AUF Heads Meet Monday To Complete 1st Drive Plans

Stamp Sales Hit New Low Wednesday

Stamp sales struck a new low on the down town campus last week. Only $34 worth were sold in the Union, Sosh and Andrews booths last Wednesday.

Christmas is around the proverbial corner but, that is no reason to slacken up on the buying of stamps and bonds. The government has suggested that stamps or bonds make the most practical and patriotic gift that can be found for Christmas.

Stamps were not sold at the school of music last week since Thursday, when they are sold there was a holiday. However, next Wednesday stamps will again be sold at all booths and at ag. The new booths furnished by the Mortar Boards are now being constructed and will be in use next Wednesday. Tassels and WAA sponsor the stamp sales.

Pi Beta Phi, Kappas Win War Effort

Group Reveals Weekly Reports

Last week's reports from "On the Beam" representatives showed Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Beta Phi doing the most toward conserving materials which will be collected in community drives later.

Kappa Sig and Sigma Phi Epsilon were at the bottom of the list but were the only fraternities who handed in their reports.

In order to put everyone "On the Beam," the weekly reports of the two top and the two bottom organized houses will be printed in the Daily Nebraskan.

Committee Meets Tomorrow.

"On the Beam," the war council's service drives committee will meet tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Union, room 315.

The committee will meet to discuss (See War Effort, page 2.)

Nominates UN Men For Commissions In Marine Corps

Nominations of seven former U. N. first year advanced ROTC engineers for commissions in the Marine Corps Reserve with the opportunity to qualify for permanent commissions in the regular Marine Corps were revealed by Chancellor C. S. Boucher yesterday.

Men selected were: Rogers S. Cancell, Richard M. Green, Mark C. Hargraves, jr., Paul S. Jhrde, Raymond J. Sedlak, John W. Watson and Robert L. Sorenson.

Nominating Group.

Nominations were made by Chancellor Boucher, Col. J. P. Murphy, university commandant; Dean O. J. Ferguson of the college of engineering, and Col. Arthur T. Lobdell of the Star Unit. Scholarship, leadership, and the recommendations submitted by Dean Ferguson and Col. Murphy were bases of the nominations.

If Marine Corps makes these appointments, the men will be discharged from the ROTC-AST and will be ordered to the Marine Corps Training School at Quantico, Va.

Mlle. Presents Monthly War Work Awards

Mademoiselle will present a series of monthly awards to be known as the M-V Awards to the women whose lives best represent the highest type of civilian effort in winning the war. ## Lincoln Artists' Annual Exhibit Closes Today

Lincoln Artists' Guild, which is composed of the skilled artists of the city, will terminate its annual art exhibit held in Morrill Hall gallery B today.

Seven service men who have been working under Miss Kady Faulkner's tutelage every afternoon this fall have an auxiliary exhibit in the corridor. The guild also sponsored these men.

This exhibit is open to the public free of charge.

Next exhibit will be sponsored by the Lincoln Camera club Dec. 11. Anyone may enter prints if they pay annual dues of $1 and mount the prints. Those entered will be judged by a board who, as yet, have not been selected.

Reports of Second Six Weeks Available Dec. 4

Reports of the second six weeks grades will be turned in and completed next Saturday.

Prof. Hertzler Heads Section Of A. S. S. Meet

Professor Joyce O. Hertzler, chairman of the sociology department, will be chairman of a section of the annual meetings of the American Sociology Society, to be held at the Hotel McAlpin, New York, on December 4 and 5.

Professor Hertzler will preside over the meeting on Social Theory, considering the topic "Some Contributions of Social Theory to Post-War Organization," and will begin the meeting with his paper on "World Planning: What Is Involved?"

In all there will be seventeen section meetings, at which seventy-three speakers will present the results of their study and research. They will represent 37 colleges and universities, besides many federal and state government agencies and private social research institutions.

MB Christmas Ball Takes Limelight Saturday Night

Forecasting a gala evening, the "Mutter Bird" chirps out that the Mortar Board sponsored "Christmas Ball" is the coming big event of the week. To be held Saturday from 9 to 12 p. m. in the colesium, the ball will be the only big all-university party of the year, due to the abandonment of the Military Ball and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Ticket sales for the ball are being conducted by the Tassels, and tickets at a $1.10 per couple may be purchased at any time. To accommodate military students tickets will be sold at the pay tables Tuesday in the library, field house and on ag campus. They may also be purchased at the door, and spectator tickets will be sold for 50 cents per ticket.

Present Coeds.

Presentation of six "Christmas Stocking Girls" will climax the evening filled with the rhythm of Basie Givens orchestra. To be selected from letters written about them by civilian and army men on the campus, the "Christmas Stocking Girls" will be answers to the six prize winning letters describing, but not giving the name, of the coeds.

Winners of the contest will be given free tickets to the dance and will be presented, with the girl of their choice, at intermission. An effort will be made to include a representative from each of the army branches on both ag and city campuses. Identity of the coeds will be kept secret until the night of the party, and letters should be addressed to Santa Claus in care of Mortar Board, Student Union. Letters will be accepted until the contest closes Friday.

The date bureau set up in the Union main hall has arranged 23 dates so far and many more students, both men and women, have signed up. Mortar Boards urge all who wish the date bureau to arrange dates for them to sign their names, heights, age, school previously attended and preference during the first part of this week. Early registration means dates can be arranged early enough so that the couple can meet each other before the night of the party.
