

Cornhuskers Preparing for KSC Eleven

After spending Saturday as a holiday from the 1944 grid schedule, Nebraska's Cornhuskers planned to go all out in practices this week to prepare for the Kansas State Wildcats.

The Wildcats were held to 0-0 tie by Olathe Naval Air Base Clippers yesterday despite the fact they were scheduled to take the tilt from the sailors.

Fast KSC Backs.

A fleet backfield will be the main part of the Aggie offensive attack. Ronnie Webster, freshman ace who last year was on the Kansas High School All-State squad, will lead the Wildcats, assisted by Payton, Smith and Mooney.

Another sensation on the K-State squad is Jack Newell, freshman end. The husky Kansan has been brilliant in both defensive and offensive play this season.

Before the beginning of the season, the Wildcats were expected to be one of the easier opponents on the UN schedule but a bevy of frosh stars have put the Aggies in the limelight, looming as a threat to a UN victory.

Nebraska practices have been light during the last week and most of the players visited their home towns over the week-end, taking advantage of the day-off.

Coach A. J. Lewandowski spent Saturday at Norman, Okla., where he view the Kansas-Oklahoma game. The UN coach intended to form an opinion of the Sooners, whom the Cornhuskers play after meeting the Kansas State team.

26 Cage Game Schedule For Sooner Quint

NORMAN, Okla., Nov. 18.—Averaging two basketball games a week for the next three months, Oklahoma's Big Six conference defending roundball co-champions will play a busy 26 game schedule this season, Athletic Director Dale Arbuckle has announced.

Coach Bruce Drake's youngsters return only one starter from last year, Jack Landon. The Sooners have lost their three all-Big Six stars, Center Grover Ramsey, Forward Kenneth Pryor and Guard Allie Paine, the latter selected All-America by Helms Foundation, Pic magazine and Chuck Taylor of Converse, and also a fourth starter in Dick Vaughan, rangy guard.

Besides Landon, the Sooners retain two subs from last year, Ed Lindenberg and Don Beulow. All three are little fellows who follow the ball hard. The Sooners gained very little talent this year from the campus navy unit which last season furnished Ramsey and Pryor, two all-conference men.

The schedule includes 15 home games, nine at Norman and six in Oklahoma City. The Sooners will defend their all-college tournament championship Dec. 27-28-29 at Oklahoma City, and will also clash with Iowa Pre-Flight's Seahawks Dec. 16 at Kansas City in an attractive double bill featuring Phillips 66 national A.A.U. kings, and Lt. Chuck Taylor's powerful Air Technical Service Command's Superforts.

The 1944-45 schedule:

- Dec. 5—Purdell Navy Gunners at Norman.
- Dec. 8—Southern Methodist at Norman.
- Dec. 12—Norman Navy at Norman.
- Dec. 16—Iowa Pre-Flight at Kansas City.
- Dec. 19—Phillips university at Norman.
- Dec. 27, 28, 29—All-College tourney at Oklahoma City.
- Jan. 2—Kansas State at Manhattan.
- Jan. 3—Nebraska at Lincoln.
- Jan. 13—Nebraska at Oklahoma City.
- Jan. 20—Kansas at Norman.
- Jan. 23—Phillips university at Enid.
- Jan. 26—Missouri at Norman.
- Jan. 30—Oklahoma A. & M. at Norman.
- Feb. 2—Norman Navy at Norman.
- Feb. 10—Kansas State at Norman.
- Feb. 13—Kansas at Lawrence.
- Feb. 17—Iowa State at Ames.
- Feb. 22—Oklahoma Aggies at Stillwater.
- Feb. 24—Air Technical Service Command at Oklahoma City.
- Feb. 26—Iowa State at Norman.
- Feb. 28—Long Island at New York City.
- Mar. 3—LaSalle university at Philadelphia.
- Mar. 5—Missouri at Columbia.

