Army Show Plays to Full House at UN

Playing to a full house Wednesday night, combined Hollywood and student talent presented "Uniform of the Day" at the Temple Theater.

The show was designed to explain the activities of the Women's Army Corp and demonstrate the importance of women's part in the war effort. Last night's performance was the 16th on the tour which has been made of mid-western universities.

The play centers around a girl named Pat, portrayed by Carolyn Blake, who joins the WACs when her brother is killed in defense of his country. She is in love with a soldier named Bud, played by Lon McCallister, who leaves on maneuvers as she joins the service. They meet three months later in a canteen and entertainment is provided by a 30 piece orchestra and several Hollywood and student entertainers.

Pvt. Winifred Schmitt, playing the part of a canteen hostess, thrilled the audience with two piano numbers, "Rhapsody in Blue" and "Tea for Two." Pvt. Joe McKenna, acting as master of ceremonies at the canteen, sang two numbers, UN student Joline Ackerman, Pvt. Herbert Stassen and Pvt. Hal Henrick also sang.

The show was sponsored by AWS and the cast included Pvt. Lon McCallister, who portrayed "California" in "Stage Door Canteen;" Pfc. Carolyn Blake and Cpl. Helen Famalette, both formerly of the New York stage, and Pvt. Russel Gleason, actor son of James and Lucille Gleason.

UN students acting as hostesses for the canteen scene were Fanchon Jones, Joy Laune, Barbara Stahl, Betty Lou Simon and Jeanne Brown.

War Council Asks UN Contributions For British Relief

Sponsored by the war council's "On the Beam" committee, a drive for British War Relief is currently being carried on with the termination of the school term.

Collections will be made at the various houses and in the Union on May 20.

Society . . .

This is the last "Rag," the last week end to celebrate, and the last week end to study. Ha! Evidently, the shortage of time has made some people panicky, for many big things are on the fire for this coming week end.

The many-times postponed faction picnic may take place this Friday night. It's about time something was done about the weather, just for the faction. At the Alpha Tau-Delt house, we find some new combinations, and some not so new. Speaking of Deltas, Johnny Van Horne is escorting Mary Claire Phillips, Theta, this week end, Gordon Ehlers will be seen with Joyce Stuve, and "Purtz" is expecting his girl from Stephens. On the other hand, speaking of Taus, Bob Buxton and Shirley Staats, Alpha Chi, ought to call it steady again, for we never see one without the other. Sam Seiffert, Tau of last year, is arriving in town to take Helen Johnson, Delta Gamma, and new Mortar Board, out "carousing." Ensign Dick Stastny, another Tau from long ago and far away, will also be in Lincoln, and "a big bond drive is being held in his honor at the Blues." Frank Elston and Mary Lancaster, Theta, are in the process of going steady, but have been having a little trouble. What's the matter?

Fiji's Tussle.

The Phi Gams are stepping out this week end in all their glory, at a large "get-together" at Penn Woods. This writer was informed, that, "this picnic is in place of the annual Fiji-Tau tussle, because the Taus couldn't supply enough men." Rough! Some of the Fijis attending the party with their dates are Paul Wyckert, with pinmate, Marge Christiansen, Theta, and it comes from reliable sources that Marge is taking her man, instead of vice-versa. "C'est le guerrier!" "Andy" will be seen with Ruth Heindrich, Pi Phi, Bud Bierman with Catherine Ross, A. O. Pi, Varro Tyler with Virginia Demal, Alpha Phi; Al Martin with Mary Jean Jones, Max T. Nigh with Mary McNair, Delta Gamma, and Rex Stotts with Dorothy Cumbow, A. O. Pi.

Question: Why does Leslie Metheny have to study so hard this week end? Some of the Deltas

Towne Club Gives May Breakfast

Towne Club members will entertain their mothers at the club's annual May breakfast Sunday, May 14, at 8:30 in Ellen Smith hall. New officers will be presented at the breakfast.

Virginia Stuermer will open the program with a welcome to the mothers. A new feature to be inaugurated this year is the presentation of a special pin to the sophomore member most outstanding in scholarship and activities.

would like to know . . . "N" Clubbers Feast.

Sunday will find the members of the "N" club picknicking at Linoma Beach, and Bob Tange-man, Kappa Sig, will be seen with Nancy Sutton, Alpha Phi, Doug Nelson, Phi Delt, with Dona Brugh, Theta, and Artman and Jones. Bill Long, Phi Gam, doesn't have a late yet, so look out, girls, God's gift to women is on the loose.

Bette June Baldwin, Alpha Phi, and Paul Toren, Sig Chi, are now pinned, and congrats go to them. But there is a hint of intrigue here. Betty June is rooming with Paul's former pinmate, Joanie Witt.

Nat Kline, Phi Rho of Omaha and former Sig Alph, has been seeing much of Janet Krause, DG, Jeanne Rotten, Theta, and Milford Epp, med student, are also dating much. Mary Louise Goddard, former Pi Phi, and now an ensign in the WAVES, was back in Lincoln displaying a ring from Ted Green. BMOG.

So we come to the end of the last society column . . . Gumbye . . . See ya' next year . . . Good hunting girls . . .
