

Four Women Invade UN Cheerleader Ranks, Bernie Urich Remains Yell King

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 44, No. 9 Lincoln, Neb. Friday, Oct. 6, 1944

Four women will augment UN's cheering squad this year for the first time in Nebraska's history. They were chosen, along with three new men cheerleaders, after two days of tryouts this week.

The new cheerleaders are: Janet Kruse, Jackie Scott, Anna Aasen, Doris Easterbrook, Bill Thompson, Oscar Wisby and Ray Biemond. Bernie Urich retains the position of Yell King.

After a three-year drive UN students to allow women cheerleaders, the final decision was made last spring by a student vote showing a majority in favor of the women's addition to the pep squad.

Appear at Homecoming.

The new cheerleaders will make their debut at the Missouri-Nebraska Homecoming game October 28. In order to insure a real demonstration of school spirit and to give the team the inspiration needed to run that "extra 50 yards," Tassels will rope off a special student section which students will be requested to occupy.

With a unified student cheering section, seven peppy new cheerleaders and an experienced Yell King, Nebraska's cheering this year should be the best in years.

All cheerleaders will meet in the Union ballroom Wednesday night at 7:00 for their first practice, according to Yell King Urich.

Union Sponsors Dancing Class Tuesday Nights

Free social dancing lessons for beginners will start Tuesday, Oct. 10, at 7:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom. Pat Lahr, Student Union director, announced today.

Irv Kuklin will be the instructor at each of these classes. Mr. Kuklin has supervised these social dancing periods in previous years and in returning from Chicago to resume the duty.

In former years between 100 and 200 students have attended these dancing hours. "No one needs to feel self-conscious or shy," Pat Lahr stated. "At the first lesson Mr. Kuklin will show the students a basic step and from then on couples will practice. By the end of the sixth lesson everyone should be able to execute the fundamentals of social dancing."

Classes will be held every Tuesday for the next six weeks. The dates set for these dances are Oct. 10, 17, 24, 31, Nov. 7 and 14.

This Week At War

By Albert Reddish

British airborne and land forces have landed in Greece and, aided by partisans, have made large gains, feeling so confident that they have issued a surrender ultimatum to the Germans. The move virtually closes the trap on the Germans in the Balkans as announcement of the surrender of Belgrade to the Russians is expected any moment. In Italy the Fifth army has battled to within 14 miles of Bologna.

As the Japs threaten Foochow and take another American 14th Air Force base, the Chinese charge the allies with neglect in supplying Chinese forces with equipment. One spokesman declared the Chinese have not received enough supplies since Pearl Harbor to sustain one allied division a week.

Heavy Artillery.

German artillery fire aimed at the advancing American First near Aachen is the heaviest yet faced by the allies. Meanwhile, units of the American Third are capturing tunnels of besieged German forts at Metz.

Fireworks Fizzle In Student Council; Investigate Annual

BY MARY JARRELL.

Expected fireworks failed to explode Wednesday when Student Council met to hear four committees report that they had taken no action.

The rally committee, headed by Janet Mason, was the only group which had completed its work and was ready to give a report. Miss Mason told the council that there would be girl cheer leaders and that try-outs were held both Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. Results appear in today's Nebraskan.

No Sparks.

The sparks, expected to fly when the committee appointed to investigate primary elections reported not only did not fly, but did not appear at all when Gene Dixon, chairman said "We didn't accomplish a whole lot in our meeting." He reported that the old Pan-Hellenic plan for primaries had been reconsidered but was found to be unconstitutional because the council constitution states "ballots shall list the names of the several candidates and shall designate after each candidate's name the party or faction to which that candidate belongs." Dixon, remarked, however, that the committee "will have something constructive to present" at the next meeting.

Jean Larsen, who reported as chairman of the committee to investigate the student health department said that the investigation would be more inclusive than previously planned and that the

Mr. Tibbett phoned Luther G. Andrews, manager of the concert series, Thursday morning from Omaha, after failing to secure traveling accommodations to Lincoln from Kansas City. Zemer, who pronounced it "acute tracheitis and sinusitis," or inflammation of the wind pipe with complications. Dr. Zemer stated that Tibbett should sing under no circumstances. "I have advised many universities vocal students with similar conditions the very same thing," he stated.
