 sen pulled in the ball for the Iowans to set off the goal-ward march. Hansen zoomed thru the Husker line to the 14 and one play later added 5 more yards setting the Hawkeyes on the 9 yard stripe. Kersten broke thru the line for a first down on the Nebraska 4 and put 2 more yards on his total to put the ball on the 2. Hansen made 1 yard and then the Hawkeyes were rewarded for their efforts as Woodard fell across the goal line for the touchdown. The attempt for conversion fell thru.

It was at this point in the game that Smith came in to show the Hawkeyes and Huskers alike that he was a ball player.

Hawkeyes March.

Hansen led the Iowans down the field with runs of 15, 14 and 12 yards, placing the Hawkeyes on the Nebraska 3 yard line with four downs to gain another touchdown as the quarter ended.

Hansen gained but half a yard on the next play and one more on the following try. Hazard then broke thru to drop Smith for two yards loss. On their last attempt for the goal Stewart passed complete to Smith but the Hawkeye halfback was out of bounds and Nebraska took the pigskin on the 4, thus cancelling the Iowa counter.

Nebraska punted out of danger and the Hawkeyes took over on the Nebraska 34.

Smith Scores.

Smith set the Iowans back into scoring position by connecting with lanky Russ McLaughlin who got clear to the 13. Hansen hit the line for 3 and Smith accounted for 5. Selzer stopped Smith on the next Hawkeye try but not until the flashy halfback had gained a first down on the Nebraska 2. Smith accounted for his first touchdown by going thru standing up. Five minutes of playing time had passed in the first quarter. Stewart kicked for the extra point, giving the Iowans a 13-0 lead.

Smith intercepted Betz's pass a short time later on the Nebraska 19 and the Hawkeyes were again on the road to paydirt. Two plays later Nelson intercepted Smith's pass back of the goal line and was downed there giving the Hawkeyes a safety and two points. This made the count stand Iowa 15, Nebraska 0.

Score Again.

The third quarter was scoreless and ended with Woodard intercepting a pass by Betz and bringing the ball to the Nebraska 17. Woodard again handled the leather and gained five. An offside penalty two plays later put the Hawkeyes back to the 13. Woodard then passed the pigskin to Hansen for a first down on the Nebraska 3. Hansen picked up another yard and then Smith went thru the line for the third Hawkeye counter after three minutes of play in the fourth. The score stood—Iowa 21, Nebraska 0.

Back Once More.

Not long afterward the Iowa eleven was back knocking on the Huskers' door. The ball was put into play on the 11 when Smith broke thru the Cornhusker line for his third touchdown of the day. Score—Iowa 27, Nebraska 0.

It was then that Gradoville, Perdew and Dedrick put the Huskers on their way to their only touchdown. Graddy's pass to Dedrick went for 52 yards, and Perdew and Dedrick combined for another 25. Kessler tallied by plunging thru. Perdew's attempt for the extra point was no good. Huskers Try Hard.

With but five minutes remaining, the game drew on out with the Nebraskans trying vainly to tally again. But despite their efforts time ran out and the game ended with the Hawkeyes on top, 27-6.

The Scarlet gained only two first downs, these gained on the passes by Perdew and Gradoville. The Hawkeyes accounted for 12 of the first and tens.

Survey . . .

 eran registration numbers about 105.

Starting with the spring term, the University of Oklahoma will offer special refresher work in mathematics and English so arranged that students can start in the university at the beginning of any week of the term. Refresher work has been handled thus far on an individual basis.

Since only 70 veterans are enrolled at the university, no special committees have been appointed. Veterans are enrolled by the regular student advisors. The contact with former students is maintained by the Alumni association and no special campaign has been organized or is contemplated by the university.

Fifty veterans are registered at the University of Kansas, whose rehabilitation program includes the points emphasized in other college plans. A pamphlet enclosing a statement of the university's postwar policies and a summary of the "G. I. Bill of Rights" has been sent to former students.

The veterans' program at Kansas State College, Manhattan, stresses vocational and sub-collegiate work in agriculture, engineering and home economics, for the college believes it is "equipped to do so better, perhaps, than some other institutions." Altho Kansas State does not expect to alter curriculums leading to degrees, it is in the process of expanding and liberalizing curriculums for all students.

Credit for ASTP and similar training programs is granted, but not, as a rule, for AAF and V-5 programs.

 ugly-tempered tyrant with religious scruples against machinery, motion pictures, and conveniences or pleasures of any kind. The son and daughter want to modernize the farm and suspect that Papa's scruples are merely a way of keeping them on the farm as forced slave labor. The daughter sneaks off to see a movie with her young man and Papa sweeps after them. The car in which Papa is riding is fortunately wrecked, and Papa disappears. His return and what his fate is, unfolds in the third act. The play uses the dialect of the Pennsylvania Dutch to good effect. It is light and completely entertaining.

All Students Eligible.

Anyone who is registered in school is eligible to try out. Those who tried out for the last play and did not get a role are encouraged to try out again. Everyone interested in the theater is urged to come to tryouts.

Anyone interested in the production staff of the play who hasn't filled out one of the theater's questionnaires should do so at once in room 153 Temple.

Williams says he is anxious to begin plans this week of reorganizing the Nebraska chapter of the National Collegiate Players. Anyone who is interested in this group should see the bulletin board outside Williams' office in Temple. They should fill in the desired information sometime Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday. Williams will announce the date and time of the meeting later in the week.

Circus . . .

 Wild Man's exhibition of brute strength.

Thoms Grows Beard.

Mary Helen Thoms becomes the bearded lady for a night. Her long, blond, luxuriant beard has been the subject of envious comment from men in audiences all over the nation.

On the animal side of the circus, one of the most unusual animal acts ever to appear on the continent will be featured. The talking cow has amazed audiences from one end of Nebraska to the other with her plain speaking and intelligence in answering questions. Only by great persuasion was the bizad college able to secure an exhibition from this animal genius.

Bernie Ulrich, in the traditional costume of his trade, will crack the ringmaster's whip over performers and sideshow freaks alike.

Nels A. Bengtson, dean of the junior division, announces that these discussions are open to anyone wanting to learn more about vocations in which they are interested, although they were prepared especially for freshmen.
