

Bond Total Reaches $24,600

New Goal Set For 4th Drive

Sales of over $5,000 in war bonds since February 1 have boosted the total purchased by Nebraska's ASTP units to $24,621.90 in the current 4th War Loan Drive, Major Harland G. Pattison, War Bond Officer, disclosed yesterday. The bonds sold during the first two weeks in February amounted to $5,053.75.

With almost two weeks left in the drive, the ASTP has already exceeded the quota set for it by the War Department. It is hoped that a new goal of $30,000 in cash purchases of bonds will be reached before the drive officially closes on February 29.

Buy That Extra Bond!

With a slogan of "Dig In—For That Extra Bond!", every man in the various units is being urged to purchase at least one bond during the drive. It is estimated that only half the members of the ASTP bought bonds during January, but it is hoped that each student will try to purchase an extra bond this month to give the unit 100% representation in the Bond Drive.

Those wishing to buy bonds may have the money taken from their pay, and the bonds will be secured for them. These purchases are in addition to the regular monthly bond allotments. Approximately 95% of the AST students now make these monthly deductions.

Noted Author Speaks before A & L Group

A noted author and lecturer on Nazi Germany, William Ebenstein, of the University of Wisconsin, will visit the Nebraska campus next week to lecture to the members of the Area and Language program. The purpose of Mr. Ebenstein's week-stay, according to Dr. David Fellman, head of the A&L program here, will be to discuss technical subjects of contemporary German government.

Born in Austria.

An Austrian by birth, brought up in Vienna and educated in Germany, Mr. Ebenstein also studied at the London School of Economics. He came to this country in 1935, and since then has been associated with the University of Wisconsin, where he is now an assistant professor of political science. He is reputed to be a very able lecturer, and his book, "The Nazi State," is one of the text books in Nebraska's Area program. Besides five daily lectures, Mr. Ebenstein will preside at round table discussions on Thursday and Friday afternoons. The lectures will be for A&L students only.

Two books on Fascist Italy, several on public law, and one on the historical foundations of German politics, now being printed, are other literary contributions of Mr. Ebenstein.

You, You—and You, Too!

Last month you came back from furlough plenty low in the dough. But by Jan. 31 you and the rest of the ASTs purchased almost $20,000 worth of War Bonds. That was a lot of money for a bunch of deflated wallets. But there was a War Loan Drive going on—and people everywhere were expecting everyone to buy that extra bond. And that's what a lot of you did.

This month is a short month. Those pay envelopes will be coming along pretty darn soon now. And the 4th War Loan Drive is still on. The ASTP units have already reached their goal—thanks mainly to several large-hearted purchasers, who made up for those men who refused to dig down for the bond everyone was asked to buy. Over half the ASTs did their part and purchased a $25 bond to help the War Loan Drive—but they were only half the potential purchasers.

Just reaching our goal is not enough. The Drive isn't over yet—and we'd like to see the total go way over the top—to prove that we are ready and willing to help, and also that we know a good investment when we see it. Those who bought bonds before can do it again—most of them will want to. To those who couldn't manage a bond last month, we can only say: It's another month—and you can still contribute your share to Uncle Sam's Bond Drive by pitching with one more bond to help down the enemy.

A bond costs only $18.75 and brings 3 1/2 per cent interest in ten years. You can't buy a better bargain. So for a quicker victory, dig in—and buy that bond!

Airmen Choose Queen of 348th From Pictures

The gal next door, his sister's best friend, or maybe even his own girl friend are all being entered in the air corp's beauty contest, to determine who's the queen of the 348th CTD. The cadets have all been sending home urgent letters for their favorite pictures—the judging is to be of photographs.

Already a flock of pictures have been submitted for the inspection and admiration of the judges—the beauties coming from all parts of the country. The deadline is February 21st, and the picture and vital statistics of the winner will be published in the next issue of the AirCorDet.

Coeds Give Dance Class Tomorrow

The second in the series of dancing classes for military trainees stationed on campus will begin at 4 tomorrow afternoon in the Ballroom of the Student Union. These classes are designed to give trainees a few pointers on the finer arts of dancing.

A corps of girls from the residence halls headed by Mary Lou Broady will act as partners for the soldiers.

Top 1% of AST Do 105 Sit-Ups Run 300 in 38

Can you do 45 push-ups, 75 squat jumps, 105 sit-ups, 16 pull-ups, 17 burpees in 20 seconds? Can you run 300 yards in 38 seconds, breeze thru the 100-yd pick-a-back in 19 seconds?

