

Council Restates Policy on Coed Politics; Criticizes New War Council Constitution

Civilians Lose Deferments For Science

Deferment of college students in engineering, physics, chemistry, geology, and geophysics, has been rescinded, according to a telegram received from the National Roster of Scientific and Specialized Personnel by T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs.

According to the same telegram, deferments for students who can graduate before July 1, 1944 and for pre-professional students in medicine, dentistry, osteopathy, veterinary medicine, and theology are now being reconsidered.

Fill Questionnaires.

All civilian students majoring in engineering, chemistry, physics, mathematics, meteorology, or geology. (See CIVILIANS, page 4.)

UN Foundation Receives Gift From Alumnus

Nebraska Foundation announced today the receipt of a $1,000 gift from Clarence E. Swanson, Lincoln businessman and alumnus of the university. The announcement was made by Foundation secretary, Perry Branch.

Mr. Swanson in expressing his enthusiasm for the Foundation program and his interest in the future of the university said, "I feel that our university should do everything possible to make available additional education to every high school graduate who desires the opportunity."

The importance of convincing the people of the state of the need for increased state funds and additional contributions for the benefit of the university were stressed by Mr. Swanson in his statement accompanying the gift.

BY MICKEY JARRELL

University women may file as bar, union or independent candidates if they care to affiliate in the campus election to be held April 19, according to the decision of the Student Council at its Wednesday meeting.

Restatement of the policy established in 1941 approving women in campus politics was emphasized to clarify the matter in the forthcoming election. The Council, acting upon the plan at the suggestion of the Nebraskan, encourages students and faculty mem-

Gov. Appoints Vincent Hascall As UN Regent

Vincent C. Hascall, of Omaha, has been appointed to the university's board of regents to succeed William Reed, it was announced last Thursday by Governor Griswold.

From Lincoln Journal.

VINCENT C. HASCALL, ... appointed to board of regents.

Hascall will serve until a successor is elected and qualified which will probably be in January, 1945, since results of the November election, at which the vacancy will be filled, will not be known until December.

Graduating from the university's law college in 1912, Hascall was a candidate for the board of regents from the second district in 1940 and has been active in university affairs, serving as president of the alumni association. He is also a past president of the International Lions club, and is a member of the N club at the university.

Students Discuss Universal Draft On 'Forum of Air'

Students will discuss the problem of a universal draft on the university "Forum of the Air" Saturday at 5:30 over KFAB.

Dr. Leroy T. Lasse, head of the speech department will be the moderator. Participating in the panel will be Jean Kinzie, Jean Frescoln, Bob Gillan and Anne Wellenseik. All are members of the debate squad.

bers to make any statement of disapproval of the policy before, not after, the election. Voting next week will determine next year's members of Student Council, publications and ag executive boards, and the Ivy Day orator.

Discussing the effect of the action upon campus politics, Bob Henderson, chairman of the judiciary committee, who stated the opinion of the Council, said, "By opportunity to affiliate with parties women will be able to choose the best candidates from their groups, and a more equal representation will be possible."

Elect Holdovers

Jo Martz, Blanche Reid, Hazel Abel, Jean Larsen, Gloria Mardis, Harold Andersen, Gene Dixon and

UN Foundation Members Hear Perry Branch

Commending the members of the Student Foundation at a mass meeting of the organization last night, Perry W. Branch, director-secretary of the Nebraska Foundation, said that the Student Foundation is playing a definite and vital part in making the university a bigger and better institution.

UN Needs Foundation

The Nebraska Foundation, with which Mr. Branch works, is the recipient of all gifts and donations to UN, and the organization is dedicated to the expansion of this institution. Mr. Branch explained that his group cannot hope to be successful without the aid of the Student Foundation.

Reviews Aims

He reviewed the two point program toward which the student organization should aim—to lead and entice high school seniors to become interested in the university and to come here to school, and to build up Nebraska spirit to make students realize "how good the university is," once they are enrolled here. He showed how the success of the student group is directly connected with the success of the Nebraska Foundation, as both organizations work for the betterment and enlargement of the University.

Correction . . .

Perry Branch is the secretary of the Nebraska Foundation, not the head of the Student Foundation as an error in Wednesday's issue of The Nebraskan stated.

Lewis Kremer were elected as holdover members of the Council to form the nucleus of the organization next year. Although it has been customary to elect four men and four women to the position, it was discovered that there were five eligible junior women so the group voted to disqualify

(See COUNCIL, page 2.)

Three Win $750 Miller Scholarships

Three $750 Donald Walters Miller scholarships for the 1944-1945 school term were awarded to university students, it was announced today. The students are Melvin Douglas Jones, Jeanette Mae Smith, and Hazel Olive Stearn. Awarded on the basis of scholarship and need, these grants are the largest kind awarded at the university.

Jones, a second year graduate student of agronomy, entered the university in September, 1943, after receiving his bachelor and master of science degrees from Oklahoma A. & M. He has earned nearly 94 percent of his college expenses.

Both women have been active in college activities. Miss Smith, a major in zoology and chemistry, has earned 30 percent of her expenses. Miss Stearn, sociology major, has earned 90 percent of her money.

