

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 88, No. 125

Lincoln 8, Nebraska

Wednesday, May 10, 1944

Army Show Features Stage, Screen, Coed Talent Tonite at UN

Hollywood and student talent combine tonight when the curtain goes up on the army show, "Uniform of the Day," at 8:15 in the Temple Theater.

Sponsored by the AWS, the show will include such names as Pvt. Lon McAllister, who portrayed "California" in "Stage Door Canteen," Pfc. Carolyn Blake and Cpl. Helen Famalette, both formerly of the New York stage, and Pvt. Russel Gleason, actor son of James and Lucille Gleason.

Joline Ackerman will sing a solo in the show's canteen scene and five UN coeds, Fanchon Jones, Joy Laune, Barbara Stahl, Betty Lou Simon and Jeanne Brown, will act as hostesses for the scene.

Shows Women's Part.

Designed to give a clear and arresting picture of the Women's Army Corps and its activities, the production "Uniform of the Day" demonstrates the importance of women's part in the war effort. The show has played to full houses at each of the 15 universities it has toured.

Carolyn Blake, Helen Famalette, both WACs, and Lon McAllister will be interviewed over KFAB at 3:45 Wednesday afternoon. Admittance to the program Wednesday evening will be by invitations, which may be obtained in the Union lobby at the WAC booth, from Dean Boyle's office or from the WAC recruiting office at 126 No. 26th street. Colonel Murphy has announced that soldiers will be excused from study hall to attend the show.

ROTC Band Gives Concert On Mall at 7

Presenting its annual spring concert, the University of Nebraska ROTC symphonic band will appear in a program to be held on the campus administration building mall tonight at 7.

Featured with the band will be clarinetists Ava Bromwich, John Hardy, Marian Maple, Rudolph Srb, and Robert White. They will play Kling's duet "The Bullfinches."

Directing the concert is Don Lentz, and the program will be free to the public. The numbers will be presented as follows:

- Star Spangled Banner.....
- On the Square.....
- Overture Lutapeli.....
- The Bullfinches.....
- Clarinets duet.....
- The Iowa Band Law.....
- Calif. of Bagdad Overture.....
- Song of the Flame.....
- Continental Serenade.....
- Begin the Beguine.....
- The New Moon Selection.....
- Lady of Spain.....
- Blaze Away.....
- Panela.....
- Keller.....
- Kling.....
- King.....
- Gold.....
- Porter.....
- Romber.....
- Evans-Cailliet.....
- Hoizman.....

Margaret Fedde Entertains Home Ec Seniors at Tea

Senior and graduate home economics students will be entertained by the members of the home economics faculty at a tea from 3 to 5 p. m. next Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Margaret Fedde, head of the department. The tea is an annual event held shortly before graduation.

Miss Fedde will receive the guests, assisted by Miss Mary Ellen Brown the first hour, and Miss Florence Corbin and Dr. Ruth Staples the second hour. Miss Mary Guthrie and Dr. Ruth Leverton will preside at the tea table the first hour followed by Miss Florence Smith and Miss Evelyn Metzger the second hour.

Four junior students, Blanche Reid, Lona Haskins, Joan Eby and Dean Dowell will assist in the dining room.

Francis Ellsworth Plays Saturday for Union Dance

Francis Ellsworth's band will play Saturday at the last Union dance of the year in the ballroom from 9 to 12.

Buffet supper consisting of sandwiches, relishes, coffee, ice cream and brownies will be served to both military trainees and students from 10:30 to midnight.

Pub Board Picks Staffs Thursday

Next year's Nebraskan and Cornhusker staff members will be chosen by the board of student publications tomorrow at 2 p. m. The board will meet in the Cornhusker office of the Union.

Paid positions on the Nebraskan which will be filled by election of the board members are those of editor, two managing editors, four news editors, sports editor, business manager and two assistant business managers.

Positions to be filled on the Cornhusker include editor, two managing editors, business manager and two assistant business managers.

Last Paper Friday.

The last Nebraskan for this semester will come out Friday and the new Cornhusker and Nebraskan staffs will be announced at that time. The new staff will take over with the first edition next fall.

Members of the pub board are Harold Hamil, chairman; David Fellman, H. E. Bradford, J. E. Lawrence, John K. Selleck, Albert Reddish, Mary Ralston and Varro Tyler.

Theater Group Presents Two One-Act Plays

University Players will present two one-act plays, "Ways and Means" by Noel Coward and "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet" by Charles George, Thursday evening at 8 p. m. in the Union ballroom.

The cast of "When Shakespeare's Ladies Meet" is as follows: Portia, Betty Rhodes; Katharine, Joan McCague; Ophelia, Jeanne Racine; Desdemona, Jerry Neumeyer; Juliet, Dorothy James; and Cleopatra, Becky Silver.

"Ways and Means" will be presented by Dorothy James as Stella Cartwright, Bill Major as Toby Cartwright, Joan McCague as Olive Lloyd-Ransome, Eugene Tedd as Lord Chapworth, Bettie Grossman as Nanny, Jean Kinnie as Marie, Art Beindorff as Stevens and Jeanne Racine as Princess Elena Krassiloff.

Becky Silver is in charge of direction, the set was designed by Dorothy James and Don Keough supervised building of sets.

