Dorothy Anderson Reigns At Ag

Informal Ceremony Highlights Festival

ceremony highlighting campus open house festivities yesunder a flower covered archway flanked on either side by a curving white picket fence on the flower banked stage of the college activities building, attended by a court of six senior women.

Attendants to the Goddess, chosen by a vote of all home economics students, were Phyllis Lyness, Geraldine Henderson, Mildred Yost, Gwen Row, Arlene Casey and Jane Johnston.

Abandon Formality.

Formality having been abandoned for the duration, Miss Anderson wore a lavender sweater and skirt and her attendants were dess of Agriculture in an informal the simplified garden theme, each the ag member of the royal party carried a bouquet of bright colored vegeterday afternoon. The twentieth tables mounted on a disc of white Goddess, Miss Anderson appeared wood. Blanche Reid, president of the home economics club, presented a basket of Nebraska farm and vegetable products to Miss Anderson.

> Dave Sanders, president of Ag exec board, presided at the presentation ceremonies. Immediately following the presentation, the ag chorus sang "Country Gardens" and members of the women's physical education classes, dressed in peasant costume, performed folk dances. Dean W. W. Burr greeted the Goddess and welcomed the visitors.

> The new Goddess is a member of ag exec board, Phi U, home (See AG GODDESS, page 4.)

-From Lincoln Journal

DOROTHY ANDERSON

... reigns as Goddess of Agriculture

Vol. 88, No. 120

Lincoln 8, Nebraska

Sunday, April 30, 1944

AUF Chooses Margaret Beede Director for '44

the new director of AUF, an-nounced James Howe, the former to the senate for approval. director, last Thursday, council are Dorothy Carnahan, Ghita Hill, Harold Andersen, Virginia Stuermer, and Blanche Reid. Betty Lou Huston was chosen publicity director; Jan 98 Members Engle, treasurer; Pat Garton, clerical department; Alice Abel, soliciting chairman.

by the former advisory council board, will be held today at 3 p. m. with the help of Mr. C. M. Elliot. in Ellen Smith hall.

Incorporates Drives.

begun last fall to incorporate Elsie Ford Piper, assistant dean drives which had previously been of women, and Miss Letta Clark, scattered thru the year. The most assistant professor in English, recent drive was for Red Cross will continue as advisors.

At present the AUF is working on a new constitution since the The new members are as fol-university senate, the chancellor's lows: Margaret Aasen, Geneva additions to the document, pre-sented November 17. The new constitution will probably be pre-Baker, Barbara Blackburn, Kath-leen Brickell, Virginia Bucking-ham, Roberta Buell, Gretchen Burnham, June Carlson, Elaine

Talks at Chem Society Meet

Dr. Leon A. Sweet, junior scientific director of Parke, Davis & ley Ann Hinds, Sarah Hurtz, Lois Co. will speak on "Approaches Jean Johnson, Mimi Ann Johnson, Co., will speak on "Approaches to Chemotherapy" before the Nebraska section of the American Chemical Society meeting in confunction with the Nebraska Academy of Science on May 5 and 6.

Dr. Sweet is a former university student. He received his master of science degree in 1931 and his Ph.D in 1933. Graduate work in organic arsenical compounds was taken under Prof. C. S. Hamilton. Dr. Sweet has had experience with diverse problems of the drug industry.

He has been actively engaged in studies in chemotherapy, par-ticularly in the fields of antimalarial, antisphilitic, and anthibacterial drugs. The important bearing which these studies have upon the health of members of carnival are Betty Fleming and the armed forces and upon civil- Marion Rivett. It is sponsored by

Margaret Beede has been named according to James Howe. If the

New members of the advisory Coed Counselor Board Chooses

Initiation of 124 Coed Counselors, 98 new members and 26 held over from this last year, who were These offices were all appointed chosen by the Coed Counselor property relationship of husbands

New Coed Counselor sponsor is Miss Jeannette Frasier, instructor The All University Fund was in the speech department. Miss Choose 98.

