Omaha South edged Columbus 13-10 at the coliseum last night to win the state high school class A basketball championship in a tightly played, bitterly fought game.

The game was close throughout, with the Packers coming from an 8-9 deficit at the end of the third quarter to push past the Discoverers in a tight fourth quarter that had the stands roaring. Little Dan Georgeff, sparkplug of the South quint, drove in alone for a set-up on a tip-off play after one minute of the fourth period to send the Packers into a 10-9 lead. Shober followed with a free throw and Carrillo hit with a jump shot to push the Packers into a 13-9 lead with two and a half minutes left. Rich's gift toss a minute later brought Columbus to 13-10, but the Packers controlled play for the last minute and a half and successfully stalled to protect their lead.

Columbus Leads First.

Columbus had held a 3-2 first-quarter lead, with South rallying in the second quarter to grab a 6-4 halftime edge on a basket by Carrillo and free tosses by Georgeff and Myers. The Discoverers regained the lead in the third period on a basket by Rood and free throws by Rich and Elston, grabbing a 9-8 lead as the quarter ended. Then came Georgeff's set-up to touch off the winning last period rally for Cornie Collins' Packers.

This was the second state title for South, who also won the class A title in 1939.

Have a "Coke" = Hallo, Bracie (HELLO, BROTHER)

... a way to say "Pardner" to a visiting Pole
When a Polish flyer says Hallo, Bracie, he greets you as a brother. The American means the same thing when he says Have a "Coke", whether he offers it away from home or from his icebox at home. Around the world, Coca-Cola stands for the pause that refreshes, — the global high-sign of the kind-hearted.

"Coke" = Coca-Cola
It's natural for popular names to acquire friendly abbreviations. That's why you hear Coca-Cola called "Coke".
