

Flashy Sleeping Togs Catch Eye of Coeds

... So Say Dorm Trotters

By Jane Stroud and Ginger Swanholm
Nuff's been said about campus togs and date dresses. Now let's retire with the Nebraska coeds. It wasn't enough that girls had to copy men and start wearing slacks, now they have taken over men's pajamas.

sported by Lorraine Rabe, Alpha Phi, whose favorites are a gruesome combination of green and yellow paisley—enough to give anyone nightmares. Toasty warm for hanging out windows to listen to serenades (now few and far between) are the ever popular flannels.

One of the flashier pairs are

Gay 90's Plaids.

Society

Howdy chillun!
Well, it looks like ye supreme evening of the semester is coming up this Saturday night. And now, altho your said columnist would like to be really original in the approach of telling you about it all,—naturally, the same old line will be used . . . again.

Over Tri-Delt way, Charlene Jessee is currently flaunting a plaid flannel nightshirt—shades of the gay 90's! The Pi Phi's are now having sleepless nights over Marilyn Simpson's brilliant red and blue P.J.'s. They're so big for her that she swears she can turn over in bed without moving them at all.

Robes for Warmth.

Hand in hand with pajamas go robes and brunch coats. Flannel robes are always handy and keep you warm while up late studying or just having a bull session. With wool so scarce this year, corduroy robes are coming into their own, too. Barb Schlater, Theta, is right up with the times in a quilted satin brunch coat that looks good enough to eat.

Anyway, it's the Mortar Board party and it really promises to be a tremendous time for all. And so among the many, we'll be seein' Kappa Marilyn Lyle with ASTP Bill Crandell, Les Grotfelty, Pi Phi, with Al Lukens of the STAR unit, Thetas Jean Dresden and Pat Pierce with Phi Gams Al Artman and Bud Johnson. Incidentally, Theta Alice MacCampbell is expecting pinmate Ren Bukacek to be here on furlough. Ren is former Kappa Sig and Innocent of N. U. . . . And Fred Matheny, Phi Delt, and Bill Robinson, Kappa Sig, will also be here on furlough to see Thetas Mary Helen Farrar and Ginny Malster.

This next item has nothing to do with night time wear but as long as we are mentioning boys' clothes we might ask you how you like the ski sweaters that the girls are filling out? Carol Jean McGrew, Tri Delt pledge, was looking lovely yesterday in a maroon sweater adorned with reindeer and such. Betty Mahan, Alpha Chi, has a few moose trailing around a beige sweater, too.

We leave you now to return again in the not too distant future with more news and views of the

Alcove Booknotes

The American volunteer group in China is again the subject of one of the Alcove's new "Books in Wartime" series. Russel Whelan's "Flying Tigers" describes the organization, training and exploits of the famous Flying Tigers. Royal Leonard's "I flew for China" also tells the first hand adventures of that famous group.

The latest book concerning Claire Chennault's dauntless group of airmen is "The Lady and the Tigers" by Olga Greenlaw, wife of Chennault's chief of staff. She was the only woman with the Flying Tigers throughout their spectacular campaign. Mrs. Greenlaw was granted the privilege of accompanying the group in the position of war diary statistician and editor of the A. V. G. News. In her book she recounts the daily life and exploits of these modern heroes with sympathy, wit, and a deep admiration for the work which they accomplished. The book is based on the official diary and her own personal diary.

Because few people realize that American women have had such an important part in the scientific progress of the twentieth century, Edna Yost has written "American Women of Science." In this book she has included a group of short biographical sketches of women, most of them living, who have won a recognized place in the field of science today.

Beginning with a tribute to Marie Curie, the book includes, among others, sketches of the first woman in America to be granted a degree in the field of science, a Harvard astronomer, Alice Hamilton, famous for her work in illnesses caused by industrial poisons, a zoologist, management engineer, physicist, and anthropologist.

AST Invasion.
Several ASTP fellows will be invading the Gamma Phi house, and they are, namely Patty McIllece and Tex Neddleton, Ann Doleva and Chuck Dyer, Dolly Dolezal and Bob Boyd, Janet Gibson and Bill Burns. And similarly some Betas and Alpha Phi's will be taking off for the dance . . . Lorraine Rabe and Johnny Dean, Blackie Blanchard and Dick Klopp, Betty Lou Horton and Bill Olson, Sally Sears and Dale Cadavy . . . Delta Gamma Nina Scott will be with ASTP Miller Foster, and DG Ann Crosby is expecting Phi Psi Bill Thornburg, former president of Innocents. We'll be seein' three Navy dental students, Glen Therman, Phi Delt Andy Anderson, and Phi Delt Bud Luers with Pi Phi Min Beede, Jinx Dougan, and Adrian Waggoner . . . And two more twosomes will be Kappas Irene Dunnell and Georgia Ann Dow with ASTP's Lee Masters and Morton Pechter.

