

Cornhuskers Meet Mighty Minnesotans

Little Promise Of Victory Held

Thursday morning the Huskers were Minnesota-bound to meet the mighty Gophers at Minneapolis Saturday. Coach A. J. Lewandowski took 35 young athletes to meet the favored Minnesota eleven. Little hope for gaining a victory is held by the youthful huskers but a better showing than in 1943 is in sight.

The 1944 inaugural will bring only three UN lettermen into the fray and Buzz Hollins, disabled fullback is one of these. Lyle Kops, hefty tackle, and Guard Frank Hazard were the other two vets and only Hazard started the fray against Minnesota last year.

Nine navy V-12 men in Minnesota's veteran lineup along with many lettermen are the experienced team the untried Husker youths will be up against. One of these star-studded lettermen is Red Williams, swivel-hipped back from Minneapolis.

On top of these Gopher advantages lies the fact that Hollins will see little if any action Saturday afternoon. Collopy should be able to handle the fullback post, leaving his position at center to Keith Doyle.

Prospects for the Scarlets was dimmed two weeks ago when Lewandowski lost two big ends in Bob Schliegler of Omaha and Bert Gissler, wingman from Osceola. These two huskies would have made a fine receiving pair for Bill Betz's passes.

All in all, the Gophers have almost every advantage but it will be a group of determined young Cornhuskers against them.

The traveling team for the trip included the following players:

Ends: Jack Bryant, Tekemah; Winton Buckley, York; Lyle Colerick, Alliance; Jack Dedrick, Sidney; Bob Koenig, Yankton, S. D.; Jim Strahan, Wayne.

Tackles: John Johnson, Norfolk; Lyle Kops, Bassett; Fred Lorenz, Lincoln; Ralph Major, Culbertson; Bruce Pollat, Cozad; Ed Strickland, Plattsmouth.

Guards: Bill Berquist, Lexington; Allen Grundmann, Nebraska City; Frank Hazard, Sioux City, Ia.; Bernie Kasdan, Yankton, S. D.; Don Pegler, Lincoln; John Stevenson, Scottsbluff.

Centers: Duane Berkey, Davenport; Keith Doyle, Curtis; Merle Ebers, Seward.

Quarterbacks: Ed Gradoville, Plattsmouth; Joe Kessler, Wayne; Bob Scoville, Hartington.

Fullbacks: Junior Collopy, Scottsbluff; Ken Hollins, Valley; Francis Kenyon, Callaway; Roger Mountford, Davenport.

Ex-Husker Stars On Kessler Field Gridiron This Fall

The attention of the sports staff was directed recently to a press release from Kessler field, stating that Herman Rohrig, ex-Cornhusker football great, would be the spark of the Kessler army air field's team this fall.

Rohrig, star halfback with Nebraska's 1940 Rose Bowl team, played with the Green Bay Packers before entering the service. He also played with the west Army All Stars in their series against the Eastern Army Stars. When he was home on leave the early part of the month, he worked out with this year's edition of the Cornhuskers.

Gophers Plan On Stiff UN Competition

MINNEAPOLIS. — Dr. George Hauser's Golden Gophers expect no such easy time against Navy-less Nebraska as they experienced in 1943, yet are looking forward to the game as another stiff two hours of competition that will help put the team in shape for the always-anticipated Michigan game of a week later.

The Nebraska game should pretty well shake down the Gopher lineup into something permanent, but that doesn't mean it will be very different from the team that played the Seahawks, for the squad is not large and there's no great field for selection among players. The right halfbacks will, more or less, be Braun and Lundquist; the left halves, Williams and Gullickson and the fullbacks, Cates and Sutton, with Kispert and Edwards having first call at quarter. Which is not to say, of course, that lots of other backfielders will not have a chance.

Center is Set.

