Allied Commander's Brother Talks to Honor Students Here in April

Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of the Allied commander in Europe and recently installed president of Kansas State college, will be the speaker at the university annual honors day convocation April 18.

MILTON S. EISENHOWER.

... addresses honors convocation.

Students who rank in the upper ten per cent of their classes for the preceding two semesters, members of honorary scholastic organizations, and winners of scholarships will be honored.

The names of all newly elected members of honorary societies, prize winners and recipients of other awards should be mailed to Professor L. B. Smith of the department of architecture. Home towns should be included.

President Eisenhower was American vice-consul at Edinburgh, Scotland in 1926, and director of information of the department of agriculture in 1928. In 1936 he became co-ordinator of the land-use programs of the department of agriculture. In 1942, at the request of President Roosevelt, he became director of the War Relocation Authority and organized and directed the relocation of Japanese-Americans evacuated from the Pacific Coast.

Following the completion of the evacuation, Eisenhower became associate director of the Office of War Information, a position he resigned to become president of Kansas State.

UN Songstress Wins National Radio Honors

In the Hour of Charm's search for "The Undiscovered Voice of America," Lenore Beck, sophomore in the School of Music, was one of four women from this district to win in the preliminaries.

Majoring in voice, piano, and foreign languages, Lenore, Chi Omega, hopes to make a career of radio and light opera. She has appeared in many university productions and is a soloist in the Westminster church choir in Lincoln.

Try-outs were held at WOW in Omaha where the winners made records to be sent to New York to enter competition with winners from 28 other cities. Several national winners will be called to New York for an appearance with Phil Spitalny's All-Girls' orchestra. One national winner will receive a contract with the orchestra for 13 weeks.

According to R. P. Burrows of the General Electric company, who supervised the Omaha auditions, "The middle west certainly may be proud of the musical talent in this section of the country."

'Follies' Holds Full Rehearsal Wednesday at 7

Organized houses bring their Coed Follies skits out in the open for the first time Wednesday night, when dress rehearsal for all acts is scheduled. The rehearsal will be from 7 to 9, but props for all acts must be in Temple theater not later than 5 p. m. Wednesday.

Dorothy Carnahan, AWS board member in charge of the Follies, announced that there will be no programs this year. Instead, large poster cards mounted on a tripod, in the manner of the old burlesque and vaudeville shows, will announce each skit and curtain act.

Announce Committee Heads.

Chairmen of the various Coed Follies committees are as follows: skits, Jo Martz; style show, Mary Lou Holtz; TNC, Rachael Ann Lock; publicity, Mary Ann Mattoon; correspondence and notification, Midge Holtzschere; doormen and ushers, Betty Lou Simon; tickets, Virginia Stuermer; program and balcony manager, Mary Jo Latsch; lighting and props, Alice Abel; flowers and cups, Natalie Porter; dressing rooms and backstage, Ellen Sim Dewey.

The stage crew is composed of Don Keough, Barbara Berggren, Anne Wellenseik, Jean Cowden, and Virginia Seacrest.

Former Advanced ROTC's Receive Lieutenant's Bars

Recently appointed second lieutenants were four former advanced ROTC students here, Milton R. Adler, John W. Gill, Robert E. Jungman and Stephen G. Wiles, according to Col. James P. Murphy, commandant, University of Nebraska.

The men were commissioned at the engineer school, Fort Belvoir, Va.

Budget Reels; Govt. Raises Postal Rates

Expense of campus correspondences will be increased after March 26 by the new postal rates which were raised by the revenue act of 1943 enacted Feb. 25, 1944.

The changes are:

First class local mail: Rates raised from 2 to 3 cents.

Air mail: Rates increase from 6 to 8 cents per ounce or fraction thereof.

Parcel post: Rates increased 3 percent. The minimum charge per package will be a one-cent increase.

Insured and C. O. D. rates have doubled.

Registered mail: Up to $5 increased from 15 to 20 cents.

Rates of sending on books, library books, catalogues and printed advertising have been changed slightly. Second class rates and airmail rates outside the continental United States and foreign rates for civilians have not been changed.

Due to the paper shortage the present stock of air mail stamps must be used and when the new rates go into effect it will be necessary to add the required postage.