Incidentally.
Another beautiful diamond . . . namely that of Barb Schlater, Theta, and the fellow is, of course Beta Bill Gist! . . . And DG Madeline Haecker has just passed the candy. Lt. Bill Cheshire of Kentucky was here recently to give the lady a diamond . . .

This week end, Alpha Phi Lois Christie is expecting pinmate Beta Gene Neuswanger from Camp Hood; Tri Delt Floy Eberle is also expecting her pinmate, DU Harlan Liggett. What is this "perfect friendship" all about between AOPi Dorie Marshall and STAR Charley Cordeal? . . . And off the record, what is the rumor we're hearing about the approaching marriage in, say about three weeks of a certain Theta? We're waiting for the announcement.

As of last week end, we're seeing Alpha Phi Sadie Hawkins with Lt. Kerr of the Phi Delt house. . . . And . . . while Murray is away the mice won't play, because twin brother Bob Menthorne is here to stay—keeping watch over AOPi Georgiale Hansen's interest in the Menthorne twins.

Saturday Niting It
But to get back to Saturday night here are some more twosomes . . . D. A. Stauder, Pi Phi, and ASTP Lew Lehr (Kappa Sig), Alpha Chi Jean Larson and Phi Gam Bill Zinn, Kappa Marcis Halligan and Kenny Elson, Gamma Phi Clarice Marshall and STAR Dale Wolf, Alpha Chi Peggy Shelley and Beta Bush Gallagher, DG Shirley Carithers and STAR Don Showlander, Sig Chi of No. Dakota, Pi Phi Jean Moyer and ATO Claude Wilson, Alpha Phi Myrt Johnson is expecting George Gostas now Nu Sig at Med. school in Omaha and former Innocent of N. U.

No doubt, chillun, you'll be seein' many more then, . . . but for now . . . So long.

Ardis Lyman Weds Lt. Conant

ARDIS LYMAN. —From Lincoln Journal.

On Monday evening, Nov. 22 at 8 o'clock in Holy Trinity church, Miss Ardis Lyman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lyman, became the bride of Lt. (j.g.) Leland Bierce Conant, son of Mrs. Leland Bierce Conant and the late Mr. Conant.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Hattie Carnegie gown of ivory satin styled on princess lines, the bodice of which was embroidered with a leaf design of seed pearls. French maline fell in a four tier veil from a calot embroidered in seed pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias and white orchids.

Serving her sister as matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Kellogg was gowned in lampione pink chiffon velvet and carried white chrysanthemums and pink sweet peas.

Navy Fliers Usher.
Lt. (j.g.) William Pantajja served as best man and ushers were Lt. (j.g.) James Harrington, Lt. (j.g.) James Evans, Lt. (j.g.) William Dunham and Lt. E. W. Ewen, all of the naval air station at Ottumwa, Ia.

A former student at the university, Mrs. Conant is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Lieutenant Conant attended the University of California at Los Angeles for four years, where he was a member of Theta Delta Chi. Before entering the naval air corps he studied law for two years at the University of Southern California.

College Group Considers Post War Education

Post-war educational problems facing colleges and universities will be considered at a work conference planned by the university and other Nebraska colleges. The first meeting of the committee in charge will be held in February.

Chancellor Benjamin F. Schwartz of Nebraska Wesleyan, Wayne O. Reed, state superintendent of schools, and George W. Rosenlof, university director of admissions, form the committee that will make plans for the conference. The university will be host to the first meeting.

Dr. Fred Kelly, of the office of education in Washington, will be an active participant in the conference. Dr. Kelly, who is an alumnus of Nebraska, received an honorary degree from the university last spring.

$25 United States war bond is being offered by Campus Comments, student newspaper, of the best editorial submitted to it suggesting how Mary Baldwin college girls can further participate in the war effort.

'Put Your Best Face Forward' - Miss Agnes

Miss Agnes, Lincoln beautician spoke to approximately one hundred freshmen women on college beauty habits at the second meeting of Coed Counselor Charm school Tuesday evening in Ellen Smith hall.

Introduced by Mary Bonebright Miss Agnes told of correct grooming principles in college life. She demonstrated correct campus coiffures for different facial types on members present. "This year above all years, it is put your best face forward," stated Miss Agnes. "Today we must remain feminine and truly American by being and acting as lovely as we can."

Stresses Fitness.
Stressing the physical fitness program, Miss Agnes stated the foundation of beauty is health. Proper health habits are essential if one wishes to look and feel young. "Any woman can be a young as long as she wishes. Wrinkles are not age lines. . . they are habitual characteristic expressions. Remember to carry a smile wherever you go. They are so valuable and don't cost a cent," concluded Miss Agnes.
Mary Bonebright and Jeanne Guenzel, new Coed Counselor program leaders for this year were presented to the Charm school members.
