

Society . . .

BY PAT GILLIGAN.

Houseparties took the limelight this week end. Taking in the Tri Delt "Delta Dreamland" Friday night were Zip Jim Wegener and Marty Davis—Sigma Nu Dave Russell and Dorothy Converse—Beverly Evans with pinmate Lt. Ward Grosz now visiting her—Sig Chi Gordon Bartek with Bev Swartwood and June Griffin with ATO Bill Gayer.

Chi O dates to the "Chi-O-Tee Cavern" Saturday night were Estelle Lennemann with DU Dean Kratz—Sailor Jack Holbrook, Fiji, with Donna Wagner—Ensign Hal Moore, Fiji, and Shirley Crosbie. By the way, what happened to her steady deal with Phi Delt Creutz?

With a Thanksgiving theme the Sig Chi's presented their Pledge Sweetheart, Alpha Phi Myrlee Holler, Saturday night. Congratulations to Myrlee and her steady, Dale Bloss, who was the lucky man. Other dates to the big party were Thetas Coll Quigley with Martin Pesek, and Joannie Bohrer with Bob Van Sant. Kenny Headrick's steady, Doris Rindy, was down from Fremont.

Fijis Get Together.

At Fiji "Li'l Abner" party Thorn Dillon was seen with Janie Johnson, Pi Phi—Pres Harold Anderson imported his pinmate, Doris Hibbs, Pi Phi from Ames, for the party—Tom Cornish spent the evening with Marilyn Lowe, Tri Delt, and AOPi Mary Shoemaker was there with pinmate Lt. Ned Nutzman still at the base. Enough for house parties.

One of those off again, on again affairs seems to be that of Chi O Ann Atkinson and Sig Ep Boyd Hecht who, after being unpinned, have decided they look better together after all.

Making it a Kappa-Phi Psi get-together Friday were several couples. Pete Anderson and Ginny Turner, Fred Hicox and Mary Ralston, and Ernie Larson and Jean Guenzel decided it was still nice weather to be out.

Dan Cupid is still at work even though winter winds are hovering round and spring is long forgotten. Louise Mares, Chi O, and Fiji Bud Bierman—Yvonne Nitzel and Bob Marsh—have decided it's a steady deal.

Good news, girls! Phi Delt Lyle King has been discharged and is back on campus. Now's your chance.

Pi Phi Converse.

We hear the pledges over at the Pi Phi house had quite a busy night last Thursday when long distance calls were more than plentiful. Maybe the old saying, "Absence makes the heart grow fonder" holds true after all.

Couples seeing a lot of each other lately—Mary Kay Bogan, Tri Delt, and Fiji Harold Jacobson—Alpha Phi Marge Sauer and Phi Gam Andy Beshore—Pat Welsh, Pi Phi, and Lt. Sam Shaefer—Phi Delt Randy Keough and Betty Chipman.

Sailor Pax Reichert was down from Peru to see Winnie Douglas this week-end. That must be the reason for the beaming face.

Making the rounds of the parties Friday night were Sig Ep Bob Hastert and DG Lois Chantry and Tau Bud Marsh and Sally Yoder, Alpha Chi.

Home Economics Honorary Takes Six New People

Five students and one faculty member were initiated into membership of Omicron Nu, home economics honorary society, Wednesday evening.

The new members are: Elaine Christensen, Joan Eby, Eleanor Larson, Maria Lentz, Miss Florence Smith, and Esther Walsh. They are chosen on the basis of high scholastic achievement, professional attitude and promise of leadership. Joan Eby is attending school this semester at Merrill Palmer in Detroit.

After the initiation ceremony the new members entertained the old members with a skit, which was followed by light refreshments.

Hunchback Stars In Variety Show Sunday at Union

"The Hunchback of Notre Dame," with Charles Laughton and Maureen O'Hara, is the thrill-packed feature of the variety show offered at 3 p. m. Sunday in the Union ballroom.

Charles Laughton plays the role that Lon Chaney made famous several years ago in this latest screen adaptation of Victor Hugo's novel. Spectacular scenes and settings, thousands of players, and mounting action laid in medieval Paris make for two hours of exciting entertainment.

Dean O. J. Ferguson of the college of engineering says that of the 2500 living alumni of the college, approximately 40 percent now reside within the borders of the state.
