"Women in Business," a series college courses which will best of lectures sponsored by members meet the requirements and needs of Phi Chi Theta, professional of the many fields of business.

bizad sorority, will begin this evening with a program in room 316 of the Union from 7:30 to 8:30.

guest speaker, using as his topic "Personnel in Business." As a "Personnel in Business." As a sequel to Mr. Beck's talk, he will lead a discussion of the same topic the following Wednesday evening the following Wednesday evening. Anyone attending the forum may ask questions. Lectures will be held every Wednesday evening at ness.' the same time.

Correlate Theory and Practice.

The aim of the series is to furnish direct relationship between theological studies and actual business conditions and to discover the Dean Clark of the bizad college said, "The success in organizing E. E. Beck, personnel director the series is due to the a. Mem-of a local store, will be the first bers of the bizad college faculty service to those interested in busi-

Business Men Advise.

Severl prominent business men and faculty members have given advice to members of the sorority concerning the content of the series. The topics of the first lec-(See Lecture Series, page 2.)

J. Melton Journeys

Vol. 85, No. 85

Wednesday, February 9, 1944

. . . For Lincoln Concert

answer three long distance calls

Business Lecture Student Foundation Series Begins Tonite Names N. Neuma

STAMP GOAL LACKS $1,017.75

This week marks the end of the fourth loan drive for which the war council set a goal of $2,000. To date $982.85 worth of stamps have been sold on the campus and $1,017.75 must be collected during this week to reach the goal.

Aside from the usual stamp day when stamps are sold from campus booths, Tassels sold them at affiliated houses last night and will sell to other organized houses tonight and again to the sororities Thursday, according to Mary Russell, Tassel president.

Last week end similar tours were held and the war council sponsored a stamp dance Fri-day evening at the Union, yet the campus has not reached the halfway mark toward the ascribed goal. There is less than a week left to go over the top. Let's all back the attack!

Youth Panel Adopts Four From Allen to Corn Resolutions

Representatives Of Three Races Discuss Needs

At a panel discussion held Sunday night in connection with Youth Week and sponsored by the Christian Youth Council, four university students, representing three races, discussed racial discriminations.

council adopted four resolutions. two of which have direct bearings cultural associations and groups on the university. The two resolu- and will continue through this tions are:

To ask university officials for clarification of the policy in re-gard to equal rights for Nisei and Negro students in the dormitories, and secondly, to commend university regents for their tolerance in allowing Nisei students to study here and to request that the quota be raised.

In commenting on the resolu-tions, Anne Weelensiek, president (See Youth Panel, page 3.)

Foundation were recently chosen chairman and Clarice by the senior members of the or- outstate chairman. District chairganization.

Neumann,

memberof Gamma Phi Beta, the War Council, Tas-sels and Coed-Counselors. Jean Larsen was elected vice presidentsecretary. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega, Vestals Natalle Neumann the Lamp, of YWCA, Tassels, student council, war council and Coed-Counselors.

Virginia Stuermer is the new

Agriculture Meet Opens Here Today

Governor Dwight Griswold, William B. Jeffers, president of Union Pacific, and Dr. Edmund E. Lin-tion will be given tomorrow eve-ning at Grant Memorial hall at 8. coln, chief economist for the Du-Pont corporation, will speak at Admittance will be by invitation 7:30 tonight at the first general group meeting of Organized Agriculture which is being held today and tomorrow on the ag campus.

Governor Griswold will introduce Mr. Jeffers and Mr. Lincoln who will deliver the two main addresses of the evening, Mr. Jeffers will speak on "Agriculture's will speak on "Agriculture's Transportation Problem in War Time," and Dr. Lincoln will deal with "Our Uncommon Heritage and Dr. Lincoln will deal and Our Challenging Future." The meeting is open to the public.

The two day session of Organ-The two day session of Organ-ized Agriculture, annual winter get together of farm, extension service, and business people, opened this morning with group meetings of the various state agrievening.

