Pinch Single Gives Cards OvertimeWin

A pinch-hit single in the last half of the eleventh inning by Ken O'Dea, second string catcher, brought First Baseman Ray Sanders over the plate from second and gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 3-2 victory over the Browns in the second game of the world series, knotting the series at one win apiece. The winning run came after relief pitcher Blix Donnelly had squelched a Brownie rally in the first half of the eleventh.
