

College Who's Who Lists Twenty Nebraska Students

Subscription Drive Opens Nov. 15 For 'Schooner'

Members of Tassels and Theta Sigma Phi, national journalism fraternity, will open the campus-wide subscription drive for the Prairie Schooner Wednesday.

The Prairie Schooner, which is published four times annually, is edited by Dr. L. C. Wimberly of the English department.

University students are asked to back the subscription drive as

Russian Relief Drive Requests Shoes, Clothing

War Council announced last night the beginning of a Russian War Relief drive to collect clothing and shoes which are desperately needed by Russian allies at once. All kinds of clothing are needed—winter and summer wear for all ages. It must be practical clothing, and should be in good wearing condition, as needles and thread are scarce in European countries now. Blankets and bedding are needed also, as well as shoes.

The On the Beam committee will collect contributions from the (See RUSSIAN, page 4.)

Frosh Honorary Asks 4 Students

Four students have received invitations to become members of Alpha Lambda Delta, honorary fraternity for freshmen women, it was announced by the president, Kay Hayes.

They are: Betty Jean Harpster, Eleanor Knoll, Hedy Schultz, and Peggy Shelley.

To be chosen for membership in this fraternity, a student must have an average of ninety percent in his freshman year. The initiation will be held Thursday, Nov. 16, at 7:15 in Ellen Smith Hall.

Ag Coeds Hold Ellen Richards Dinner Nov. 16

Blanche Reid will be the toast-mistress and Julia Crom will be song leader for the annual Ellen H. Richards dinner honoring the founder of modern home economics, which will be held Thursday at 6:15 in the Union ballroom.

Special music will be furnished by an ag college women's octet and by Beverly Davis, who will sing a solo. The tribute to Ellen H. Richards will be given by Margaret and Suzanne Kuehl, Miss Margaret Pedde, Phyllis Dodge, Mary Jo Kobes, LaVaughn Nelson, Gladys Bowman and Lona Haskins will talk on fellowship students from different countries. The main speaker of the evening, Miss Thelma Estevez of Uruguay, will give a greeting from a Foreign Fellow.

Virginia Bobbitt and Vivian Ferris are general chairmen in charge of the dinner. Virginia Bobbitt, Vivian Ferris and Julia Crom are in charge of programs and menus; Edith Pumphrey, tickets; Carol Garver, hostess; Laurel Adams, decorations; and Lois Oppen, publicity.

organized houses by Friday of this week, and a box will be placed the Schooner is one of the outstanding features of the university. According to last May's issue of the American Mercury: "Two of the best literary magazines in the United States have turned up in such spots as Gambier, O., and Lincoln, Neb., seats, respectively, of Kenyon college and University of Nebraska."

"As long as the university is recognized as such in the literary circle, the students should support the sale of the Schooner to keep up the good reputation that it already has," according to Ruth Korb, student business manager of the Schooner. Miss Korb also announced that the subscription for the year will be $1.

Campus YW Sells Religious Books in Union

Supplementing Religious Emphasis week, scores of religious books and dozens of volumes on Christ are on sale by the campus YWCA in the Union.

To arouse students to consciousness of spiritual matters in their daily lives is the aim of the project, held for the first time in the Union in place of the less-frequented Ellen Smith hall, according to Mildred Taylor, general secretary of the YWCA.

Among current best sellers are Lloyd C. Douglas, "The Robe," and "The Apostle" by Scholem Asch. One volume which has attracted much student attention is Paul Hutchinson's provocative "From Victory to Peace," which deals with problems of post war relations, treatment of conquered nations, empire, world assembly of nations, with brilliant, challenging Christian outlook.

Ranking in excellence with "From Victory to Peace" is "Christ of the American Road" by world-famed Christian E. Stanley Jones, which in direct, uncompromising language deals with the race demon and other hot issues confronting America. Both Lloyd C. Douglas and Jones were in Lincoln last year.

With price ranging from two cents for a small pamphlet dealing with relationships in the home to $4.50 for a beautifully illustrated issue of "Christ and the Fine Arts," the YWCA expects every student to find the book to fit his needs. Most of the pamphlets, selling for 50c and under, deal clearly with such problems as interracial co-operation, world order, international cooperation and Christianity and the world.

Dr. G. Kennedy Gives Review Of 'Anthology'

"The Prairie Schooner Anthology," published by the university press, will be reviewed by Dr. Gerald Kennedy of St. Paul Methodist church in his weekly radio program, "Adventures Among the Bookshelves," on KFAB at 9:45 p. m. tomorrow.

This will be the first time he has reviewed a book before it has become a novel or best seller. Dr. Kennedy will also mention the "Prairie Schooner" magazine written here.

Registration

Registration for political party preference for all students will be held from 12 o'clock noon to 6:00 p. m., Thursday in the Union basement.

All students are asked to register for the political party they prefer. The two parties are the Progressive Party, and the Student Party for Democratic Government.

The registration is under the jurisdiction of the Election Committee of the Student Council.

Jan. 13 Party Revives Early MB Tradition

Pre-war tradition will return to the campus January 13 when coeds ask the men for dates and send them corsages for the informal Mortar Board ball, which is being revived in the old style after its abandonment in 1942.

