

Sooners Gain Big Six Win Second Time

FINAL STANDINGS.

	W	L	T	Pct.
Oklahoma	4	0	1	.900
Iowa State	3	1	1	.700
Missouri	2	1	2	.600
Nebraska	2	3	0	.400
Kansas	1	4	0	.200
Kansas State	1	4	0	.200

For the first time in Oklahoma grid history, the University of Oklahoma annexed their second consecutive Big Six football championship taking the last conference title from Nebraska by a 31-12 count. No other Sooner eleven was even able to duplicate a conference title.

The Sooner-Husker tilt was the last in the conference as well as ringing the curtain down on mid-west grid play.

Only black spot on the Oklahoma record was a 21-21 tie with the Missouri Tigers a few weeks ago.

Iowa State was second ranking squad in the loop coming through with a tie with Missouri, wins over Kansas, Kansas State and second semester officers Oklahoma.

The Tigers of Missouri took third place in final standings with wins over the two Kansas squads, ties with Iowa State and Oklahoma and an upset loss to Nebraska.

Nebraska finished fourth by winning from Kansas State and

Schedule Hand Ball, Ping Pong

Hand ball and table tennis intramural play is in second round participation now, first round activity being completed last week. Only three contests are scheduled on the ping-pong sheet and but one hand ball match.

Of the scheduled first round matches, several houses failed to play and many did not turn in results.

Those teams who lost their first round matches and turned in results will be given entrance points towards the Jack Best trophy. Deadline on second round play is not later than Dec. 11, with all results to be turned over to Gordon Ehlers. Games are to be arranged at opponents convenience.

Ping Pong pairings:
Xi Psi Phi vs. Alpha Tau Omega.
Beta Theta Pi vs. Zeta Beta Tau.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon vs. Pioneer Co-op.
Hand ball pairings:
Beta Theta Pi vs. Phi Gamma Delta.
