

Corn Meal

BY HELEN GOODWIN.

UN one-day holiday resulted in four-day vacation for most students as they forsook Lincoln for parts dishing out fun. Train and bus aisles were jammed and luggage provided ideal chairs under the circumstances. "There is no place like Nebraska" rang out . . . were they kidding?

The Thanksgiving moon was bright and yellow, and fall lanes were light. In every glance and gesture, co-eds hinted they craved romance. The fellows stammered and stammered, not knowing what to do. The moon was yellow and they were mellow . . . and love it did enhance.

Ask Motor Wilson, Sig Chi pledge, who had such a fun time with 'Fish', KKG, that she now wears his ZIP pin. One off, one on . . . never a dull moment . . . always variety.

Taus Are Marching.

March . . . march . . . march . . . the Taus are marching . . . and this time Chi O-way to help mortar Board Dorothy Carnahan and Bob Olson pass the candy, smoke cigars and other incidental actions that accompany candy passings.

Mary Lancaster and Flight Officer 'Jake' Allen Owen surprised the Thetas with a five pound box of candy. The candy passing was most complete, but rather one-sided with only one man . . . but fun!

High lighting last week-end, especially for Pi Phi J. M. Smith and DU Howard Debus, was the diamond that J. M. now wears. Congratulations!

The Betas turned out to help Dick Cullen and Ann Doudna, Gamma Phi, secure their romance. Candy for the girls and cigars for the fellows. The Betas continued the celebration by serenading early in the morning.

Third time should be a charm for Alpha Xi Delta. Dodee Easterbrook and Vaughan Gaddis, Phi Gam, as their dates continue fast and furious.

Revert to Gay Nineties.

Towne Club members reverted to the 'gay 90's for their party Saturday night . . . and it was a gay time.

Rumor has it that Donna Lou Peterson, Alpha Phi, and Beta Harland Helgerson have been dating most frequently.

Leap year isn't over, and three Theta admirers of phi Psi Terry

Barton believe turn about is fair play and made him their pinned-up man. Three-way telephone conversation later confirmed two were B. D.'s. Right, Terry?
