

Military Controls War, Marriage

Betsy Jane Wright to Wed

The wedding of Betsy Jane Wright to Lt. Nathan C. Holman, 3rd, stationed at the Adjutant General school in Fort Washington, Md., will be an event of late February. Both are from Lincoln and have attended the university. Miss Wright is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority and Lieutenant Holman is a Sigma Nu.

Engagement and marriage announcements continue to swamp the nation's society editors, and the Nebraskan certainly has its share.

Alpha Chi Ruth Lund was married Wednesday afternoon in Omaha to Herbert Von Goetz, Phi Delta, who recently received his commission in the navy.

Marilyn Griffith, Delta Gamma, will marry Lt. Elmer Nelson Stein who is stationed at Garden City, Feb. 5 at Omaha.

Alpha Phi Marge Hanks married Second Lt. James G. Stevenson at St. Mathews church last night. Lieutenant Stevenson graduated from Northwestern university where he was a Sig Alph.

Looking ahead, Margaret Pester will marry Ensign John Van Tuyl on Feb. 5. He graduated from Middle Bury college, Virginia, where he was an Alpha Sigma Phi.

The marriage of the moment is Lois Wright, Theta, to Lt. Max Cory on Monday at Phoenix, Ariz. Lieutenant Cory graduated from the dental college here and was a Xi Psi, Phi.

Looking back is the marriage of Kappy Kellogg, Delta Gamma, to Lt. Robert R. C. Miller at Camp Hood, Tex. on Jan. 16. Lieutenant Miller graduated from the university where he was a Phi Gam.

The marriage of Annamary Lee to Ensign William K. Bierny at Western Springs, Ill., took place Dec. 20. He attended Knox college at Galesburg, Ill., where he was a Phi Gam.

Reminiscing with Me

BY JUDGE MASON.

Ah yes, the military! Brings back fond memories of days gone by and we travel back for thousands of years to the time when Nebraska was a thriving young university producing great men who have now gone to—the army, but their names stay on forever altho some are only whispered among the more daring of the present day class cutters.

Anything Goes.

Once upon a time there was a little girl who we shall call "Les." She was a Pi Phi and was often seen in the rag office, writing a column which she fondly called "Hell and High Water." However, we shall not mention her real name. . . This little girl once saw two of her sorority sisters in black robes and masks retreating very hurriedly into their room to "talk things over."

Innocently thinking that they were having a harmless bull session, little Les, being in a not-uncommon mischievous mood, walked around the hall telling her sisters that the two robe-wearers were sailing motor boats. Suddenly two strange heads appeared from the doorway, dressed in the same costume, and said, "We are not sailing motorboats, we are meeting to decide who should sail them this spring. Perhaps you would care to advise us?" Was Les' face red!

We end by realting an experience:

Col. (to private): Why didn't you salute me?

Pfc. Calkins: I didn't see you, sir!

Col: Thank goodness, I thought you were mad at me.

Art Gallery Shows One Man Exhibit

Until Jan. 31, in Gallery B of Morrill hall, the art department is sponsoring a one man exhibit by Edgar Britton, a former Nebraskan who is now teaching at Colorado Springs Fine Art center.

Frescos, which are photos and sketches of original copies, mountain scenes and figures, compose the major part of the exhibit. Mr. Britton did the murals, "Epoch in History of Man," for the Lane Technical high school's cafeteria. This was a federal art project of Illinois.