I-M Football Through: Ehlers Picks All-Stars

The cold weather put the season to a stop, touch football went over with reasonable success to lead off intramural activities of the year. Brown Palace annexed the title but no consolation champ was decided due to the discontinuance of the season. Statistically, Beta Theta Pi were next in line to the Brown Palace squad by winning 3 contests, losing only one. Sigma Nu and Alpha Tau Omega tied for third place honors.

Climaxing the end of the season is the announcement of an All-Intramural team consisting of outstanding players picked by Gordon Ehlers, intramural head. Ehlers named Van Horne, Deeter, Hecox and Stone as first string back-field on his all-star team supported by a line of Walling, Gayer, Sinton, Abdnor and Raney. Sigma Chi and Alpha Tau Omega placed two members each on the team. Others having one member were Zeta Beta Tau, Beta Theta Pi, Sigma Nu, Brown Palace, and Delta Tau Delta.

Honorable mention were Berry, Burroughs, Allen, Hawkins, Cole, Banton Nigh, Dworak, Miller and Kratochvil.

Leading in points towards the Jack Best trophy is Beta Theta

Pi with 150 followed closely by Sigma Nu with 130 and Alpha Tau Omega.

Information of the touch football season is listed as follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Tied	pts
Brown Palace	3	0	1	875
Beta Theta Pi	3	1	0	750

Jayhawks, Wildcats in State Feud

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 18.—Having disposed of the Olathe Clippers to the tune of 33 to 14 in a game played Saturday afternoon in Memorial Stadium, the University of Kansas Jayhawks began this week to prepare for the annual game with the Kansas State eleven in Manhattan, November 11.

The game Saturday in Manhattan will be the forty-second time the two state school have met on the gridiron. While the Mt. Oread eleven was defeating the Clippers, the Wildcats were turning in a 15 to 0 victory over Wichita University, their first win of the season. The State College men have been coming along fast and Kansas will have to play good football to win.

Iowa Beats Both.

Taking the scores of Kansas and Kansas State against Iowa State this season (the only common foe for both elevens so far) the K-State eleven rates two touchdowns stronger than the Jayhawks. The Wildcats pushed the Cyclones all over the field even though they were beaten 14 to 0. Kansas failed to get past the 50-yard line against the Cyclones and the Iowans won an easy 25 to 0 victory.

Five Cyclones Picked as GA All Opponents

AMES, Iowa, Nov. 18.—Five Iowa State gridmen have been chosen on an all-opponent football squad selected by members of the Gustavus Adolphus eleven and Coach "Tudde" Lindenburg at St. Peter, Minn.

Coach Mike Michalske's footballers led the list with five men nominated. Two St. Thomas players, two Drake gridders and a St. Mary's tackle were also named.

Cyclones selected on the all-opponent lineup were Rex Wagner, left end; Jack Fathauer at left guard; Cliff Dennis, center; Joe Noble at quarterback, and Meredith Warner, fullback.

Allen Starts 27th Season As KU Coach

LAWRENCE, Kas., Nov. 18.—Coach F. C. "Phog" Allen, starting his 27th year of coaching varsity basketball at the University of Kansas has a squad of 30 men working out daily in preparation for the coming season.

Allen returned to the Kansas campus as a coach the second time in 1919 and has been directing the varsity basketball squad since that date. The Jayhawkers will play only a 15-game schedule this season.

Schaake Assistant.

Allen announced a few days ago that Elmer Schaake, assistant grid mentor at K. U. for the past two seasons, will serve as assistant basketball coach this season. Schaake played guard under Allen in 1932 and '33, and was an all Big Six choice in his senior year. Schaake coached basketball at Bethany College and Lawrence High School before joining the K. U. staff.

4 Lettermen.

Charles Moffett of Peabody, now busy with football, is the only regular returning this year. He will not be able to report for practice until after the Missouri football game, November 23. Moffett was one of the leading scorers in the conference last season. Other lettermen returning from last year's squad will be Don Diehl of Smith Center, Louis Goehring of Arkansas City, and Dean Corder of Welda.