The new members are as folfaculty advisory board, asked for Baker, Barbara Blackburn, Kathsented next week to the council, Christensen, Mary Cox, Janet Crawford, Marjorie Dillman, Vir-Dr. L. A. Sweet ginia Demel, Jacqueline Eagleton, Barbara Emerson, Eleanor Erik-booths, bingo and confetti on ag Tne granting of this award is decampus, will be held May 5 at pendent on the vote of the senior 7:30 in the ag activities building.

> Betty Lou Tee, Marjorie Feyu-son, Pat Garton, Pat Gillaspie, Mary Jo Gish, Shirley Gorelick, Geraldine Gowen, Bernice Green Phyllis Greer, Doris Gross, Shirley Grossman, Barbara Guendel, Marilyn Hartsook, Joy Hill, Shir-Myrtle Johnson, Colleen Kahoa, LaVerne Klein, Marjorie Knapp,

(See COUNSELORS, page 2.)

Ag Holds Carnival To Raise Money For Estes Meet

The money is to send representatives to the annual conference of the Rocky Mountain region of the student Christian movement.

Co-chairmen on the plans of the

Prof. Liston Wins Award

Miss Margaret Liston, assistant professor of home economics, will continue her work for a doctor of philosophy degree by means of a fellowship, one of 91 awards valthe University of Chicago presents each year to graduate stu-

Her research project, which she began in 1942-43, concerns the and wives, emphasizing problems arising from death or divorce.

Miss Liston will study under Dr. Hazel Kirk, a member of the University of Chicago's economics and home economics staff, who is reputed to be one of the country's leading experts in family economics and is chairman of the consumers' advisory council for the

Junior, Senior Women Meet Wednesday

All senior women planning to take part in the ivy chain, and junior coeds who will be in the daisy chain, as a part of Ivy Day ceremonies, May 6, should meet in room 315 of the Union. Wednesday at 4:30 p.m. Pastel dresses or pastel skirts and blouses are necessary for participation in the chains.

500 Attend Ag Open House, View Exhibits

numerous other student products were examined by the 500 students afternoon at the ag college open and Dr. T. H. Godding house, first of its kind to be held eral faculty advisors. on the campus.

Students Plan.

Planned and staged by students with the help of faculty advisors, the day's program was intended as a means of keeping alive some of the traditions of the ag campus, many of which have been abandoned because of the war,

From 2:00 to 4:30 p. m. the classrooms and laboratories were open for inspection. At 4:30 the annual presentation of the Goddess of Agriculture was made, followed faculty. Later in the evening a program of skits and a community According to opinions expressed by members of the student body.

(1) Chi Omega, Lenora Beck, "I Love You Truly." sing were held in the college ac-

Army Staff Inspects UN

Col. Malcolm Craig of the gen-eral staff corps in the Seventh service command will act as inspecting officer at the annual federal inspection of the ROTC units Tuesday.

In former years, inspection of infantry, field artillery and engineers has covered two or three days' time. This year only basic trainees, freshmen and sophomores ued at more than $75,000 which will be examined as no courses in advanced ROTC are offered. During the past year, a general ROTC course designated in the army as material" has offered the students.

> ROTC officers are as follows: Lieutenant colonel; Thomas H. McCarville.

Major: Bernard D. Urich. Captain: Brooke Westover.

Captains, company commanders: Neal T. Jenkins, Milferd Epp. Eugene W. Tedd, Wayne E. Bollmeier, William N. Rotton. First lieutenants: Charles L. Mc-Lafferty, Edwin Busch, James Ota, Lachlan Ohman. Second lieutenant: Lowell Hel-

Staff sergeant: Lee Knight.

Sergeants: Marvin Vollersten, Flood Sorenson, Victor Ferris, Robert Samardick, Fred Teller, James Johnston, Charles Davis. Harold Blaser, Keay William Marx, William Chap-Kops, Robert Alig, Joseph Jochum, Myron Milder, Roscoe Shields, David Cook.

BY BETTY HUSTON.

