

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 86, No. 101

LINCOLN, 8, NEBRASKA

Wednesday, March 15, 1944

War Council Buys Plaque In Memoriam Sets Up $300 War Bond Fund

War council is setting aside a sum of $300 in government war bonds at the comptroller's office for a memorial plaque, it was announced today by Virginia Stuermer, who is in charge of the project.

The plaque, which will be placed in the new armory building at the end of the war, will contain names of all University of Nebraska gold star service men. It will be presented at a dedication ceremony held in cooperation with the Nebraska alumni association, but plans can not be definite until after the war, according to Virginia.

"If $300 is not sufficient," Virginia said, "the remaining cost will be made up from the war council's treasury."

Home Ec Club Professional Series Starts

First of a series of Home Ec club mass meetings dealing with home economics professions will be held Thursday night with Rev. Ray Kearns as speaker. Rev. Mr. Kearns' talk on home life will be preceded by a short business meeting.

This will be the first get-together of the entire club to be held this semester and will begin at 7:15 in 304 ag hall. The home ec council has announced that mass meetings will be held once a month from this time on in an effort to give club members a greater opportunity to participate in the work of the organization.

Each monthly meeting will present a different home ec profession. Gladys Bowman, program chairman for the group, has announced that a spring style show has been planned for the near future.

Sgt. Don Dobry, Former Husker, Dies in Action

Sgt. Don Dobry was killed in action over Italy according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Dobry, from the war department. Sergeant Dobry was a tail gunner on a B-24 Liberator.

A resident of Lincoln seven years, he was a sophomore at the university when he enlisted in the air corps Jan. 25, 1943. He wrote the musical column for the 1942 summer Nebraskan.

After receiving training at the gunnery school in Laredo, Texas and the Fairmont army air base, he was sent overseas Dec. 3, 1943.

He won a regents scholarship and a newspaper scholarship to the university, where he was a member of the Palladian society.

Campus Observes St. Patrick's Day at Union Party Friday at 7 P. M.

St. Patrick's Day will be observed on the campus with a party in the Union ballroom Friday at 7 p. m., sponsored by the campus Christian groups.

Included in the program will be folk dancing, games, and a song fest carrying out the St. Patrick's Day theme.

University students and trainees on the campus are invited to attend. There will be no admission charge.

Ann Craft, '43, Receives Wings At Graduation

... Of WASPs

Ann Craft, class of '43, was graduated from the Women's Airforce Service Pilot, class 44-W-2, on March 11, at Avenger Field, Sweetwater, Texas. Miss Craft is the first woman graduate of the university to have successfully completed the training courses of the WASPS, as far as the Nebraskan can ascertain.

On the completion of seven and a half months of flight training, she was presented her silver wings by General H. H. Arnold, commanding general of the Army Air Forces, and her diploma by Lt. General Dorton K. Yount, head of the AAF Training Command.

Miss Craft plans to be in Lincoln on Friday, the 17th. She was a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma and Pi Lambda Theta, honorary teachers fraternity. She was junior-senior prom queen, honorary colonel, and active in Tassels and AWS.

Ann began flying at her home in Galesburg, Illinois, about four years ago, and entered the WASPS immediately after her graduation from the university.

Ann Craft

F. A. LUNDY Takes over as director of UN libraries.

F. A. Lundy Fills Post of Director Of Uni Libraries

Frank A. Lundy, who is now completing work for his Ph.D. degree at the University of Chicago, has been appointed director of the university libraries here, it was announced today by Chancellor C. S. Boucher and Dean C. H. Oldfather, chairman of the library committee.

Mr. Lundy will come to Lincoln with his wife and child about June (See LUNDY, Page 2.)

Aikane Holds Panel Discussion Thursday

Delegates of the student planning conference of the World Mission of the Church will present a panel discussion Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in the Union faculty lounge at a meeting of Aikane, the YM-YW inter-racial club.

Those participating in the discussion are Bill Miller, Dave Sander, Hubert Underhill, and Barbara Arnold.

The group has been invited to the art gallery on the following Thursday by Miss Kady Faulkner, who will speak on the national art exhibit now showing at Morrill hall.

Aikane meets with the Ag YM-YW on March 30.

WAA Election Is Today

Coeds Follow Custom, Ask Men for Dates

The Y.W.C.A. sponsored Leap Year dance in the Union next Saturday afternoon will afford campus coeds their first opportunity of the year to take advantage of traditions and ask the boys for dates.

At the dance in the Union ballroom from 4 to 6 Saturday afternoon, all usual customs will be reversed. Not only may the girl make the date, but she may pay the bills, and escort her man home after the dance. Music for this affair will be supplied by an orchestra.

Tickets are available for 39 cents at a booth in the Union every day until Saturday during the noon hour and from 5:30 to 7 p. m. Y.W.C.A. representatives are also selling tickets in the organized houses. Proceeds from the ticket sale will be used to help send students to the Estes park conference this summer.

Alumnus, War Council Begin Service List

Names and addresses of former Nebraska students now in service are being compiled into a service directory by the Alumni Association and the war council. The chronological list will begin with the oldest classes and will include those called into service from the active student body.

"The war council has long felt the need of a complete list, and there has been no such list since the beginning of the war" according to Pat Chamberlin, president of the war council. Suggestion of the directory came also from the Alumni Association and Dean Thompson's office.

