

Mrs. Clifton E. Lambert . . .

—From Lincoln Journal.

Mrs. Clifton E. Lambert was, prior to her marriage February 15, Miss Joyce McDaniel Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Francis Edwards. Both the bride and groom attended the University of Nebraska.

Lieutenant Lambert is now stationed at Hendricks Field, Fla.

Joyce Edwards Becomes Bride of Lt. C. F. Lambert

At First-Plymouth Congregational church on February 15, Miss Joyce McDaniel Edwards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Francis Edwards, became the bride of Lt. Clifton F. Lambert. Matron of honor was Mrs. Frank Marsh, jr., and Miss Lorraine Lambert and Miss Arlene Lambert, twin sisters of the groom, served as bridesmaids. Following the ceremony which was at 8 o'clock in the evening, a reception for one hundred guests was held in the Regency room of the Hotel Cornhusker.

Mrs. Lambert is a former student of the university. Lieutenant Lambert also attended the university where he was a member of the varsity swimming team.

The couple is now residing in Sebring, Florida, where Lieutenant Lambert is now stationed.

The engagement of Miss Helen Freeborn to Lt. Nelson J. Vaughn, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Vaughn of Seattle, Washington, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Freeborn.

Miss Freeborn attended the University of Nebraska where she was a member of Alpha Omicron Pi and Pi Chi Theta, business administration sorority. She is now a radio operator for the Continental Airlines at El Paso, Texas. Lieutenant Vaughn attended St. Martin's college, Olympia, Wash., and was affiliated with Sigma Mu Kappa. He has just returned from 15 months with the anti-aircraft unit in the Panama Canal zone and is now stationed at Ft. Bliss, El Paso, Texas.

The wedding will be an event of early March.

Mrs. James Hugh Stuart of Fayetteville, N. C., has been visiting in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Mutz. She will leave Saturday to join her husband, Lieutenant Stuart, who is stationed at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

Both Lieutenant and Mrs. Stuart formerly attended the University of Nebraska.

Swanee College recently heard an address by one of China's outstanding Christian leaders, Bishop Andrew Yu Yue Tsu, of the Yunnan-Kweichow district in southwestern China. The Bishop spoke on social trends in wartime China.

Suits Set Style Bolero, Covert Classics Lead

Since winter has finally arrived with snow and all the trimmings, coeds will begin anticipating spring, and suits.

Bolero suits are going to be very much in vogue. One of the most attractive ones seen to date is the white wool bolero bound in navy blue with a navy skirt. To add a flashy patriotic note, a white vest-type blouse with a red scarf tied in the neck completes this outstanding outfit.

For those who stick to the classics with grim determination, a plaid suit with matching hat and bag will catch more than one male eye. The blazer suit has long been a college favorite, especially with bright white wool binding on the suit coat, and a box-pleated skirt.

Another novelty for warmer weather is the wool jersey suit with lapels, cuffs, and lining of the jacket matching the striped jersey blouse. Covert suits are still being shown, and one of light blue Venetian wool is ideal for evening.

Society Has It . . . Candy Passings, Sparklers, Pins Are Order of Day

There will probably always be candy-passings as for instance, two recent ones at the Pi Phi domicile when Sue Newman and Beta George Pinney did the honors and Dorris Eberly too, who will be married in April to one Vincent Steed of the army . . . but there comes to our ears news of a duo one which not only took the candy but the cake as well—here was a room full of hungry babes at the passing of Barb Foley and Beulah Wieggers of the dorm—one gal asks when the blessed event is to be—roars and screams—you know how it is—then to get out of this jam she asks if she might be a pallbearer at said event—about this time, we begin to think this lady has her wires crossed but on second thought, has she?

KKG Dolly Clinton has recently received a sparkler from former DU Frank Meroney, one romance that has survived the storms of life from high school days to now—less number one for those who can't make-up-my-mind humans who blame circumstances on events. On the other hand there's the affair of Margie George, KKG pledge, and Ward Quilter, dent, to which something has happened, but definitely—they aren't going steady now—what's more, Ward will be seen with sister pledge on Saturday night,—this little sister is Trudy Page who must be on the ball socially even though assistants in the chem department do have to wake her up in the middle of quiz sections.

Grand Program Chairman Visits Methodist Group

Kappa Phi, Methodist religious sorority, entertained Mrs. Ethlyn Whitney, grand program chairman, at a special meeting held at Wesley Foundation Monday, February 14.

Mrs. Whitney spoke on this year's Kappa Phi theme, "Faith Is the Victory." In her talk she related some of her European experiences when she was a delegate to the World Student Christian Movement conference at Amsterdam in 1939.

Refreshments were served from a table decorated in traditional Valentine manner.

Phi Joy Laune and ATO Junior Baughan announce their new steady deal and if you don't call that "complications," wait and see . . . Ann Doudna is up a stump as to which Beta she'll take to the big formal since her steady Dick Cullen leaves for the army Friday morning . . . others at the affair will be Lois Jean Johnson with Phi Gam Bill Zinn, Clarice Marshall with, of course, Dale Wolf, former Farm House. Right about now Love Library makes its contribution in the form of AS Dick Glynn with Betty (Figaro Pete) Peters and ASTP's Jack Frost and Al Tierney with Shirley Hammond and Margaret Neumann.

Gunner Settling Down?

Kappa gals say June Korb and Phi Psi Ernie Larson "aren't pinned or anything" but still they aren't much for going with anyone else so where does it get you? Methinks it would do a lot of hearts much good if Ernie did settle down—how about it, gunner? And then there's Mickey Jarrell who claims she hasn't had a date for some six months but we know it hasn't been that long since ATO George Abbott left town—and now Mickey is being true, but to who cuz it might be a boy overseas and not Georgie Porgie . . . Theta Marj Heyn leaves for the east to see pinmate "Birdie" James, former ATO, . . . and so it goes—and bells ring and things . . .

Flashy rumor that DG "Johnnie" Johnson may soon be engaged—man unknown—but watch this column for further developments—now on to cheese-cake, stout or better still I couldn't sleep a wink last night, and I wonder why . . . that's all, and heavens, isn't it enough . . . 'Nother flash—Pi Phi pledge Jean Morse has just uncovered Chi Phi Psi pin of Roke Furr, Bye!

Mortar Boards Plan Luncheon for Alumnae

To celebrate the 25th anniversary of Founder's day, the active members of the Nebraska chapter of Mortar Board will give a luncheon for the alumnae tomorrow at one o'clock at the University club.

Attendance is expected to be around 45 persons. Catherine Wells is in charge of all arrangements.
