

Mary Ellen Sim, Bob Dewey Wed- Dorothy Hanks Bride of Lt. Smith

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Sim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Sim of Nebraska City to Pfc. Robert E. Dewey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Z. N. Dewey, took place at 7 o'clock Christmas eve in the chapel of the First Presbyterian church. A dinner at the Cornhusker followed with only immediate families attending.

Miss Sim is a senior at the university. She is president of the Barb Activities Board for Women, a member of the A.W.S. executive board, and recently was chosen one of the 18 university seniors for Who's Who in American colleges and universities.

Pfc. Dewey is a graduate of the university where he took an active part in campus activities and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is now stationed at Love Memorial where he will receive academic training prior to his entrance into officer candidate school.

Dorothy Hanks Marries.

Miss Dorothy Hanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph P. Hanks, became the bride of Lt. Jared Smith, son of Mrs. E. E. Smith of Nebraska City, on Dec. 12 in the post chapel of Biggs Field, El Paso, Tex.

Mrs. Calvin Parmele served as matron of honor and Lt. J. Ward was best man.

Mrs. Smith attended Doane college, Peru teachers college and the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Alpha Phi. Lieutenant Smith was enrolled at Peru teachers college at the time of his enlistment in the army air corps. The couple is residing at El Paso where the groom is stationed.

"Suit Yourself" Is New Motif For Smart Fern Wardrobes

BY BETTY KING

Flash—the first robins are on their way. You know what that means. Suits, of course. Now is the time women begin to think of their spring outfits. (Don't ask me why.)

Suits, as always, will be the backbone of spring wardrobes. This spring suits are important not only because of their practicality but for their versatility also. A change of accessories and presto—a change of costume. A suit's go-everywhere-ness is ideal for the busy coed of today.

Wool gabardine is the most popular fabric for this year's suits. An example of this is the lovely soft beige suit seen in a downtown window recently. The suit was lapel-less (you've heard of the OPA, no doubt) and featured matching grosgrain ties instead of the usual buttons on the jacket.

Wool flannel is as good this year as always. It is particularly smart in grey pinstripe. There are two versions of this—either the popular tailored suit or the bolero suit which is staging a comeback.

Waistcoats are the newest accessory for spring suits. The most amusing of the current crop is the one featuring a low-cut back for daytime (with the jacket) or formal (without the jacket) wear. Other favorite accessories include matching hat and purse combinations, or hat and glove combinations. Hats are mostly on the Dutch cap or calot theme. They are shown in light weight straws or woolsens.

Suits are simple, smart, and feminine—suit yourself.