The party, originally scheduled for December 2, was postponed until January 13 in order not to interfere with Thanksgiving week-end, according to President Jean Larsen.

The women often take their dates out to dinner, must check their coats and hats, and also furnish a means of transportation such as horse and buggies, small express wagons, sleds, and cars. Corsages are generally of an unusual nature, for instance neon signs, Christmas decorations, fish, baby books and bottles.

Of course the boys can have the duffle bag weighted for dates to carry as the men have had the opportunity to carry compacts at a previous date.

The orchestra and other details will be announced at a later date.

Husker Beauties Parade at Dance Friday in Union

A bevy of 38 Nebraska beauties will parade before a table of unknown judges at the Cornhusker tea dance to be held Friday from 4:00 to 6:00 in the Union ballroom, in the first elimination contest for Nebraska beauty queens.

The candidates will appear twice, once in school clothes and again in a date dress with complete accessories. The applause offered by the students for their favorites will aid the judges in selecting the 12 final candidates.

Senior Orchestras Initiates 16 New Members Nov. 8

Senior Orchestras, the UN modern dance club, held formal initiation for the new members Wednesday night, Nov. 8, at Grant Memorial.

The new members who have been invited to join Senior Orchestras are: Call Quigley, Irma Lou Fisher, Anne Manchester, Myra Lee Hadan, Faye Shimerda, Lois Chantry, Jane Sutton, Lois Neumeier, Ann Arsen, Carolyn Motter, Billie Steelman, Jane Little, Gloria Bremer, Nancy Baylor, Janice Becker, and June Critchfield.

The officers of the club are: president, Mary Ann Knox; secretary, Bernette Hadan; faculty sponsor, Dr. Aileen Lockhart. ### Negro Baritone Opens Lincoln Music Series

BY JEANE MILLANE.

Todd Duncan, Negro baritone who gained fame as Porgy in Gershwin's folk opera, "Porgy and Bess," officially opened the first in a series of concerts to be heard during Lincoln's 18th symphony season.

The highlight of Mr. Duncan's performance was his rendition of several selections from "Porgy and Bess," including the lullaby "Summertime!" Porgy's tender serenade to his wife, "Bess, Yo' Is My Woman Now," and the amusing "It Ain't Necessarily So" and "I Got Plenty of Nuthin'."

The remainder of his program included "Hear Me, Ye Winds and Waves" and "Alma Mia," both by Handel; Legrenzi's spirited "Che Fiero Costume," and an arrangement for voice of Saint-Saen's "Danse Macabre." Among his five encores were the baritone classic, "Old Man River," and two Negro spirituals.

Union Schedules Juke Box Dance, Last Dance Class

Formally stepping on "her" social toes, informally tripping "him," and intently watching a love scene which breaks in the middle; such is the schedule of events at the Union this week.

In other words, the last social dancing class of the season is planned for tonight from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m. All strong toes, with their respective bodies, are welcome.

Free juke box dance is scheduled for Friday from 9 to 11:30 p. m. in the ballroom. Poor ballroom, what it doesn't go thru!

The wizard Orson Welles is starred in "Journey Into Fear," the variety show on Sunday. His star will be challenged by that caustic-reply man, Joseph Cotton. Delores Del Rio is there too some place, for what journey would be complete without a Delores.

Formally stepping—oh, oh, no reason to reprint this, or is there?

Cornhusker Sets Nov. 22 Deadline For '45 Pictures

Absolute deadline for class or group pictures for the 1945 Cornhusker to be taken by Miller & Paine studio is Nov. 22.

It is necessary for them to be taken by that time in order to appear in the annual.

Those pictures to be taken between November 13-18 are:

- International House.
- Housemothers.
- Dorm.
- Towne Club.
- Unaffiliated students.
- Sigma Kappa.

Three Faiths Discuss Need For Religion

"Is Religion Necessary?" was the topic discussed at the interfaith meeting held last night at 8:00 in the Union ballroom. Dr. Clarence Forbes was chairman and introduced the three speakers.

Dr. Sittler, professor at the Chicago Lutheran Seminary, Chicago, Illinois, spoke of religion as the most powerful and informative source in the progress of western culture. He stated that religion belongs at home in a university and that it is impossible for a student to ignore religion.

Religion Important Influence. Father Edward Tuckek, Holy Rosary church, Plattsmouth, Neb., discussed religion as being practical and reasonable and an important influence in everyone's life.

Rabbi Joseph Baron, a lecturer in philosophy at Milwaukee State Teachers college and vice president of the Milwaukee section of the Milwaukee Federated Jewish Charities, stated that religion is powerful and valuable for resolving conflicts of both a personal and social nature.

Junior Division Schedules Third Vocation Series

The third group of Orientation conferences, open to all interested university students, will be held Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. in Social Science. These conferences are the outcome of many requests received from students interested in furthering the orientation discussions along lines suited to their interests.

The following program will be followed for the meetings:

- SS 201 The Medical Profession, Prof. Otis Wade.
- SS 101a A Career in Nursing, Miss Gertrude M. Church, R. N.
- SS 105 The Social Work Profession, Miss Marian Lowe.
- SS 101 A Career in Business, Dean J. D. Clark.

These meetings are open to all students in the University and those in the Orientation classes who indicated their interest in the subjects are expected to be present.