You're in the top one percent of the ASTP if you can, according to recent Physical Efficiency Test results covering a study of the scores of more than 6,000 trainees at typical AST units thruout the country. These top performances were registered after one term of ASTP.

Ten percent of all trainees set up the following minimums: 33 push-ups, 58 squat jumps, 60 sit-ups, 10 pull-ups, 14 burpees in 20 seconds. They ran the 300 in 41.4 and the 100-yd. carry in 21 seconds.

New Co-Editors For AirCorDet Are Appointed

With the departure of class 13 of the Air Cadets in the near offing, the new staff for the AirCorDet, detachment newspaper, has been chosen. Martin H. Herschkowitz, of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Mal Harris, from Glendale, Calif., are the new co-editors. Cadet Herschkowitz formerly attended St. John's School of Law, while Cadet Harris spent his college days at Oregon State University.

New associate editors are A/S Jerry W. Waldrop and Cecil E. Ramey. The former was class 16 reporter, while Ramey has been doing feature writing for the paper. The staff artist is Cadet Newman Myrak. Ramey's replacement as feature editor is Warren L. Green, while Leo Sweeney will continue to handle the sports department.

Co. C Tops Air Corps, 48-37, In Third Tournament Opener

A torrid first half, which gave them a 28 to 14 advantage, led C company to a decisive 48 to 37 win over the Air Corps last night in the Coliseum. Ev Parminter and Cliff Lind spearheaded the Blue Wave's scoring with 12 points apiece, while Mal Harris was high for the losers with six field goals to his credit.

Air Corps Hits First.

Harris gave the 348th a 2 to 0 lead in the first minute on a lay-up. Burstein nullified this with a set shot, and from then on it was touch and go—with C company having the touch as they built up a nice 15 to 8 advantage with 11 minutes gone. "C's" fast break was good for a couple of baskets, with Parminter on the scoring end, while Dobrer and Burstein sifted thru the Birdmen's zone to score. The Air Cadets showed plenty of fight on both backboards, controlling play there in the opening stages of the game. The Blue went on to pile up their 28 to 14 half-time margin.

"C" Stretches Lead.

The pace continued fast in the second period, as "C" sent their lead to 34 to 18, with four minutes gone. Lind tallied one from in close, Dobrer dropped a set shot, and Harris scored on a nice pivot shot for the flyers to make it, 38 to 20, and gave Company C its biggest margin of the evening. Play became faster and rougher as O'Connor and Harris continued to whittle away at the league leaders' advantage. With nine minutes left, the score stood at 45 to 31. Lind dropped a pivot shot, and Burdette, who, with Burstein, showed plenty of fight off the backboards all night, chipped in with a set shot, to match a couple of one-handers by O'Connor. The game ended with "C" moving the ball and the airmen trying to break it up, and the score, 48 to 37.

The next intramural game is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 3:30, with Companys B and A clashing.

Co. 'C' Takes Second Round Of Tournament

Smashing their way to four straight wins, Company C's Blue Wave came out on top of the second round of the army basketball tourney. Paced by two high-scoring aces, tricky Milt Dobrer and Cliff Lind, noted for his drive off the boards, the C men now have seven consecutive intramural victories to their credit, losing only to B Company in the first round opener.

Defensive standouts all season for the league leaders has been "Solid Al" Burstein, ably assisted by Chuck Burdette—a good floor man. Recently John Bottorf gave the team some added offensive punch, as did "Hopalong" Cassidy. The play-making of Dobrer and Burstein has been a factor in the team's success.

Air Corps Falls First.

The Air Corps was Company C's first victim, being nosed out 28-26 in late December. A Company and the Field House were fairly easy conquests, falling, 46-21 and 51-20, respectively. Both B and C had one win when they met in their second round win, but the Blue established its superiority by a decisive 49-36 victory.

In second place, with a postponed game with A company still to be played, is the 348th CTD. The air cadets turned in the biggest upset of the season when they topped B Company, 49-39, in their tourney meeting. They also romped over the Field House by a 50-29 count.

Former Winner Ends Third.

First round leader, B Company's Hustlers, ended up in third place with a 2 and 2 record. The Green team topped the Field House 51-27, and won quite easily from A's Red Raiders. "A" and the Field House fought it out for the cellar position, and A Company won, 24-27.
