debate to Northwestern.

Three Receive Superior.

Receiving superior honors in debate were Mary Ann Mattoon, Jean Freskin and Jean Kinnie. In the discussion division Gerrie McKinsey and Jean Kinnie were awarded excellent. Gerrie McKinsey placed third in victory speaking with the rating of excellent.

Jean Kinnie represented the UN debate team in an interview over station SUI.

The team was accompanied by Leroy T. Lasse, chairman of the speech department and director of the debate team.

Enslin Picks Tentative Cast For New Play

Janice Marx will take the feminine lead of Judith Bliss in Noel Coward's "Hay Fever" as a result of University Theatre tryouts held Wednesday night. Portraying the other members of the Bliss family will be Pat King as Sorel Bliss, Vic Ferris as David Bliss and Don Keough as Simon Bliss.

Other members of the tentative cast are Blanch Duckworth as Clara, Randall Salisbury as Sandy Tyrell, Becky Silver as Myra Arundel, Bill Major as Richard Greatham and Bettie Grossman as Jackie Caryton.

The play, a fast moving comedy portraying the romantic and independent lives of a well-to-do English family, will be produced December 15, 16, and 17.

Library Offers Softer Studying

Students who trek to the library now will be pleasantly surprised to find new chairs in place of the old ones in both the reserve and main reading rooms. These chairs, approximately 200 in number, are a part of those which had been purchased to furnish the reading rooms in Love Memorial Library.

Rosenlof Expresses Need of Race Amity

Dr. G. W. Rosenlof, director of admissions, addressed the International Students' Day conference Wednesday afternoon in the Union, speaking on the need of mutual understanding between college students of all races.

"The justification of the sacrifices being made by many students throughout the world lies in the degree to which college young people develop international understanding," said Dr. Rosenlof. He indicated his belief in a program of college and secondary school education whereby young people of many nations may study together and on a common basis of understanding.

Build World Understanding.

There is an old Chinese proverb, he pointed out, in words to this effect, "To understand all is to pardon all." If we can build understanding between students of dif-

Sgt. R. Devoe Receives Oak Leaf Cluster

Staff Sergeant Robert Devoe, former student at the university, has been awarded the oak leaf cluster for "meritorious achievement while participating in an aerial attack against an enemy convoy near St. Matthias island in August." The air medal was presented by Lt. Gen. George C. Kenney, commanded of allied air forces in the southwest Pacific.

"Despite anti-aircraft fire from the two escorting gunboats, the crew (in a B-17) made three bombing runs over the target, scoring two direct hits on the largest freight transport," the citation said.

Sergeant Devoe received the medal in September. He volunteered for the regular army Dec. 2, 1941 and received his training at Chanute Field, Ill., and at Las Vegas, Nev.

UN Holds First Chapel Thanksgiving Service

First all university Thanksgiving service will take place Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the Union ballroom.

Sponsored jointly by the war council and the Inter-faith Religious council, the program will include representatives from the Protestant, Catholic and Jewish faiths. Rabbi Harry Jolt will give the opening prayer; Rev. Arthur E. Miller, of the First Presbyterian church, will address the chapel, and Rev. George Schuster, student pastor, will recite the benediction.

Servicemen, Students Invited.

Organ music will be played by Myron J. Roberts who will furnish background music as well as introduce group singing of hymns.

All service men and students are invited to attend this hour of giving thanks. Sororities and fraternities are asked to delay their Monday night meeting until after the service. Special notices have been placed on the Air Corps, ROTC's and Engineers' bulletin for

Ed Appoints Laura Lee Mundil Society Editor

Laura Lee Mundil has been appointed the new society editor for the Daily by Margery Marlette, editor. Her assistants will be Shirley Keith, Nina Scott, and Betty King. Society news should be left at the main desk in the Nebraskan office.

Ed Appoints Laura Lee Mundil Society Editor

Laura Lee Mundil has been appointed the new society editor for the Daily by Margery Marlette, editor. Her assistants will be Shirley Keith, Nina Scott, and Betty King. Society news should be left at the main desk in the Nebraskan office.

Group Organizes Drive for Dec. 3

Announcing Dec. 3 as the opening date of the group's first drive, Jimmie Howe, newly-appointed director of the All University Fund, said a goal of $2,300 had been set for the organization's first campaign.