TNEs Inform Du Teau Campus of Existence

The Ivy Day audience wondered what was happening last Saturday when Ellsworth Du Teau, alumni association secretary, received a package up on the Coliseum stage during the Mortar Board masking. Someone in the audience yelled, "Open the box, you ham." Mr. Du Teau replied, "I've been called a ham before, but never so anonymously." And that, seemingly, was the end of that.

Like the mythical Pandora's Box, people were still wondering what was in the package when the big doings were all over. An interview with Mr. Du Teau yesterday finally solved the mystery and brought the heretofore quiet TNE organization into the limelight again. The box contained a copper mug with TNE engraved on it, and inside the mug was a clipping from a column in the Ne-

OPA Prevents Paper Delivery

"Golly, what happened to the Nebraskan staff!" was the typical comment of those who wandered into the office last Friday and witnessed one of the busiest news writing scenes of the year. Same person, two days later: "My heavens, what happened to the Nebraskan?"

The comments of readers were mild compared to those of the writers when they discovered Sunday that their cherished work had made its way into none of the organized houses and a few of the campus buildings.

The story goes that while Bill Korff, circulation manager, was making his rounds early Sunday morning, distributing the Ivy Day issue of the Nebraskan, his little piddle-jumper ran out of gas. Fallen arches or ambition prevented any more ingenious method of distribution.

Some students have threatened to present Bill with a bicycle for the future, but due to the shortage they settled on a kiddy car.

Cheer up, Bill! There are a few understanding souls left on the campus who realize that you were a bit flustered after having been one of the disappointed men who thought the innocents were going to tap.

As a consolation to disappointed students who were unable to get Nebraskans, there are a few left in the Nebraskan office which may be obtained tomorrow.

Ag Students Win Trips To Camp

Scholarships to the leadership training camp of the American Youth Foundation, Camp Miniwanca on Lake Michigan, have been awarded to three ag students, Loan Haskins, Marilyn Hartsook and Wilbur Bluhm.

Purpose of the camp, sponsored by the Danforth Foundation, is to teach excellence in living based on Christian concepts and to give constructive leadership applicable to any of life's activities. Winners of the scholarships are chosen by the members of a student-faculty committee on leadership qualities, personality and scholarship.

Freshmen winners, Miss Hartsook and Mr. Bluhm will each spend two weeks at the camp on Lake Michigan and Miss Haskins, junior member of the group, will spend two weeks as the guest of the Ralston Purina Co. in St. Louis and two weeks at camp. In St. Louis Miss Haskins will join a group of thirty-nine girls from as many states who will study, through actual experience, the problems of manufacturing, research, distribution, advertising, and personnel work in an effort to learn the relation between home economics and industry.

Edith Pumphry, last year's freshmen representative, and Dorothy Anderson will spend two weeks at Camp Miniwanca.

Three Students Receive Band Service Keys

At the annual band banquet, held May 3, Nancy Spohn, John Hardy, and Lyman Lorenson were awarded the University of Nebraska ROTC band service keys.

The keys are awarded annually to band members on the basis of service, musicianship, character, and leadership. None of this year's winners will return to the band next year since Hardy and Miss Spohn will be graduated and Lorenson will enter the naval service.

A music contest was the setting for the banquet, with Dean T. J. Thompson as the contest director and Col. James P. Murphy, professor of military science and training, the honorary judge. The key winners were participants in the solo and ensemble event of the contest and were presented as the winners by Bob Thatcher, band president and 1943 keyman.

War Stamp Sales Total $4647.90

Receipts from the year's sale of war stamps by members of Tassels total $4,647.90. Only $1,550.95 of the sum was received during the first semester.

As today is the last day that stamps will be sold on the campuses this semester, Mary Russel, president of Tassels, urges all students to buy their share and to make this final sale largest of all.

Sales last week were among the lowest for the two semesters with a total of only $46.70 sold. Union sales amounted to $28.20; Sosh, $9.45; Andrews, $6.05; and the school of music, $3.90.

Student Council Holds Meeting on Constitutions

Last meeting of Student Council will be held this afternoon in room 313 to approve additions to the constitutions of Coed-Counselors and AUF.

Uni Scholarship Blanks Due Today In Dean's Office

Application blanks for general university scholarships must be returned to the office of the dean of student affairs today.

Among the available awards are the George Borrowman scholarship in geology or chemistry, the Edward Lang True memorial scholarship, which is awarded to any worthy students in any college of the university and the William Hyde scholarship, which has been established in the honor of a former Lincoln business man.

A perpetual scholarship of $60 has been established by Dr. and Mrs. John D. Clark in memory of the late Judge Jefferson H. Broady, a former member of the university faculty and a prominent Nebraska lawyer. An award for freshman, either man or woman, who has overcome the greatest difficulties in completing the first year of college work, is being offered by Walter J. Nickel of Chicago.

Several scholarships and grants-in-aid have been given during the past year and it is expected that additional awards will be made during 1944-45.

braskan stating, strictly facetiously, that the TNE's should take over the Innocent's part in Ivy Day ceremonies.

The "T's", apparently, were hoping that Mr. Du Teau would open the box on the stage and read the message, but unfortunately, he foiled them by ignoring it. He said yesterday that he hated to spoil someone's joke, but the fact that the package had been delivered just following the Innocent's dedication ceremony to the seventy-seven UN gold star men, ruined what would have been a good joke at any other time.

The unquenchable TNEs gave the box up as a bad job and instead painted their familiar skull insignia on front walks around the campus Saturday night. Students come and go, but the "T's" go on forever.