Intramurals Start New Competition

Table tennis and handball tournaments are swinging into the intramural spotlight this week. The touch football phase has been discarded as a result of weather conditions.

Monday will be the starting date for competition in both fields with the competing teams given until Nov. 30 to complete their first round contests. Results will be turned in to Gordon Ehlers by the end of the contest period allowing the intramural head to make pairings for second round contests.

Rules and information concerning the ping-pong schedule are:

1. All games must be played between Nov. 20 and Nov. 30.
2. Five men will represent each house in singles matches.
3. The team winning 3 out of 5 matches will be the victor in each pairing.
4. Games may be played at any place desirable to the participating teams. The Student Union will facilitate a number of the matches.
5. All results must be reported to Gordon Ehlers at the ATO house not later than Nov. 30.

Pairings:

- Sigma Phi Epsilon vs. Beta Theta Pi.
- Sigma Nu vs. Zeta Beta Tau.
- Alpha Tau Omega vs. Phi Gamma Delta.
- Sigma Chi vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
- Brown Palace vs. Pioneer Co-op.

Information concerning the handball tournament:

1. All games must be played between Nov. 20 and 30.
2. Each house will be represented by three men.
3. Team winning two out of three singles matches will be victor in each pairing.
4. Gloves and handballs can be checked out from the cage in the coliseum any afternoon between 2 and 6 o'clock in the afternoon.
5. All results must be turned in not later than Nov. 30 to Gordon Ehlers at the ATO house.
6. Arrangements as to time of play must be made by the opposing houses.

Pairings:

- Alpha Tau Omega vs. Sigma Chi.
- Beta Theta Pi vs. Sigma Nu.
- Phi Gamma Delta vs. Sigma Phi Epsilon.
- Zeta Beta Tau vs. Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
- Pioneer Co-op vs. Brown Palace.

All participants will be under the same rulings concerning scholastic standing as were published for touch football.

President Charles Seymour of Yale university announces that the school is formulating a plan for the education of returning service men. The purpose of the study is to provide a broad and flexible program meeting the needs of ex-servicemen who recognize the importance of higher education but whose circumstances prevent taking the long four year college course.

Bench Warming

With Dick Dilsaver

Following is an epistle recently received of one Dann McGrew, x40, now located at Oakland, Calif., expressing his opinion concerning the Kansas-Nebraska outcome of recent.

What is this thundering, flashing, rumbling from mid-land skies?

Why do the people rush about with open mouth and bulging eye with vexed, surprised, elated stare?

What are the streaks across the heavens?

SUPERMAN? GORDON? CORRIGAN OR ELEANOR? NO!

Has Sinatra just finished another swoon song? NO!

Another ordnance plant blast? NO!

Pentecostal revival meeting? NO!

Has the legislature passed a bill allowing half the request of the University, so Thompson and Harper won't chisel students out of library fines and building fees?

NO!! NO!! NO!!! NEVER!!!

What smacks of sunflower, rock-chock Jayhawk, mingled with hysterical howlings and magnificent band music, which reacheth to the high heavens?

Did Kansas score against Nebraska or another feat as nearly fantastic?

Gosh, no! Kansas beat Nebraska twenty to nothing!! Incredible! Preposterous!! Impossible!!!

I say, wherefore, why is this?

This eternal blazon must not be to ears of Cornhuskerdom.

At once dispatched, cut off even in the blossoms of our sins, Unhoused, Jayhawk, unaveld.

Well, toots, when shall we sweep to our revenge for this foul and most unnatural crime?

NEVERMORE! Quoth the Jayhawk on the bust of Bausch above the chamber door.

DANN MCGREW.

(Sports Editors note: Your writer being a native Kansan is a bit shocked that Mr. McGrew regards the victory of the Kansas team so startling, but after all, we're going to Nebraska aren't we, so we'll stick with the Huskers.)

no longer with the Cyclones.

Charles Wright, 1943 all-conference guard, left at the same time as Noble and Dennis.

A fighting Gustie team was beaten 49 to 0 Sept. 30 by the Cyclones in the season's opener.