Marshall. men are: Shirley Hinds, first district; Shirley Hillmer, second dis-

Elected president was Natalie trict; Pat Rann, third district; e u m a n n, Doris Dolezal, fourth district; Janet Sherwood, fifth district; Lorene Novatny, sixth district; Betty Jann Mahan, seventh district.

Set New Scholarship Goal.

The foundation set a new goal for the war scholarship fund for the coming year at $1,000 in face value of war bonds. During the past year the first goal of $2,500 was met.

The new officers, who will as-sume responsibility today, will (See Student Foundation, page 2.),

Dance Club Entertains Artist Guild

Orchesis, honorary dance club, will be in charge of a program to be presented for the Lincoln Artist's Guild. A lecture-demonstraonly.

Orchesis, which is sponsored by the women's phys ed department and WAA, is under the direction of Dr. Aileene Lockhart.

For its program the club will resent "Technique Study," Waltz," "Minuet," "Gigue," present "Technique Study." "Waltz," "Minuet," "Gigue," "Meditation," "Skippy," "Rhythm" and "Moonshine." All the chore-ography is original with the group.

Members of the cast are Dorothy Jean Brown, president of the club; June Critchfield, past president; Eunice Way, secretary; Lois Klindt, treasurer; Lela Mac Jacobson, accompanist; Frances Bleick, Helen Marie Johnson, Mary Ann Knox, Peggy Lemon, Lucille Wolford, Jacqueline Young, Virginia Campen, Ernestine Craig, Marion

(See Dance Club, page 3.)

Myra Colburg and Pat Cham-|select one girl from those names berlain have been chosen to rep- submitted by colleges and univerresent the Nebraska campus in sities all over the country to serve the March Mademoiselle "V"-Girl as "V-Girl" for that month. Judgcontest, sponsored by Mademoi- ing is done on the basis of the selle magazine.

new contest each month and will amount of war work in which the girls participate while at the same The magazine will sponsor a time engaging in regular school activities and keeping up their scholastic records.

BY GHITA HILL. Sunday he appeared in Fred Al- and eat his corn flakes,

Ien's evening program in New York and Tuesday morning found cup of coffee, Melton let loose on him eating corn flakes in Lincoln. his friendly, magnetic personality, This is an example of the high rate of speed energetic, busy James Melton, who appeared here at the symphony concert series last night, has been working under all season.

The press from the Lincoln newspapers who had convened to interview Mr. Melton, found that before the American radio, concert and operatic tenor could give them any information, he had to

ROTC Band Plays Sunday

Under the direction of Mr. Donald Lentz, the university ROTC symphonic band will present its annual midwinter concert Sunday at 3 p. m. in the Coliseum.

Special number will be played greeting "ole man Hill," his ac-

From Lincoln Journal. JAMES MELTON

by Robert Jorden, baritone horn player, and the trumpet sextet composed of Carlos Atkinson, Robert McShane, Wayne Wolfe, Calvin Gloor, Phil Kearney and Carrol Kent.

This concert will be the first in the band's history in which girls have played an important part. Until this year there were only six girls in the band but now the number has been increased to thirty-three.

The program will be:

PROGRAM

Sinvonic Serenade (Shadwell) Mesera Atkinson, McShane, Wolfe, Gloor, Carrol, Kearney. (Shindwell) The Seven Bean (Coates) Suits of Sevenados (Herbert) 1 Spanish, 2 Chinese, 3 Cuban, 7 topical

 Gould (Sousa)
(Tschs/kowsky) Tropleal Liberty Bell Marche Slav

Coed Counselors Give Frosh Party

All second semester freshmen women are invited to a party given by the Coed Counselor board tomorrow from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. in Ellen Smith. The members of the board wish to take this opportunity to get acquainted with the freshmen.

