

"How many clothes in a wardrobe?"

the answer is FOUR

1. twenty-four hour coat

Loose enough to slip over your suit . . . bright or black enough to go with everything. Our incomparable Chesterfields, the solution!

$29.95 to $49.95

2. neat-as-a-pin suit

You wear it with sweaters on campus . . . dress it up with soft blouses for dates. You wear the jacket with slacks in the country . . . you wear it. Our all-wool flannels, suedes, fleeces . . .

$25.00 to $45.00

3. romancing, dancing dress

In this year 1944, short . . . but none the less bewitching. Ours make the most of your every feminine charm. Slick junior sizes . . . rayon crepe . . . black, aqua, fuchsia, gold . . .

$12.95 to $25.00

Harper's Bazaar suggests that the clothes you need are few: four cornerstones around which you build accessories. (See the November issue.) We've adapted their prescriptions to the Nebraska co-ed's formula for living. We've collected your clothes . . . with your kind of life in mind. Come in!

4. class-conscious dress

Basic gabardine, for instance . . . To take you everywhere on campus . . . to the movies with the girls, if that must be. Choose golden wheat, cocoa brown, forest green, soldier blue, melon red . . .

$10.95 to $16.95

Third Floor Fashions

MAGEE'S