City Churches Plan Activity For Weekend

Lincoln churches have announced their weekend religious program. Father G. J. Shuster will say mass at 11 a. m. in room 201 of the Temple. Confessions will be heard before the mass at 10 a. m.

Roger Williams Fellowship will meet at the First Baptist church Sunday at 7 p. m. with Dr. Arthur L. Miller, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, speaking on "Personal Religious Living." Virginia Young will preside.

Orsona Bennett, director of music at Wesleyan university, will speak to Presbyterian students, who meet every Sunday night at 6 p. m., on "Church Hymns by Classical Composers." Following the program, supper will be served for 25 cents.

Lutherans Hold Chapel Service.

Lutheran chapel service for students and service men will be held (See CHURCHES, page 2.)

Music Interpreter Presents Recital At Sunday Convo

John Jacob Niles, interpreter of American folk music, will give a recital in the Union ballroom Sunday at 4 p. m., singing old American ballads and accompanying himself on a dulcimer, a musical instrument still used in the southern mountains of the United States.

Niles' repertoire includes folk songs which originated 25 to 150 years ago, having no known composers, some having been carried across the Atlantic by the early settlers. The carols date back to the European Middle Ages.

He has made appearances in the White House, Paris, London, and The Hague, for scholars at Harvard, Oxford, and at night clubs.

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 88, No. 113

Friday, April 14, 1944

From Skyways . . . Half of UN Aviation Students Go to Ground, Service Forces . . . To Ease Shortage

Approximately half of the aviation students stationed at Love Library will be transferred to ground and service forces, according to a telegram received by Major Kinkead, commander of the 348th air corps detachments, from Gen. H. H. Arnold, commanding general of army air forces.

Major Kinkead said this applied to all men who had volunteered

Council, Exec Board Filings Close at 5 p. m.

Today at 5 p. m. is the deadline for filings in spring elections, which will be held April 19. Filings are to be made in the activities office in the coliseum for Student Council, publications board and ag executive board positions.

There will be 13 positions to be filled on Student Council and three positions on the publications board. To be eligible a student must have at least a 75 average and must be carrying 12 hours this semester, according to Jean Cowden, chairman of the Student Council elections committee.

Ag Exec Elects.

Positions on the ag executive board will also be elected next Wednesday and filings must be made in the dean's office at ag hall. Positions open on this board are: One senior man and one senior woman, one junior man and one junior woman, and one sophomore man and one sophomore woman.

If enough men do not file for the positions, each class may have two women members on the board. The ag college member of Student Council automatically becomes a member of the ag executive board.

Barb Tassel Candidates Must File by 5 Tonite

Tassel filings for barbs-at-large close this evening at 5 o'clock. Applications from ag should be turned in at Ag hall, while barb-at-large filings should be made with Miss Elsie Ford Piper at Ellen Smith hall.

The new Tassels will be chosen at a tea Saturday, April 22, to be held at the Alpha Xi Delta house.

Faculty Chemists Attend Spring Meeting in Ohio

C. S. Hamilton, N. H. Cromwell, and T. J. Thompson, members of the university chemistry department, attended the spring meeting of the American Chemical society held in Cleveland, Ohio, April 3-7.

Dr. Thompson served as counselor for the Nebraska section. Dr. Cromwell presented a paper before the organic division concerning the synthesis of diamines and amino alcohols of pharmacological interest.

Ag College Students Invite City Campus to Open House April 29

Plans were revealed yesterday at a convocation of all ag college students for an ag campus open house, community singing and the presentation of the Goddess of Agriculture on April 29.

Dave Sanders, co-director of the affair who presided at the convocation, presented the outline plans and explained that it is being undertaken as a means of providing an opportunity for city campus students to become acquainted with the ag campus and its work and also to replace the campus activities and traditions which have been discontinued because of the war.

Sanders introduced Dean W. W. Burr and Miss Margaret Fedde, head of the home economics department, who enthusiastically endorsed the program.

Outline Schedule.

The schedule for the afternoon and early evening was explained by Blanche Reid, the other director of the planning committee. At 2 o'clock the buildings will be open for inspection, and exhibits will be on display in each department. The child development laboratory and nursery school, Love Memorial hall, the girls' co-operative dormitory and the home management house on Starr street will be open to visitors. The only conducted tours will be those thru the new foods and nutrition building.

At 4:30 the presentation of the Goddess of Agriculture will be made on the outdoor stage on the east campus. The presentation of the Goddess is a tradition of long standing and in normal years is a feature of Farmers' Fair. The Goddess and her court have been elected by a vote of all ag girls, and their identity will be kept a secret until the day of presentation.

A picnic for all ag students will begin at 5:30 and will be followed by a sing which will be open to the public.

Campus-wide Project.

Miss Reid expressed the hope of the planning group that every ag student and faculty member would take part in the carrying out of the open house program. At the close of the convocation the students present were given an opportunity to sign up for the committee on which they wished to work. Anyone who was not present may sign on the bulletin board in ag hall any time today.

(See AG COLLEGE, page 4.)