

Col. Murphy's Daughter Takes Mille Position

As representative of Milwaukee-Downer college, Patricia Murphy, daughter of Col. James P. Murphy, commandant of the university military units, has been selected by the college board of Mademoiselle fashion magazine.

Miss Murphy, a sophomore in college, will complete several assignments for Mademoiselle during the school year. She will represent Milwaukee-Downer in the college section of this magazine. At the end of the year she will be eligible for membership on the magazine's college board.

Mademoiselle's college board publishes an issue of the magazine in the fall of each year. This issue is devoted largely to colleges and their activities. The college board members represent many schools. These girls have the opportunity to actually work as part of the staff of this publication.

Air Force Calls Women To Aid 'Behind-lines'

Air-WACs are something new. For the first time, women may enlist in the WAC specifically for service with the army air forces. The AAF has begun an intensive campaign to enlist recruits immediately because they are faced with a drastic need of women for vital behind-the-lines service.

Under this new program, WACs will be assigned to duty with the air forces upon completion of five weeks' basic training. Women with suitable experience or training will be assigned directly to an AAF flying or headquarters field. They will be recommended for the field of work in which they are best qualified. One hundred and fifty positions are open to Air-Wacs in medical, personnel, public relations, photographic, weather, drafting, radio, communications, mechanical, and other fields.

Physically fit women from 20 through 49 years of age, married or single, with no dependents, are eligible to be AirWACs.

Howdy, Chillun!

Well, spring is not here altho old man weather would seemingly have it that way, as of the last couple of days.

At any rate, there has not been a lull in candy passing . . . AOP! Helen Gogela surprised her sorority sisters on Monday night by passing said candy. Art Austin is the lucky fellow, and is a Nu Sigma Nu Med student in Omaha . . . The Tri Deltis were honored with a double candy passing when Jeanne Coffee announced her engagement to Dick Henninger now at Harvard Air Base, and Shirley Nelson announced her engagement to Sigma Nu Tippy Edwards now in Mississippi. Incidentally, it seemed that at the moment of it all, Shirley had had her diamond for 14 months and Jeanne for 14 hours.

Have Diamonds.

Betty Hochreiter, Alpha Xi, passed the candy Monday. Pinned to AGR Dwight Sloane, now cadet at Santa Ana, Calif. Delta Gamma Pat Gillaspie received a beautiful diamond from one Tom Healey of Camp Miramer in San Diego . . . A diamond was also placed on AOP! Peg Capron, and the lucky fellow was her Sigma Chi Bob Mizera . . . And still another diamond, dear readers, is being worn by Alpha Chi Mary Mason, the lucky fellow being Sig Chi Bob McNutt now in STAR unit . . . Wedding bells will be ringing on November 28 for Chi O Barbara Jackson and Jack Tilton.

But, now on the other hand, we find Alpha Phi Lorraine Rabe returning the DU pin of John Drummond, and have been noticing her frequently with Beta Johnny Dean . . . And also Tri Delt Ginger Swanholm no longer wears the DU pin of Donny Kling. Her new interest seems to be one Dean Kratz, DU.

Hither and Yon.

If we start looking about us this weekend, we'll be seein' no doubt, such couples as DG Shirley Hillmer and ASTP Frank Erwing, Tri Delt Edith Redmond and Joe McDonald, Alpha Phi Janice Campbell with ATO Jim Nicola. I'm not sure whether Alpha Phi Shirley King will be with Ray Calkins or Bernie Ulmer, as we've

Senior Women Vogue Contest Ends Saturday

Saturday is the deadline for applications of all senior women entering the ninth annual Vogue Prix de Paris contest. Seniors with an aptitude for writing, or a talent for fashion reporting will find opportunities in the contest as the first two prizes bring the winners position on the staff of Vogue and other Conde Nast publications.

Contestants will answer four quizzes consisting of two questions. Papers will be judged on clear and individual writing, fashion knowledge derived from a study of Vogue, and general information, current information and awareness. There will be 17 awards, to be announced next June.

The contest is being sponsored on the UN campus by the office of the dean of women in conjunction with the AWS. Applications may be obtained at Ellen Smith hall.

seen her with one or the other most frequently . . . and just as frequently we see Theta Lucille Hosmann with ATO Steve Cole, and Dorothy Carnahan with Kenny Strickner, and DG Kay Detweiler with Phi Psi Bud Varvel.

Alpha Phi Amy Brown was most happy to see the return of Gordon Milligan now stationed in Florida. . . We see the twosome of Joannie Stubblefield and Kappa Sig Bob Foster . . . And have you seen Joanie McCague trying to study in the station while waiting for the 4 o'clock from Crete? According to Joan, the train was chartered for one Bob Hennecke . . . Alpha Phi Marge Martin jaunted off to Florida this week to see Dick Corey, Sig Alph of last year . . .

Couples Seen Around.

Alpha Lambda Delta Initiates Barbara Smiley

Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's honorary scholastic society, recently initiated Barbara Jane Smiley of Lincoln into active membership. Pledging services were held Tuesday, Nov. 2.

Eligibility for membership in Alpha Lambda Delta is based on scholastic and character achievement of university women during their freshman year. An average of 90 percent for the first semester, or for the first and second semesters combined, is required. Members are pledged in the spring on the basis of first semester grades, or in the fall of their sophomore year, on the basis of their scholastic average for both semesters of the freshman year.

Miss Winona M. Perry is faculty adviser of the group, and honorary faculty members are Dean Verna H. Boyles, Emma N. Andersen, Margaret Fedde, Mabel Lee, Ruth Odell, Elsie Ford Piper, and Louise Pound.

to Omaha.

By the way, last weekend, Pi Phi Janet Sherwood bounded down to Crete to see one Norman Alverson. However, due to transportation difficulties, she had no way to get back, come Sunday . . . there was only one thing to do . . . that's right . . . they hitchhiked!

And so it was . . . so . . . So long, chillun!

Janice Marshall Lt. Fitzgibbon Wed Sunday

The Gamma Phi Beta house will be the scene of a wedding Sunday, November 12, at 8 o'clock when Janice Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Marshall of Windom, Minnesota, will become the bride of Lt. John Fitzgibbon of Tobias, Neb.

Miss Marshall is a member of Gamma Phi Beta, the past president of Phi Upsilon, the 1942 Farmer's Fair Queen, and a member of Omicron Nn, has chosen her sister, Clarice Marshall, as her maid of honor. Her other attendants will be Marilyn Truhlsen and Joyce Nebergall, cousins of the bride. Miss Lois Ann Marshall, sister of the bride, will light the tapers, and Larry Fitzgibbon, nephew of the groom will be the ringbearer.

Lt. Fitzgibbon, who has just received his commission from Fort Sill, Oklahoma, was a member of Farmhouse, N club, Red Guidon, and a Nebraska basketball star.

Capital University's library in Columbus, Ohio, recently received a portrait carving in oak of the head and shoulders of Martin Luther, made in Switzerland 38 years ago.

Perry Brown Winter White

Soft as the first Lincoln snow, Perry Brown winter white fashions grace the holiday season . . . sparked with quick flashes of color and glisten.

One and two-piece winter white styles are designed by Perry Brown, of his famous zickzack material, of wool-like crepe, of moss crepe.

High-colored buttons, lucite lozenges with gay fruit trims, embroidery in jewel-tone and "precious metal" threads, enrich these inimitable Perry Browns. Sizes 9 to 17.