University Church Groups Observe Lenten Services

University church groups will meet this week end to observe Lenten services, for social hours and to hear speakers.

For the second Sunday in Lent Rev. H. Erick, university Lutheran pastor, will speak on Christ's second word from the cross: "Verily, I say unto thee: Today shalt thou be with me in paradise." The service will be at 8 p. m.

Art Galleries Exhibit Best Pictures Of 'First Rate' American Artists

National exhibition of the best pictures of "first rate" American artists begins today at Morrill hall and will last four weeks, according to Dwight Kirsch, director of the university art galleries.

"This exhibition is considered one of the best in the country with pictures from New York and other shows in the east," said Mr. Kirsch.

Some of the pictures to be added to the university's collection will be selected from the exhibition. Because of the reputation of the show, artists have sent paintings here, removing them from private shows in the east.

Bring Best to Exhibition.

"The reputation has been built up thru consistent buying over a period of years," was Mr. Kirsch's comment.

The pictures for the show are selected from art exhibited all over the country by Mr. Kirsch. Since Nebraska's show is later than most, he is able to select the best from each show.

Over 200 pieces will be exhibited exclusive of drawings. Every type of painting is included: water colors, oils, temperas, a local monotype and even some new encaustics.

"Altho there are some Nebraska artists included in the show, they are exhibited because they are top notch artists, not because this is their home state" said Mr. Kirsch.

Beginning on Art Association Day, as is the custom, the exhibition will be open to the public from 9 to 5 on week days and from 2 to 6 on Sundays for four weeks. On Tuesday and Thursdays the exhibition will be open until 9 p. m.

Also celebrating Art Association Day, the Nebraska Art Association held a Living Art Exhibit Saturday afternoon in the Union.

The schedule of gallery talks which will take place during the exhibition will be posted in the Union.

lobby shows the mercury raised to the $250 degree mark. Of this amount $200 was contributed by the Tassels organization and $50 by the Cornhusker and Nebraskan publications each of which gave $25. These contributions were made before the drive had officially opened.

National Goal Set 50% Higher.

At the Union Juke-box dance Friday night, a news reel of action, battle conditions and services rendered by the Red Cross was shown.

Since the nation's goal has been raised 50% over last year's total due to the need for funds for war time services, AUF solicitors are asking $2.00 or more from student contributors, said Howe.

Head solicitors will turn in collections daily Monday thru Friday at 5 o'clock in the Union, room 313. In this way a running account of the money contributed will be kept and reported on the goal thermometer.

Rally Held Friday.

At the Lancaster Red Cross rally which was held Friday night in the Cornhusker ballroom, Al DuTeau, general chairman of the Lancaster county drive, said, there is not a home in Lincoln but what is touched by the war. There is not a man or woman in the service of our country but who receives some service from the Red Cross. We know, therefore, that every person at home will want to give an increased amount this year to the Red Cross.

Home Ec Frosh Win State 4-H Championship

Betty Jean Peters, a freshman home economics major on the ag campus has been chosen one of the four champion 4-H club champions for 1944, the highest state honor that a 4-H club member can receive. She was chosen on the basis of her past record in 4-H club work.

Betty Jean has been a member of 4-H clubs in her home community near Sidney for the last nine years and has been a club leader for six years of that time. She has carried on thirty-six projects including both homemaking and livestock work.

Has Won Numerous Honors.

In 1941, 1942, and 1943 she won trips to national 4-H club week in Chicago and has also won two trips to state conservation camps. Among other awards, she has been a member of the state champion dairy demonstration team, has received a second in state judging contests, in 1942 was state and national champion of girl's records, and the following year rated second in national leadership contest.

YWCA Sponsors Leap Year Dance Traditional Style

Tradition was reversed at the Mortar Board ball and the men took the coeds. But on March 18, the women get a chance, after all, to pursue the Leap Year tradition in true Nebraska style at the YWCA-sponsored Leap Year dance.

This will be one of the last university dances before the AST men leave. Coeds can follow the Leap Year idea and ask either soldier or civilian men, or the men can assert their position as members of the stronger sex and take the women. Either way, tickets are 35 cents a couple.

The dance will be held in the Union ballroom from 4 to 6 in the afternoon.
