

Robinson-James Marriage . . .

Miss Audrey Jane Robinson and Cpl. Merlin Lehn James, both former University students were married at 4 o'clock in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Sunday, Sept. 17. While on the campus, the bride pledged Delta Gamma. Corporal James is a member of Phi Gamma Delta. Mrs. James is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rhees Richard Robinson and Corporal James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. James. After Oct. 1, the couple will reside in Denver.

Down Beat, jr.

One of the nice things about popular music is that it leaves such an open field for experiment. Time was when composers had to have talent. Now, anyone can be a songwriter.

All it takes is an aptitude for taking an axe to the English language and shopping it to bits. Throw this in with a tune consisting of three notes repeated over and over—four if you're versatile—and you've got a smash success that rates a Sinatra rendition on the Hit Parade. Progress, it's wonderful!

Latest sensation being thrust upon an unsuspecting public is a jivy little item called "Is You Is or Is You Ain't." We like it anyway. Of course it has been recorded. Bing Crosby and the Andrews Sisters get together and out-voice "The Voice" for the neatest arrangement we've heard yet.

The restriction on new record output, altho it has a nasty way of producing not-too-successful waxings of your favorite songs and has put the best bands out of commission, also has its advantages. Many of the big record companies are re-issuing several of their pressings that were good quite a few years ago. They're really good deals which otherwise might have been overlooked.

And it's a good way of finding out what today's leading vocalists were doing 'way back when. One

Bright Ribbons Show the End Of Rush Week

For the next six weeks, or until pledges earn their pledge pins, the new members of the thirteen sororities on the Nebraska campus who have their ribbons pinned on will give the halls of Sosh and Andrews a brighter look. The 289 coeds who wear these bits of ribbon on sweaters and dresses can be identified by the colors they wear.

To help those who don't know and those who have forgotten the colors, the following description of each sorority's ribbons is given.

Many Colors Seen.

Scarlet and olive green are the signs of a new Alpha Chi, while a single red ribbon tells you that the wearer is an AOPi. The girl who has chosen silver and Bordeaux is a new Alpha Phi pledge and when an Alpha Xi Delt walks down the street, she wears her gold and double blue ribbons.

To know a Chi O, look for her cardinal and straw colors and to recognize a new Tri Delt, silver gold and blue ribbons are the clue. The girl who went Delta Gamma displays bronze, pink and blue ribbons and a Gamma Phi has brown and mode colors pinned to her sweater.

KKG's show off their blue and blue and Thetas wear just as proudly their new black and gold ribbons. Wine and silver blue are the identifying marks of a Pi Phi.

A new little Sigma Delta Tau sports cafe au lait and blue, and a violet and maroon ribbon is worn by the Sigma Kappas.

of the latest and best re-issues is a Columbia pressing of Teddy Wilson's band on "You're My Favorite Memory" with a smooth Helen Ward vocal, coupled with "Out of Nowhere." The girl singing "Nowhere" is Lena Horne—not quite the polished voice she has today, but her inimitable plaintive style is easily recognized.

Crib Features Simms.

If you haven't yet heard Ginny Simms' record of "I'm Glad There Is You," we suggest you rush right into the Corn Crib and splurge a nickel. Jimmy Dorsey had a hand in writing it and it's a smooth ballad just right for Simms' style.

And speaking of the Crib, we still think the juke box there has the best record selection in town (plug, plug). It has a way of making coke dates twice as much fun.

Suits belong to fall . . .

Rush Week Fashions Show Latest, Smoothest Fall Styles . . . Sweaters are for class

Rush week fashions modeled by UN coeds have attracted a great deal of attention and rushees attended parties wearing the latest fall styles.

Proving that suits are the season's must, Lois Johnson, Gamma Phi, was seen in a blue gabardine dressmaker. A black lace blouse and a tiny black beanie with a long sequin dotted veil added that smooth sparkle.

One of the smartest suits is worn by Carolyn Motter, Pi Phi. Black and white salt and pepper check, the skirt has one inverted pleat in front and back. The back of the coat is fitted below the waist with a blouse yoke that lends distinction to the shoulder line.

The gorgeous magenta suit that can be spotted a block away belongs in the wardrobe of Mickey Miller, Theta. The magic color of the suit leads the eye to the detailed tailoring of the jacket. The stitching around the collar edges the entire coat. And listen to this—three mink tails are worn under each lapel.

Delta Gamma Marilyn Coffey has an aqua crepe dress that is the envy of any girl. With a round low neck, the short sleeves are petal shaped around the edge. A large pink rose is fastened to a small belt at one side of the waist.

Pledges also catch many an admiring glance on their way to classes wearing the traditional sweaters and skirts. Ann Converse, Tri-Delt, started the first day of classes in a luscious lime green sweater and a four-colored cocoa brown skirt.

The heavy knit white slipover that Alpha O Donna Jean Dahl wears is ideal for these cool mornings. Alpha Chi Bonnie Bess Calhoun's long, dark hair is beautiful with her yellow cardigan and matching yellow wool pleated skirt.
