This being national book week, Miss Clara Wilson, teacher's college, will speak on "Books We Should Have Read as Children," placing emphasis on modern trends of literature.

Fine Arts School Offers Orientation Lecture Series

Second of a series of 16 informal art orientation lectures, "Living Art," will be offered by the university school of fine arts Sunday, in co-operation with the extension division as a feature of American Art Week.

The lectures, designed to keep in touch with current and progressive phases of art, will be presented every Sunday afternoon thru February 25 from 4 to 5 p. m. on the second floor of Morrill Hall. The fee for the complete series is $5 and a single admission is 50 cents. University students will be admitted without charge on presentation of their identification cards.

Experts Assist.

Artists and experts in the different fields of art will assist the lecturers from time to time in acquainting the students with material and methods used by the artists. Many of the lectures will be in connection with the current exhibitions in Morrill hall and the works added recently to Neb., will be one of the three principal speakers at the convocation. Rabbi Joseph Baron, Rabbi of Temple Emanu-El B'ne Jeshurum, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, for the past 18 years, will also speak. A lecturer in philosophy at Milwaukee State Teachers college, Rabbi Baron is also the vice-president of the Milwaukee section of the Milwaukee Federated Jewish Charities.

Dr. Sittler to Speak.

The third speaker scheduled for Tuesday night inter-faith meeting is Dr. Sittler, professor at the Chicago Lutheran Seminary, Chicago, Illinois. He received academic training at Wittenburg College and Divinity School, Western Reserve University, and in Heidelberg, Germany.

This meeting is sponsored by the University Convocation Committee and all students are invited to attend.

Preceding the service Sunday night there will be a 5:00 buffet supper for general committees with visiting leaders at the Presbyterian student house. Monday noon there will be a faculty luncheon in parlors XYZ in the Union, and the topic for discussion will be "Religion in Postwar Education." Chancellor C. S. Boucher will preside as chairman and the speaker will be Dr. Joseph Sittler.

Baritone Todd Duncan Sings At St. Paul's

The Lincoln Symphony orchestra, featuring baritone Todd Duncan as soloist, offers a varied program for Lincoln music lovers when it appears for the first time this season on Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. in St. Paul's Methodist church.

Opening with a Beethoven overture, including Saint-Saen's wondrous "Dance Macabre," a prelude by Wagner, and a Morton Gould arrangement of "Stardust," the orchestral program closes with the spirited Polovserian dances from the Russian opera, "Prince Igor," by Borodine.

Especially outstanding in the program is the first performance of "Summer Evening," a new composition by symphony conductor Henri Pensis. The quietly-moving composition describes a tranquil Nebraska or Iowa summer evening. Mr. Pensis, who has been guest conductor with the leading symphonies of Europe, came to the United States from France in 1940. In "Summer Evening," Mr. Pensis has created an impression of the landscape of his adopted Iowa home.

Was Original Porgy.

Todd Duncan, original Porgy of Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess," features several excerpts from the folk-opera with which he has made two nation-wide tours. In a special arrangement, the orchestra accompanies him in the last number of the Gershwin group, "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'." In contrast to the rhythms of the modern composer, Mr. Duncan's program includes a classical group of Handel.

In addition to his concert work and "Porgy" tours, Mr. Duncan has acted in the theater in both the United States and England. In England he was co-starred with Edna Best and Leslie Banks in "The Sun Never Sets," while in

- Towne Club.
- Unaffiliated students.
- Kappa Sigma.

Phelps Leads ISC Crew With Three Touchdowns

BY DICK DILSAVER.

Sparked by flashy halfback Gene Phelps, Iowa State college zoomed to a 19-6 victory over Nebraska's Cornhuskers yesterday. Tho holding the Cyclones scoreless thru the first period, the out-speeded Huskers fought hard thru-out the game with Keith Doyle springing the UN defense against the Iowans while Jack Selzer and Dick Lamberty led Scarlet offensive drives. Doyle's tackling staved off the Cyclones on many instances, making the Husker center outstanding in Nebraska play.

Judges Take 18 Debators For Varsity

In spirited competition Thursday 22 hopefuls tried out for the 1944-45 varsity debate squad.

Of the 22 contestants 18 were selected for the squad which represents UN in all intercollegiate debating in the midwest. Considered in making the selections were reasoning, use of evidence, refutation, and delivery. Judges at the tryouts were Dr. Leroy T. Laase, director of debating, Miss Jeannette Frasier, and Mr. William Morgan.

Veterans Return.

Returning members of last year's debate squad are Mary Ann Mattoon, Bill Miller, Jean Kinnie, Geraldine McKinsey, Robert Gillan, Maurine Evnen, Betty Lou Horton, and Robert Coonley. Newcomers to the scene are Tom Sorenson, Virginia Eberly, Don Kline, Irving Epstein, Betty Jean Holcomb, Marthella Holcomb, Ardeth Smith, Gladys Grothe, Virginia DeForrest, and Robert Wilkens.

"Unusually talented students were among those entering competition for the squad," said Dr. Laase, who foresees a highly successful season. First intercollegiate tilting on the subject, compulsory arbitration of labor disputes, will be at the Iowa Debate and Discussion Conference at Iowa City Nov. 13, 14, 15.

A special meeting will be held for members of the squad, at 7 p. m. Thursday, Nov. 16, at the Temple, to which all are required to come.

Cast of Coming Play Includes New UN Faces

Four newcomers will appear in the next University Theatre production, "Papa Is All," Dallas Williams, director of the theatre, announced Saturday.

Williams gave the cast as follows:

- Papa Aunkamp . . . Carl Zeigler
- Mama Aunkamp . . . Virginia Eberly
- Emma Aunkamp . . . Dorothy Reilly
- Jake Aunkamp . . . Art Beindorff
- Mrs. Loder . . . Lucy Ann Hapeman
- State Trooper Brendle . . . Jeffrey Gass

Tho this is Carl Zeigler's first appearance on the University Theatre stage, he has appeared in "Death Takes A Holiday," "Three Men On A Horse," and "George Washington Slept Here" at the University of Iowa.

Three newcomers to UN Stage. Virginia Eberly is a transfer student from Wayne State Teach-

Counselors Open '45 Book Review Series Tuesday

A review by Pat Lahr, Union director, of Somerset Maugham's "The Razor's Edge," at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening in Ellen Smith hall will be the first presentation of the yearly series of Coed Counselor book reviews.

Joy Hill and Vickie Chitquist are in charge of this year's series which will include reviews ranging from the latest mystery stories to analyses of post-war problems.

The first score of the game came late in the second quarter as Phelps dashed over the Nebraska left tackle from the five yard stripe. A pass from Phelps to Howard brought the ball to the 9 and line plunges set up the touchdown for the Cyclones. The Iowans started their drive from their own 22 with a 23 yard gain by Howard high-lighting the down field onslaught. Meredith Warner, Big Six scoring leader and Iowa State ace, failed to convert. The big Cyclone back was ailing from a hurt knee that kept him from going full blast against Nebraska.

Nebraska Scores.

Nebraska evened the score after Colerick had spilled Phelps while the fleet-footed Iowan was trying to pass and lost the ball with Koenig dropping on the pigskin. Joe Kessler bulled past the Cyclone secondary and went 27 yards for the only Husker tally of the game on the first play after Koenig's recovery. Bill Betz attempted the kick for the point but the former Lincoln High star's boot was low.

The following kick was taken by Keough who whizzed by Husker tacklers for 42 yards, be-
