War Work

—From The Lincoln Journal.
An event of Oct. 6 will be the wedding of Colleen Campbell and Cpl. Dale R. Worth. Miss Campbell was a member of the Chi Omega sorority at the University of Nebraska and Corporal Worth, who also attended the university, was affiliated with Theta Xi.

UN Engagements Highlight News

UN engagements and marriages are still highlighting society pages. Catherine (Kit) Carson, former Kappa Alpha Theta, will be married Oct. 29, at Norfolk to Ralph Sotzing. The groom is co-pilot for United Air Lines. He is a graduate of Lehigh university, Pennsylvania, and was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta.

The couple plan to reside in San Francisco.

The engagement of Mary Runyan, former Kappa Kappa Gamma, to Lt. Douglas N. Jones, jr., was announced by her parents. The couple are planning an autumn wedding.

Dawn to Dark College Clothes Hold up Morale

Skirts here, sweaters there, skirts and sweaters everywhere!

Yes, the combination is definitely on Nebraska's campus to stay, despite earlier predictions that the female portion of college students the states over, would blossom out in more formal attire this season.

Mix them or match them is in order, with plaids definitely leading the skirt-sweater parade. Blouses, however, are now a close second to the famed sweater. Everything from bowed necklines and puffed sleeves, to tailored "v" necks and pearl button trimmed are the rage.

Suits and Date Dresses Shown.

The all-important date dress is anything but forgotten in these war times. Our campus belle must keep up her morale! She leans toward plain or slightly draped dresses, with a rhinestone or gold clip to add a cheerful note. Along this line, a dressmaker suit, for that occasional date, comes in handy, especially when evening plans are undecided.

Our belle remembers too, in planning her wardrobe, the inevitable rainy days. For just such days, she dons a good looking gabardine raincoat, fitted or casual, box style. To complete her outfit, she adds a fisherman's sea hat or a bright kerchief, and boots with which to enjoy all the puddles.

Last, but scarcely insignificant, our smart planner has included lots of flannel pajamas, with feet attached, woolly slippers and a cozy wrap-around robe for winter evenings of study and those beauty winks.

Music Students Attend Reception

Reception for all new music students will be held tonight in the faculty lounge at the Union from 7:30 to 9:00.

In the receiving line will be the presidents of the music sororities, Anne Birdsall, Delta Omicron; Marian Rapp, Sigma Alpha Iota; and Kay Trenchard, Mu Phi Epsilon.

—From The Lincoln Journal.

On Sunday, Sept. 24, Ruth Eileen Panzer became the bride of Pfc. Byron D. Petersen. Both the bride and bridegroom were students of the Uni. of Nebr., the former being affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega. The groom is now a student at the University of Nebraska college of medicine and is a member of Nu Sigma Nu.

Society Has It . . . Crib Coke Dates Predominate With Freshmen Taking Over

BY NINA SCOTT.

It's hard to tell just now who will be going out with who this week end, so that info' will have to wait until Sunday . . . you know how things stand this year with some shipping out and others coming in . . . blitzkrieg of uniforms . . .

Coke dates are holding their own as far as Mary Louise Weidman, Alpha Chi, is concerned . . . she and Doug Nelson, the Phi Delt, were laughing in the Crib Wednesday afternoon . . . at the same hour and location Sue Lancaster and Kay Reese, Theta pledges, were seen playing bridge and drinking cokes with Johnny Wells and friend . . .

People are asking Randy Keough, Phi Delt, how he likes dating a DG one year and her sorority daughter the next . . . respectively Nell Scott and Jeannie Douglas . . . runs in the family . . . Ginny Turner, KKG pledge, is starry-eyed with expectations of her O. D.'s return around Christmas . . . he was at the base during rush week . . . speaking of Kappas, rumors are sailing that three keys are unchained from a Beta, a Phi Delt, and a Phi Psi pin . . . figure it out for yourself.

Old Gang Returns.

Big man and DU Marv Athey is back on the campus for a visit . . . air corps lieutenant now . . . Tink Herman, former Phi Delt, Fremontite and Nebraska student, is coming down this week end to see Betty June Baldwin, Alpha Phi, and DG pledge Paula Jones . . .

Tri Delt bigwig Jean Whedon is expecting her man soon . . . she's engaged to him again . . .

In case anyone is interested in knowing the whereabouts of Jim Riggs, Beta of several years ago, he's at Selman Field, La., probably thinking of ways to initiate another UNEB . . . remember?

Much Seen Couple.

Nomination for the darlingest couple of the season goes to Kappa pledge Jo Guenzel and little Selzer, ATO . . . seen last week end and lots more in the future . . .

Beta Bob Schulte and Phi Gam Harold Jacobson would have burning ears if they only knew how half of the girls on the campus are interested in them . . . notice the stares sometime when either of them walks in the Crib.

Get busy and do something exciting, people . . . words mean nothing without the spice . . . we have the sugar and everything nice already.

Debaters Annual Publishes Work Of UN Students

UN debaters received considerable mention in the 1944 issue of "The University Debaters Annual," a book containing outstanding speeches and debates from contests and forums held all over the United States. Nebraska's orators were honored by publication of three speeches. No other college in the U. S. was so recognized.

The three speeches included one from the Nebraska Forum of the Air, regional contest speeches on Inter-American Affairs at Austin, Texas, and a nation-wide broadcast from Washington on Inter-American affairs. UN students whose speeches were published were Jean Kinney, Geraldine McKinsey, and Mary Ann Mattoon.
