

City Churches Observe Palm Sunday, Lent

Lincoln churches will celebrate Palm Sunday with sunrise services, special musical effects, and outstanding speakers. Roger Williams fellowship will hold Sunrise services at 6:45 a. m. Sunday. The group will meet at the Baptist student house before proceeding to Pioneers Park where the special service will be conducted. Ada May Harms will be in charge of worship services and Carlos Atkinson will be soloist. At the 11 o'clock services the choir of the First Baptist church, 14th and K streets, will present an Easter Musical. Barbara Arnold, general secretary of the YWCA, will be the speaker at the Sunday youth meeting of the Presbyterian Student house. Following the meeting, a 25c supper will be served.

Benjamin F. Schwartz, chancellor of the Wesleyan university, will speak on "Religious Freedom" to the Wesley Foundation Student Fellowship, which meets at 5:30 Sunday evening at the St. Paul church. Rev. Robert Drew will conduct the regular Lenten services Wednesday from 7:15 to 7:45. Communion will be served at this service. Father George Schuster, chaplain, will say mass every Wednesday and Friday at 8:15 a. m. at the Temple, room 201. Sunday services will be held at 11 a. m. with distribution of palms following the mass. The Newman Club announces the usual tea dance from 3 to 6 p. m. at the CYO club, at 18th and J streets. Rev. L. W. McMillin announces Palm Sunday services will be held at 8:30 and 11 a. m. Communion will also be served at 7 and 11 a. m. Thursday this week at the Episcopal church, 13th and R street.

As the gay spring zephyrs whipped coed's skirts up high enough to be interesting, we noticed these few changes in the social setup since last time: First of all, those 200 coeds who took a powder when the AST's hit the road are crying at the gates of ye old college but to no avail . . . no is the answer. It seems that the professors aren't wanting to waste time on those shallow few who go to college to find a man. Handkerchiefs barely were dried when they were flooded again when the news leaked out that "Gas Man" Johnny Jones was forsaking all others for none other than MB "Biggie" Rae Locke, Triple Delt. Some girls have everything! Afporoill. A combination that bears watching is that of Beta Jim Borghoff and Theta Cutie Mary Sonneland . . . We hear Don Barry received the ATO scholarship award Monday night. Congrats . . . Dorothy Carnahan has had to cancel the big date for Friday night with Phi Gam Bucky Myers up from Crete. AWS campused her for last week end. Too bad it looked like fun. Bert Gissler and SDT Pearl Brick are scheduled for a big Saturday night at the Pike . . . Speaking of the Pike, Beta Johnny Anderson was enjoying himself immensely last Saturday sipping milk thru a straw . . . Wonder why Doug Nelson never has a date. Perhaps this handsome Phi Delt is being true. What's happened to the blue couches in the Tau house? . . . Missed that Farm House pin on Blanche Reid's blouse lately. Could it be that the clasp broke? . . . We hear that Min Beede, Pi Phi, threw the anchor at Lt. (jg) Glen Thrumman, former dent. It's such a big ocean, too. Afporoill. Bouncin' Bob McNutt is on the receiving end of a diamond—his own. Alpha Chi Mary Mason has decided that distance just makes one want to go out—with someone else . . . Plans are being made now for another TNE brawl at a local hall. On hand will be Lillian Wind and Bob Alberty, J. P. Miller and Betty Hohf and Rex Stotts and Jo Martz. The robberies which startled everyone last Monday night turned out to be nothing but a trick of the rambunctious pledges of the respective houses. Wonder who the conspirators were who got together and planned it all on the same night? Kappa Jeanne Brown and Phi Delt Chick Thorne announced yesterday that they had been secretly married during Chick's furlough. Another cat-out-of-the-bag was Myra Colburg, who has received Bob Henderson's Sig Ep pin, altho she is out wearing it for fear of hurting Joan Witt's feelings. Incidentally, Bob and Myra have concealed a bottle of Schenley's (whatever that is!) in the Cornhusker office safe, to celebrate. Party-goers are welcome! Afporoill. Speaking of parties, news slipped out that a rendezvous of the girls who wear the black mask might be crashed at Lone Oaks tonight. Here's betting those black masks will be on, too. A final parting word brings back memory of the returning Innocents which got wind of the alleged TNEs presiding over Ivy Day ceremony and will defy hell and high water to get here in time to save the ceremonies. Jody Junge, Pi Phi, has given back DU Bob Ferguson's pin and diamond because of blue-lapel AST Reserve. Must be the maternal instinct.
