AUF Opens Drive for Funds; Ag Holds Convo Monday at 10

First AUF, All University Fund drive will begin officially tomorrow. A convocation Monday at 10 a. m. will open the ag campus drive with Carroll M. Moon, regional field secretary of YM and YWCA, addressing the group.

Mr. Moon will speak on the World's Student Service Fund, and the work it is accomplishing both here and abroad. Classes will be dismissed and students, STARS, and faculty are invited to attend. Envelopes either to enclose one's

Ag Christmas Party Features Uni Musicians

Plans were announced today for the annual ag college Christmas party, to be held December 15 at 8 p. m. in the ag activities building. This year's program will consist of organ music, singing of Christmas carols, a trumpet solo, soprano and contralto solos, and the Messiah.

A tradition of long standing, the Christmas party is begun each year with the lighting of 31 candles, one for each year of the life of Christ. The Messiah will be presented in part only this year due to the limited number of male voices available.

Mrs. Altinas Tullis, director of the chorus, announced that a group of men from the STAR unit will sing with the chorus. The party is open to all students and faculty members, men stationed with the STAR's, and other interested persons.

Gwen Row and Max Baird are general chairmen for the event. Special committee chairmen include: Dorothy Anderson, program; Blanche Reid, publicity; and Kay Huston, decorations.

Dr. Bauer Addresses Convo Today at 11 ... Today in Union

Dr. William W. Bauer, well known author and lecturer, will speak on health and medical subjects at the second university convocation Friday at 11 a. m. in the Union ballroom rather than Thursday morning as the Daily erroneously stated.

Dr. Bauer's subject will be "Health, Hygiene and Hooyey." He has had a large amount of experience in the field of hygiene, being an associate editor of Hygeia magazine, the health publication of the American Medical association.

Since 1932 Dr. Bauer has been director of the bureau of health education of the American Medical association. He has been co-author of many books, including "Health Questions Answered," "Your Health" and "Contagious Diseases," is also a member of the committee on health problems of the National Education association and the American Medical association.

contribution or to sign pledge will be distributed at the mass meeting.

Ag Climaxes Drive with Dance.
Grace Gadeken, chairman, Phyllis Thyness, Evelyn Johnston, and Ruth Heim are in charge of the convocation committee.

A juke box dance Dec. 11 in the Activity building will climax the ag campus drive. Mildred Yost, who is in charge of the dance extends invitation to both civilian and army student. Tickets may be obtained from any AUF solicitor for 25 cents.

AUF representatives will visit all organized houses Monday night on speaking tours to give students additional information concerning WSSF and the Daily Nebraskan for Servicemen for which the drive is being held. The speakers will come from the war council victory speakers bureau.

Contributions may be made in full during the drive of a certain amount may be pledged by any student to be paid at a later date. To get the drive off to a flying start the AWS board voted to give a $25 war bond to the drive in their meeting Thursday. Further progress of the drive will be published in the Nebraskan.

Dorothy Carnahan is the head of the solicitation committee.

Houses Elect Mademoiselle Contest Girls

Student participation in war work is the latest fad on college campuses, according to Mademoiselle, leading fashion magazine.

To encourage girls on college campuses throughout the country to take part in war activities, Mademoiselle is sponsoring a contest in which one college coed who is outstanding in war work will be presented each month.

Each Mademoiselle girl-of-the-month will be awarded a certificate of honor and a pin, designed by Cartier of New York, in the form of an M set with small square-cut sapphires, backed by a gold V. A certificate of honor will also be awarded the three runners-up in the contest, and their names, together with that of each month's winner, will be published in Mademoiselle magazine and will be placed on the roll of honor in the editorial offices.

Send in Coed of Choice.

Every university and college is requested to send in the name and qualifications of the coed of their choice. In order to select Nebraska's first candidate, sororities and organized houses are asked to

Exhibit Shows Monotype Art In Watercolor

The new art exhibit now on display at Morrill hall features the monotype form of art. Expressing great tonal color and originality of design, the subject matter ranges from abstract design and decorative realism to pure fun. Watercolor is the medium.

Several of the outstanding pictures in the exhibit were done by John Kirsch, 16 year old son of Dwight Kirsch, head of the university art department. Forty monotypes by Mrs. Alice R. Edmiston are featured along with works by Mr. and Mrs. Kirsch and the watercolor class of last summer.

The exhibition will be on display until Dec. 15.

Tassels, Theta Sigs Begin Schooner Circulation Drive

With the co-operation of Tassels, faculty members, and Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism sorority, Prairie Schooner officials will open their annual subscription drive for UN's literary quarterly Monday.

To acquaint students and townspeople with the publication, and extensive campaign, including selling booths, speaking tours and an inter-organization contest is being formulated. To promote the drive on the campus, a free copy of the Prairie Schooner anthology will be awarded to those houses which have at least 30 subscriptions to the magazine. The progress of different organizations will be reported in the Nebraskan.

The Prairie Schooner has the distinction of being one of the ten best literary magazines in the

Panhell Holds Dinner Dec. 9 In Ellen Smith

Panhellenic delegates and members of the advisory board will be present at a Panhellenic dinner Dec. 9 at Ellen Smith hall.

Mrs. James Moore of Omaha, national secretary of Kappa Alpha Theta, will speak on "Training College Women for Leadership in a World at War."

Chancellor and Mrs. C. S. Boucher and Mrs. Verna H. Boyles, Dean of Women, will be guests at the dinner. Mary Jo Kobes is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

versity editor and founder of the University Press, said of the publication:

"As it happens so often, 'A prophet is not without honor save in his own country,' and thus the Prairie Schooner is much more appreciated and better known in the east by both writers and publishers than it is in its home state."

Two of the contributors to the "Prairie Schooner Caravan," an anthology which is to be released to the public by the University Press early this month, are nationally known literary figures. Miss Eudore Welty, of Jackson, Miss., has won for the second suc-

PBKs Hear Dr. Fellman At Initiation

Discussing "Civil Liberties in Wartime," Dr. David Fellman, associate professor of political science, told members of Phi Beta Kappa last night that the record during this war has been excellent compared to that of World War I.

Occasion for the speech was the initiation of nine new members into the arts and science scholastic honorary at Ellen Smith hall.

Lists Factors.

Listing factors for the margin of personal freedom respected in the United States, Fellman included experiences of the last war, the nature of our enemies, the way the war began, and government policies in enforcing laws which have repressive possibilities.

"We must maintain the fullest amount of civil liberties during wartime," Fellman said, as he expressed concern about the danger of invasion of civil liberties in the post-war world.

Dr. J. O. Hertzler, president of the honorary, presided.
