

More ASTs Arrive; Army Clarifies Plan

With the arrival of 95 additional pre-professional trainees the number of men assigned to the Nebraska ASTP unit has increased to 478, according to Col. J. P. Murphy. The new arrivals are approximately one-third pre-dental and two-thirds are pre-medical students.

Information has also been received in Col. Murphy's office from headquarters army service forces explaining the controlling policy for the assignment of separated ASTP trainees. Priorities governing assignment of ASTP personnel in order to use to the fullest extent the skills and abilities of these men has been released to go in effect immediately.

Army Lists Possibilities.

Former ASTPs will have the opportunity of becoming candidates for officer candidate schools; receiving further training in Army Service Forces specialist schools to meet requirements of new Table of Organization units; preparing for assignment to units by (See AST, page 4.)

Editor Calls Reporters To Thursday Meeting

June Jamieson, editor of the Nebraskan, announces that there will be a meeting of all reporters in the office at 1:00 Thursday. All reporters are urged to come.

Students Pick Union Records

Ten new records have been ordered for the Student Union music room as a result of the votes cast in the last week by students who make use of the room. The additions to the catalogue include two symphonies, a concerto, two selections from chamber music and several records of program music.

The records ordered are:

Symphonies.
Symphony No. 5, Opus 53—Shostakovich, Philadelphia Orchestra and Leopold Stokowski. Victor DMS67.
Symphony No. 2 in d major—Brahms, London Symphony Orchestra and Felix Weingartner. Columbia M493.

Concerto.
Double Concerto for cello and violin—Brahms, Jascha Heifetz, Emanuel Feuermann, with Philadelphia Orchestra and Eugene Ormandy. Victor M815.

(See RECORDS, page 3.)

Council Closes Spring Election Filings Friday

Filings for spring elections, last university balloting of the year, to be held April 19, close Friday at 5 p. m., according to Jean Cowden, chairman of the Student Council elections committee.

Filings are to be made in the activities office in the coliseum for Student Council, publications board and ag executive board positions. Candidates must have at least a 75 average, and must be carrying 12 hours this semester.

Thirteen Positions Open.

There are 13 positions open on the Student Council. Members of the council are chosen by colleges with one representative for every 500 students or portion thereof. If fewer than 500 students are enrolled in a college, the proportion of men to women decides whether the council member will be a man or woman.

Student Council positions to be voted upon are as follows:

Arts and Science: One junior man and one junior woman.

(See COUNCIL, page 3.)

Alums Donate To Foundation

University of Nebraska alumni in New York City and vicinity have raised $1,510 for the University Foundation maintenance fund, it was announced today by T. B. Strain, Foundation president.

The money was presented to Mr. Strain at a luncheon given for him in New York recently by Robert A. Gantt, president of the New York City Alumni association; Merrill V. Reed, director of District 10 of the association, and Herbert Brownell, jr., president of Zone 10.

Mr. Strain reported that New York alumni displayed enthusiasm

Mr. Perry W. Branch, head of the Student Foundation, will speak at a meeting of all district and county chairmen of the Student Foundation, in room 316 of the Union, Thursday night at 7:00.

From Lincoln Journal.

T. B. STRAIN

... announces gift of New York alumni.

for the Foundation and its work. They are the first alumni group outside the state to complete a fund raising drive for the Foundation.

Another recent guest of the New York alumni was Gov. Dwight Griswold.

Among those who contributed to the $1,510 fund were: John E. Baird, Roy Bliss, Arthur W. Breyer, Herbert Brownell, jr., Samuel (See FOUNDATION, page 4.)

J. J. Niles Gives Recital of Folk Music in Union

John Jacob Niles, a foremost interpreter of American folk music, will be presented in a recital in the Union ballroom Sunday, April 16 at 4 o'clock. Niles accompanies his songs on a dulcimer, an instrument still used in the southern mountains of the United States.