Coed Counselors is the big sister organization to help freshmen acquaint themselves with the campus and other students. Catherine Weils is president of the board.

companist, and anyone else who happened to enter the Cornhusker coffee shop.

Makes Second Appearance.

Singing in Lincoln for the sec-

(See J. Melton, page 2.)

Choose Eleven Committeemen For Coed Show

Committee chairmen for the Coed Follies, annual all coed show sponsored by AWS, have been selected.

Virginia Stuermer has charge of tickets. Jo Martz is chairman of skits and Rachael Ann Lock will direct the TNC presentation. The style show is under the supervi-sion of Mary Lou Holtz; Mary Ann Mattoon has charge of pub-licity; Midge Holtzscherer is the notification chairman; Betty Lou Simon, ushers; Mary Jo Latsch, balcony manager: Alice Abel, lighting and properties; Natalie Porter, flowers and cups, and Ellen Sim Dewey, dressing rooms and backstage.

Drafts of the skits have been handed in to Dorothy Carnahan, general chairman. Try-outs will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 22 and 23 from 7 to 9.

The show will be presented Thursday evening, March 9 at 7:30 at the Temple Theater.

On Book Nook Air Program

Book nook program heard over KFOR every Thursday at 3:45 will feature Sir Ramaswami at this week's broadcast.

Sponsored by the university library in collaboration with the radio division of the speech department, book nook this year has been under the supervision of Prof. Leo Martin and under the student direction of Marilyn Simpson.

Betty Rhodes will interview Sir Ramaswami who appeared at the university convocation Thursday on newspaper policies in India and the reading habits of Indian people as contrasted to those of the United States.

A new feature of the program will be a quiz session with questions relating to well known books and authors. Bill Major will comment on the latest books. Jerry Neumeyer is the script writer.

Nebraskan Needs Two 1943 Issues of Paper Charlotte Hill, business manager of the Nebraskan, asks that anyone with copies of the paper for December 3 or October 10 turn them in to the Nebraskan office in the Union. Five cents will be paid for each copy.

Coeds Present Senior Recital Today at Four

Miss Shirley Smith, Miss Betty Kendle, and Miss Dorothy Huffman will appear in the first sen- in the shape of the letters M V. ior recital of this semester, to be held this afternoon at 4 in Temple theater.

three parts, the first of which will be presented by Miss Shirley Smith, soprano. She will sing a group of five songs, assisted by Miss Ruth Way on the flute.

"Evening Song."

will play five selections, including The awards are worth $75 a year, "Evening Song," by Schumann. $37.50 going toward tuition each Miss Mary Helen Bush will assist her at the piano to complete the second part of the program.

Miss Dorothy Huffman, contralto, will appear in the last part of the program, singing a group of 85 or above, must not receive of six songs. She will be accom- any down-slips the first six weeks panied by Johnson Beam, violin- this semester, must be carrying ist.

Prerequisite to Degrees.

As a prerequisite to their degree of bachelors of music and education, these students must appear in at least one recital. The next recital will be given Feb. 23, March 19. Announcement of the by Miss Mary Helen Bush and awards will also be made at the Miss Dorothy Strasheim.

Five girls were selected by an impartial committee and their names submitted to the war council, who made the final choice, The five included: Pat Chamberlain, Myra Coleburg, Marilyn Adler, Dorothy Carnahan, and Marylouise Goodwin.

The winner of the national contest will be featured in Mademoiselle and will receive a jeweled pin

Coed Applications The program will be divided into For Scholarships

Applications for the five Mortar Board scholarships must be made through the dean of women's office by Friday, Febuary 11, ac-At the organ, Miss Betty Kendle cording to Rachel Lock, president. semester.

> In order to qualify for the scholarships, candidates must have a sophomore or junior standing next year, have an average at least 12 hours and plan to carry 12 hours both semesters next year, and must submit two letters of recommendation with the application.

The five winners will be presented at the Mortar Board tea honors convocation