Adoption of the constitution and program of the AUF constitution and program was the leading business of the student council at its meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Union.

The council voted to adopt the AUF following a discussion led by Bob Henderson. A clause was inserted into the constitution stating that at least one member of the advisory board must be from the student council and the bill was passed after this change was promised.

Purpose to Incorporate Drives.

Purpose of the AUF is to incorporate drives, formerly scattered throughout the academic year into a few concentrated drives. By this method students will make contributions to several organizations at one time. All assistance drives are to come through the AUF instead of individually as has been the practice.

The first drive will be held to aid the WSSF and Rags for Servicemen with solicitation of funds. The money collected will be divided among the two organizations according to their budgets.

This year the AUF promises the students of the university that there will be only two drives, the second being held in the spring for Red Cross.

Besides Jimmie Howe members of the advisory council are Howard Chapin, Bob Henderson, Virginia Stuermer, Dorothy Mae Anderson, and Estelle Lenneman. To be qualified as a member of the

(See AUF, page 6.)

Kappas Take Beauty Queen Sales Contest

At the conclusion of the Cornhusker sales campaign for beauty queen candidates yesterday, Kappa Kappa Gamma led the organized houses with a sales total of 75 books, entitling them to three candidates, according to Betty Hohf, editor of the yearbook.

Tied for second with a sale of at least 50 books are Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Pi Beta Phi. Sigma Delta Tau and Alpha Xi Delta have one candidate each.

Bob Henderson, business manager of the Cornhusker, announced that a free Cornhusker will be given to each fraternity and sorority whose members and pledges have their pictures taken by November 22.

Home Ec Group Holds Richards Dinner Tuesday

Annual Ellen H. Richards dinner, which this year celebrates the 101st anniversary of the founding of home economics, will be held next Tuesday night at 6:30 at St. Paul church. South America will be the theme of the evening's program.

Sponsored by the home economics club, the dinner is held yearly to honor Ellen H. Richards, the founder of home economics. It has become one of the major college events of the year and is open to all home ec women and faculty members. Last year the event was the celebration of the centennial anniversary of home economics and a gala banquet was held in the Union ballroom.

Show Sound Film.

"Our Good Neighbors" will be the subject of a South American sound film which will be shown and of the principal address of the evening. Special music is also being planned.

Tickets for the dinner are 65 cents and may be purchased in the home ec building on ag campus. Ticket sales close tonight.

War Stamp Sales Reach $130.60

War stamps sales for this week totaled $106.35 for the city campus and $24.25 for ag campus. This total of $130.60 shows a $24 increase over last week's sales of $106.80 from both campuses.

Cheerleaders Conduct Rally Tonight, 7:15

Led by an impromptu band, a football rally will start at the union, and progress down 16th Street, at 7:15 tonight. Yells and songs will be led by the cheerleaders, directed by Bernie Ulrich, Yell King. Jerry Jacupke will give the customary pep talk.

Since there have been no home games for three weeks, a large attendance is expected, and sororities have been requested to postpone their hour dances until 8:00, so that everyone can come.

One-half page of Nebraska's songs and yells will be found on page six of today's Daily.

Issue Request For Coed Red Cross Workers

Coeds who have volunteered to make surgical dressings at Red Cross headquarters are especially requested to come this Saturday, according to Myra Colberg, university head of surgical dressings.

The university has a quota of 10,000 dressings which has to be filled by the end of November. It is therefore important that everyone come, particularly as many students are planning to go home for Thanksgiving, and will not be able to attend Saturday, November 27.

Mutter Bird

says only 16 days left to the Christmas Ball.

Select Six New Members To Uni Senate

Six new members to the university senate, chancellor's faculty advisory committee, were elected November 4. The senate is composed of members of the faculty ranking associate professor and above. New members are:

For three-year terms, R. J. Pool, professor of botany; B. C. Hendricks, professor of chemistry; and J. M. Reinhardt, professor of sociology; and for a one year term in place of J. B. Burt, professor of pharmacy, O. H. Werner, professor of principles of education. Other members of the committee whose terms have two years to serve are Professors Keim, Marvin and Worcester; those whose terms have one more year to serve are Professors Hamilton and Whitney.