

Corn Meal

BY PAT GILLIGAN

Glamour, sophistication and soft music were done away with this week end and hay, slacks and informality took over on campus. Taking in the Alpha Chi "Fun House" house party Saturday night were Jackie Scott with Beta pres Gene Merchant—Sally Yoder and Jim Beard—Peg Shelley and Beta Sig Don Bauman—and Barb Emerson with Bob Schulte, Beta. The party proved to be quite profitable for one person who held the lucky number drawn to receive the $25 war bond.

At the Tau house party were Theta Susan Lancaster with Dale McCracken—Bob "Shine" Devors with AOPi Elaine Anderson—Thetas Pat Colton and Sally O'Shea with Gene Deeter and Clive Osterberg. Why doesn't Clive date more often???

The AOPi house party "Plaid and Plain," also Saturday night, found Phi Delt Dick Capek with AOPi Dolly Tracy—Sig Chi Jim Yenny with Jean Leinberger—Jackie Tobin with usual Phi Psi Dick Coke—Jean Skinkle with Tau Bud Lehr.

Alpha Phi 'Hay Dance.'

Sigma Nus Danny Babcock, naval air cadet home on leave, and Bud Cole were at the Alpha Phi "Hay Dance" Friday night with Ruthie Larson and Sally Sears. Phi Psi Jack Blankenship, on leave from the navy, whooped it up with Jo Kinsey—Phi Gams Kim Lukins and "Butch" Schroeder with Marge Olson and Babs Stenger. Babs denies this column's report of last week that she was seen with a certain serviceman.—So—consider it retracted. Feel better, Butch???

Two people were the cause of a lot of disappointment this week end. Alpha Phi Joannie Witt's illness upset DU Dick Finell and Tau Bud Marsh's week end and Blackie Blanchard, Phi, is wishing Doug Nelson, Phi Delt, quick recovery.

Kappa Sig Bill Flory, Sig Nu Don Chapin and Phi Psi Ernie Larson have been having the big argument on who'll weaken and hang his pin first. It looks to us, tho, as if the question is who'll be accepted first. The girls involved are Betty Gray Norvel, Theta; Hink Aasen, Chi O, and Kappa Jeannie Guenzel. How about it, girls???

Beauty Queens Popular.

A new man comes to light in the life of Kappa June Korb. June made a trip this week end to Grand Island to stay with sister Mickey Jarrell and see a certain Major Lasson.

Seen coking in the Union quite frequently the past week were Sally White, Alpha Chi, and Phi Delt George Howard, home on furlough.

Dorothy Thompson, Theta, seen this week end with Phi Delt Roy Dinsdale. Is it that '42 maroon convertible or Roy???

Visiting the AOPi house over their Thanksgiving vacation from college in Kansas the past week were Everly Obrist, former AOPi here, and guest Petty Cullivan, with a southern accent, too.

armaments program is behind schedule. A 28 percent lag, Krug says, would be critical.

In the Pacific, where the same problem of supply probably exists, American pilots have carried out nearly continuous attacks on Jap convoys attempting to land troops and supplies to reinforce the Jap Leyte forces. Wednesday U. S. fighter pilots destroyed or damaged four troop-laden freighters, four luggers and 14 barges off Ormoc, the last Jap-held port on Leyte.

At Chicago, Canada's H. J. Symington answered the suggestion of the U. S. and British leaders that the international civil aviation conference adjourn because it had done all it could, by demanding that the delegates continue to meet until the Anglo-American deadlock over two major issues of air freedoms and a plan to adjust airline operations to traffic volume, is broken. While the other delegations backed Symington, support of the possibility of settlement of the problems was given by Mayor LaGuardia, who appealed that work on a transport agreement be finished.

Sidney Hillman's political action committee faced problems of winning the war and gaining a just peace Thursday after the C. I. O. exuberantly voted to continue the committee's existence indefinitely. Altho the part played by P. A. C. in gaining re-election for President Roosevelt is still disputed, the union looks upon the election as a glorious victory for the committee.

Pan-American relations continued to grow more tense as nations studied Argentina's request for a conference of the hemisphere foreign ministers, which the United States opposes. Argentina wishes to prove that it is in entire accord with the cause of the United Nations, just so long as the conference does not discuss Argentina's internal affairs. Even if a conference is not called, Argentina can gain a victory by breaking the Pan-American union into fragments.