Woolly lambs, a wobbly four day old black calf, original oil paintings, food calorie charts, modern and period furniture, hats, purses the open house might become an and dresses—exhibits of these and annual affair.

Blanche Reid and Dave Sanders and community members who defied the rain to spend Saturday event and Miss Margaret Liston and Dr. T. H. Godding were gen-

Ivy Day Sing Coed Groups

Schedule of the 15 participants in the Ivy Day sing has been arranged alphabetically according to the last names of the directors of by a picnic for ag students and the songs, announced Natalie Neuman, AWS chairman of the sing.

The order is as follows:

(2) Sigma Kappa, Marion Coombs, "Sigma Kappa Sweet-

(3) Alpha Omicron Pi, Betty Evans, "Alpha O Girl."

(4) Residence Halls, Barbara oley, "Raymond Hall Sweet-

(5) Alpha Xi Delta, Flora Heck, "The Blue and the Gold."

(6) Alpha Phi, Dorothy Huff-man, "If You Want to See a Girl That's Pretty."

(7) Pi Beta Phi, Betty Krause, 'Ocean to Ocean.'

(8) Delta Gamma, Janet Krause, "Dream Girl."

(9) Sigma Delta Tau, Evelyn Kuhn, "I Love the Pin."

(10) Towne Club, Peggy Lar-son, "Towne Club."

(11) Kappa Kappa Gamma, Marilyn Lyle, "Dream Song."

(12) Alpha Chi Omega, Janet Mason, "Alpha Chi Song."

(13) Kappa Alpha Theta, Margarat Rosborough, "Theta Lips."

(14) Gamma Phi Beta, Leota Sneed, "I Pledge You My Heart."

(15) Delta Delta Delta, Jessie Lou Tyler, "Inspiration Song."

Former Home Ec Coed Dies

Hachiya, Robert Turner, Rob-ert Rupert, Alfons Hamersky, church in Hampton, Neb., for Doris Bambesberger, former uniman, Carl Carlson, Donald versity student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bambesberger. Morgan, Carryl Hendrickson. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bambesberger.

Miss Bambesberger left school in November because of poor health November because of poor health and had been ill up until the time of her death, early Monday morn-

She was a junior in the home economics department of the university, a member of home ec club, Y.W.C.A., a charter resident of Love Memorial hall, treasurer of the university 4-H club and was active in Lutheran young peoples' work. She is survived by her parents, five sisters and two brothers.

Barbs Recognize Coed Scholarship, Activities Monday

Barb women will hold their annual recognition meeting Monday at 8 p. m. in the Union, room 313.

The identity of the outstanding barb freshman woman of the year will be revealed at this meeting. The outstanding sophomore and junior women will also be honored.

All freshmen women who have earned activity points will be awarded pins. The barb house having the highest average on the Prof. W. F. Weiland received a campus will be awarded the scholarship cup.

Dinner Climaxes Ar Climax of the 50th annual En- ters, editor in chief. Glen Downy, gineer's Day was the banquet in associate deitor, and George Na-of awards and taking part in the general hilarity were 109 engineer-

Estes Fund Fest, a carnival of year, received the O. J. Fee award. engineering class, who choose the outstanding member of the class for this honor. The award has been made each year since 1928 and consists of a plaque upon which the name of the honored student is engraved.

Present Three Keys.

The Nebraska Blue Print, enians makes Dr. Sweet's address a the ag religious council, the ag gineering student magazine, pre-timely one. The agreement of the agreement ag activities building Friday eve-ning. Witnessing the presentation received a silver key.

Given on the basis of activity in the ASME organization during the past year, is their award, the Charles Adolfus Stutt, graduate Mark's Mechanical Engineer's in electrical engineering at mid-Handbook, which was this year presented to Lavon P. Haxby.

Add to Hall of Fame.

Sigma Tau, honorary engineering fraternity, each year presents a picture of some prominent member of the engineering profession, the picture becoming a part of the Hall of Fame collection, This year's picture is one of Charles Brush, early inventor and engi-

(See ENGINEERS, page 4.)