The center of the line, also, is pretty well fixed, and it will be Jensen, Day and Grazinger with first shot at guard; Lossie and Van Dusen, centers; Juster, Reinhardt and Aldworth at tackles, when these good men are in condition to play.

The Gophers opener showed clearly that more defensive strength at end will need to be developed, and in addition to Juhl and Wainright, who started in the end positions, Dr. Hauser sent in five more—Quist, Nelson, Fringle, Brandstrom and Turnaciff. Varying more in stature than in native football ability, all of these men would be good ends as college juniors after a couple of years of scrimmage, and they aren't so bad now but that they will turn in some good games before the season's over.

Council Controls Rallies.

A new rally committee composed of Janet Mason, Jim Kratochvil and Mary Russel, as representative of Tassels, was appointed. Miss Mason read from the constitution that the Council has full control of rallies and pep leaders.

In the last spring election, there was almost a unanimous vote that girl cheerleaders should be chosen. A committee during the last year has made several futile attempts to receive the consent of the faculty for such action.

Gloria Mardis was elected secretary to take the place vacated by Hazel Abel, who is not attending the university this year.

Jean Larsen reported that a statement issued by Dean Boyles concerning formal parties had made, stating that students may dress as "they deem suitable" for campus functions within houses.

Vacation Gets Lost.

The subject of a spring vacation this year was discussed by last year's Council but was lost in the shuffle of politics. Bill Sakayama, Helen Vennum and Jeannie Browne were appointed to find if such a vacation could be scheduled.

The Council, which ordinarily meets every two weeks, will meet again next Wednesday.

Gophers Win 19 From UN During Past

Over the span of years of Minnesota-Nebraska football games, the Huskers are definitely on the short end in the won-lost column. The first UN-Gopher contest was staged in 1901 and the series went successfully until 1913 when World War I disrupted the grid schedules.

The next clash came in 1919 but it was the only game until 1932 when the series was again resumed on the annual basis. In all this time Nebraska took only four of the contests, Minnesota conquered 19 times and two ended in ties.

Scores of the series:

Year	Winner	Score
1900	Minnesota	20-12
1901	Minnesota	19-0
1902	Nebraska	6-0
1904	Minnesota	16-12

WAA Intramural Soccer-Baseball Tourney Begins

Team lists for the soccer baseball games must be turned into the WAA office by 5 p. m. today. Any organized group is eligible to have as many teams as the group can arrange but each team must have from 7 to 10 members.

Unless players are enrolled in a regular physical education course, they must secure a health permit from the student health office. The permit is to be turned into the WAA by Monday evening.

The soccer games are scheduled to begin next Tuesday and will be played on the field behind the coliseum.

ASTP Engineers Hold All-Campus Farewell Dance

Farewell dance for the ASTP engineers will be held in the Union ballroom Saturday evening from 8 to 11 with trainees, coeds, and civilian students welcome.

A buffet supper will be served on third floor from 9:30 to 11. The early time has been set because the trainees' furloughs begin at midnight.

The ASTP band will play, the last time for six of the members. Those leaving are Feymour Sherman, trumpet; Arthur Frackenhohl, piano; Hunter Phillips, drums; Duane Torvik, saxophone; James Nelson, trumpet; and Homer Davies, flute.

De Shazo Gives Good Showing In Scrimmages

Dick DeShazo has been running like ice under a heat-lamp in scrimmages against reserves as the Air Base Wings prepares to meet Fort Warren when the Bronchos travel here from Cheyenne, Wyoming, for the encounter in Memorial Stadium Sunday.

DeShazo galloped for consistent long gains showing too much for reserves using the Fort Warren play. If he shows this speed and allusiveness against the Bronchos Sunday they will have their hands full.

Other indications for a fine wing showing are cripples returning to the line-up. Dutch Schultz has nursed a bad knee back to working order and is doing much running to develop the joint for the Broncho game. Ralph Brady, fullback contender joined his mates in practice after a week's absence caused by a bad ankle which is now in fine shape.