Keep List Up to Date. The directory will be as complete as possible incorporating all names which have been reported to the Alumni office. The list will be kept current and it will be possible from subsequent reports to eliminate early omissions before (See ALUMNUS, Page 2.)

Lt. Smutz Calls Mom Jaye To Baptize Plane For ATO

Mrs. Jaye Ridnour, popularly known to Nebraska students as "Mom Jaye" of the ATO house, traveled to Topeka, Kas., last Sunday to christen a Liberator bomber, named for ATO.

The plane, piloted by Lt. William Smutz, former UN track star from Pawnee City and a member of ATO, was named "This Is Alpha and Omega." The fraternity emblem, a large Maltese cross, was painted on the nose of the plane.

Master of ceremonies at the christening was Lt. Erik Rhodes, former motion picture star, and with him were Ginger Rogers and a field public relations officer. Speakers at the ceremony were Judge Willard M. Benton of Kansas City, Kas., former national president of ATO, and Ralph E. Weaverling of Kansas City, Mo., UN graduate and a member of ATO.

In his address Judge Benton said, "You now have and will have always the prayers and best wishes of every member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity."

"Mom Jaye" swung the bottle against the side of the big Liberator, but failed to break it. On the second try the liquid sprayed over the plane and she said, "I

Polls Open to Restricted Balloting For Officers

Postponement of the women's elections scheduled for March 15 to the following Wednesday, March 22, will not affect the Women's Athletic association voting which will be held as planned, according to WAA President Joyce Junge.

Polls will be open in the physical education department office from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 5 today. Voting is restricted to WAA council members, intramural representatives, sports board, promotion board, concessions board and clubs board. In all cases eligibility refers to last semester's offices.

The losing presidential candidate will fill the post of vice-president.

Presidential and secretarial candidates are juniors and the two candidates for treasurer are sophomores.

Officers and board members of Coed Counselors, AWS and BABW will be elected in the March 22 voting. May Queen will be voted upon and junior and senior women will have an opportunity to vote for prospective Mortar Board candidates.

Army, Navy Give Qualification Tests This Morning at 9

Exams for the army A-12 and navy V-12 will be held this morning at 9 in room 101 of the law building.

The test, two hours in length, is divided into three sections; (1) the meaning and use of words, (2) scientific matters of general knowledge, and (3) problems in mathematics. All applicants for A-12 and V-12 will take the same test.

These army and navy programs assure professional education in the various fields of dentistry, medicine and veterinary medicine.

All 17 year olds and civilian college students under 22 are eligible to take the tests. The examinations will not be repeated, and students who come late to the test will be disqualified.

The slate as released by the WAA office March 10 is as follows:

- PRESIDENT
Frances "Mickey" McPherson
Jean Whedon
- SECRETARY
Fern Freeman
Helen Johnson
- TREASURER
Mary Jo Gish
Leslie Jean Giotfelty

Former UN ROTCs Take Pre-OCS Leave

Upon completion of the present ROTC-AST term, 32 men, former students have been granted a seven day furlough prior to being ordered to O.C.S., according to an announcement made today by Col. James P. Murphy, commandant.

The men are Pfc. Robert E. Dewey, Thomas N. Griswold, Elmer L. Peterson, William L. Schaumburg, Donald D. Van Horn, Lloyd R. Whitney, Samuel C. Wiggins, Earl D. Elwonger, Robert P. Durrie, Walter J. Greenburg, Alan J. Jacobs, Robert E. Knoll, and John A. Bauermeister.

Paul R. Eveland, Dillard A. Huffaker, Howard D. Mengshol, Billie K. Radenslaben, Homer N. Leymaster, John H. Sautter, Norman N. Sundberg, William B. Rist, Harold R. Salisbury, and Lester G. Wilterdink.

Dale E. Wolf, Morton Zuber, James I. Shamberg, Stanley W. Stage, Raymond W. Starostka, William H. Thornburg, Basil C. Wehrman, Erwyn E. Witte, and Stewart A. Woods.

Two Music Staff Members Attend National Meeting

Arthur E. Westbrook, director of the school of music, and Myron Roberts, professor in music school, will represent the university at the 20th annual meeting of the National Association of Schools of Music to be held in Cincinnati, March 25 and 26, for the purpose of discussing policies. Nebraska is an institutional member of the association.

Mr. Westbrook will attend the circular commission, to discuss the circular in the schools of music. Mr. Roberts will attend the general meeting of the association.

This association is the only accrediting body for schools and departments of music in the United States. Some of the best prep schools, junior colleges, senior colleges, universities, and conservatories of music in the nation make up its 142 members.

Since its organization, there has been a consistent improvement in the standards for schools of music, much of which is due to these annual meetings.

Union Shows 'Foreign Correspondent' Sunday

Alfred Hitchcock's "Foreign Correspondent" will be the main feature of a variety show in the Union ballroom Sunday at 3 p. m.

Starring in the movie are Joel McCrea, Lorraine Day, Herbert Marshall, George Sanders and Robert Benchley. A cartoon will also be shown.

There will be no admission charge for the show.

From Lincoln Journal. LIEUTENANT SMUTZ Pilots ATO bomber.

Roma Ridnour, of St. Louis, attended the ceremony. Lieutenant Smutz is the only Nebraskan and the only ATO of the plane's crew.