Niles, who makes rare music from the songs and ballads of early America, has presented his songs in the white house, in Paris, London, The Hague, for scholars at Harvard, Oxford, and in night clubs. The songs he sings have no known composers and scarcely any known beginnings.

Niles studied music for two years in the Cincinnati Conservatory and in France following the first World war.

Miss McKinsey Enters Finals In Speech Meet

Geraldine McKinsey, winner of the regional semifinal national discussion contest, left Sunday for Washington, D. C. to participate in the finals which are being held today.

As a part of the Pan-American Day activities in Washington, D. C., the six representatives will be guests at the annual Pan-American dinner held in Washington, D. C., for diplomats of the Pan-American countries.

The final contest consists of a round-table discussion on "What Are the Basis for Permanent Inter-American Co-operation." In the evening, each of the six contestants will give a seven-minute speech. Miss McKensie's topic is "Wartime Co-operation as a Basis for Postwar Inter-American Co-operation."

There will be no awards or judging for the final contest and each contestant will receive a scholarship to study at the University of Mexico this summer.

Miss Jeannette Frasier, speech instructor, accompanied Miss McKinsey on her trip. They will return next Sunday.

Pat Lahr Reviews Recent Book for Home Ec Club

Pat Lahr, Student Union director, will present a review of Leland Stow's book, "The Robe" at a mass meeting of the Home Ec club Thursday night at 7:15 in Ag hall. "The Robe" is non-fiction and was recently chosen as the book of the month by the Book of the Month club.

A short business meeting will precede Miss Lahr's book review.

Art Student Wins WAVE Poster Prize

Adelaide Garver, university art student, won first prize in the Nebraska WAVES poster contest which was judged Monday at the University of Omaha.

University of Nebraska art students also took second place, won four honorable mentions and tied for third place in the contest.

Hedy Schultz won second place while Beatrice Nakada tied for third place along with a Hastings college student, Iris Daugherty. Four Receive Honorable Mention.

Honorable mention went to Elizabeth Lamb, Louise Putney, Winona M. Kelly and Dorothy Black.

Entries were contributed by Doane college, Hastings college, Kearney state teachers college, Luther college, Omaha university, University of Nebraska and Wayne state teachers college.

"The contest indicates that Nebraska girls are taking the war seriously," said Lt. (j.g.) Anne Dorsey of the WAVES office. "Of the 71 posters entered, there were only two with a humorous vein. The whole collection was excellent and each poster showed a great deal of thought and originality."

'V' Speaking Contest Opens On April 25

Second annual Victory Speaking contest, sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, honorary forensic fraternity, will be held April 25 and 27 at 7:30 p. m. in the Temple building. This contest replaces the intramural debate tournament.

Organized houses may enter two speakers for each night. Ratings will be made on each speech and the winning group will be the one having the highest total for all four speeches. Judges are instructors from the speech department.

Speak on War Subjects.

Speeches will be five minutes long and must be on some subject relating to the war, such as Red Cross, U.S.O., food conservation campaign, WACs or WAVES. Contestants must fulfill the usual activity requirements. Debaters taking part in varsity debate activities before February 1 of this year are ineligible. A list of rules and requirements has been sent to the organizations, fraternities and sororities.

Names of entries must be handed in to the speech office by Saturday (See 'V' SPEAKERS, page 3.)

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 86, No. 112

Wednesday, April 12, 1944

Drama Students Present Works Today in Union

To demonstrate the work of the University Theater and the speech department, students of speech and dramatics will present a program before the faculty women's club today at 2:30 p. m. in the Union.

Main feature of the program is a one-act play entitled "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet." The play is directed by a student, Jeanne Racine, and its cast includes Betty Rhodes, Joan McCague, Jeanne Racine, Gerry Neumeier, Dorothy James, and Becky Silver.

The production, which is a farce on Shakespeare, half in Shakespearean dialect and half in modern slang, will be given in rehearsal form and not as a finished production. The story concerns Juliet, who teaches Desdemona, Ophelia, Portia, Catherine, and Cleopatra, all ladies in Shakespeare's plays, a few things in the art of handling men.

Completing the program, Bill Major will give "The Bells" by (See DRAMA, page 3.)

Breta Peterson Talks on Women In Law Tonight

Breta Peterson, Lincoln lawyer, will speak on women in law on the Phi Chi Theta lecture series tonight at 7:30 in room 316 in the Union. She will attempt to give a full view of the field for women.

Miss Peterson was graduated in 1935 and received her LL.B. from the university in 1939. She will picture the vocation and its opportunities from the viewpoint of a recent graduate.

AWS Convo Discusses Women in War Jobs

Women in war jobs will be the subject of the AWS convocation Wednesday, April 12 at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. An army lieutenant and graduate of this university will be present to conduct the discussion.

A movie picturing women in various types of war jobs, even tracing progress of girls who have gone into the army as officers, will be shown. The discussion will follow the movie. The program was arranged by Alice Able, chairman of the AWS vocational series.

Barb, Ag At Large Filings For Tassels Due Friday, April 14

Tassel filings for barbs-at-large must be in Friday, April 14, at 5 o'clock, according to Mary Russel, Tassel president.

Those from ag are to turn their applications in at Ag Hall while barb-at-large filings are to be made at Ellen Smith hall with Miss Elsie Ford Piper.

Requirements to Tassel membership include an 80 average. Students must have completed 24 hours in this university by the end of this semester and be carrying at least 12 hours this semester.

Set Up Duties . . . War Council Adopts Constitution . . . Membership

Officers of war council presented a set of rules and regulations to council members at their regular meeting Tuesday. This is the first draft toward a working constitution which has been set up since the founding of the organization.

Roberta Burgess, president, announced the duties of the officers and the membership regulations which include:

1. Each university organization is entitled to one representative with voting power. Other university students interested in the work of war council may have full membership excluding voting power.
2. Membership will be rescinded after three unexcused absences. Permission for excused absences may be granted by the president or secretary.
3. Any member who has at-

YW Personal Relations Group Meets Thursday

Mrs. Angeline Anderson, instructor in family life in the home economics department, will speak at the first of a series of three informal meetings on personal relations, held Thursday at 4 o'clock in the faculty lounge at the Union.

Opportunity for questions and discussion will be given. Special emphasis will be placed on personal relations resulting because of the war such as war marriages and engagements.

The series is sponsored by the Y.W.C.A., with Jan Engle as chairman.

TOTAL STAMP SALES ARE UP

"Let's keep the stamp sales total mounting each week. It's a sure and quick way to help our country in the time of greatest need," said Tassel President Mary Russel.

War stamps will again be sold today as every Wednesday in the selected campus buildings.

Sales last week showed an improvement over the total of $96.15 for the week before. The total was $101.90. Ag campus sales amounted to $30; Union, $28.10; Andrews, $20.45; Sosh, $20.35; and the School of Music, $3.

Plan Final Party

As their final function for the year, war council is sponsoring a Carnival dance to be held in the ballroom of the Union April 29 for all trainees stationed on the university campus. Marilyn Behm and Roberta Collins are co-chairmen in charge of the party.

Union Shows Film In Honor of Pan American Day

In celebration of Pan American Day, Friday, April 14, the University Extension Division Department of Visual Education will show movies in the faculty lounge of the Union at 4 o'clock that afternoon.

The films will be of Pan-American countries and are in color and sound. Titles of the movies are "Young Uruguay," "Housing in Chile," "Wealth of the Andes," and "The Bridge."

Jean Rogers Edits Society

Succeeding Laura Lee Mundil, Jean Rogers has been appointed as society editor of the Nebraskan for the remainder of the semester. The new editor will be assisted by Ruth Korb.

Miss Mundil resigned her position because of the pressure of her school work.