Cornhuskers Not Potent To Hurdle Iowa Hawkeyes

Wings Story Late

Because of deadline dates, the Lincoln Army Air Force Wings vs. Fort Riley Centaurs game is not being printed in the Nebraskan.

Nebraska Turns Out Fine Court Display Against IU

Bench Warming With Dick Dilsaver

News from the Great Lakes indicates that former Husker Chick Knight is taking boot training in fine style. Little brother to the more famed Bus, Knight handled right halfback most of the past pigskin season and did a good job while at it.

Fans last night should have gotten an idea of what to expect of this year's crop of basketeers when the Huskers met Iowa. Tho this writing was made before game time, our guess is that the Scarlets will have a tough time this year, tho possibly better than last. All the Cornhusker quint of '44 and '45 would have to do to beat the record of the past season's team would be win two games. Only one contest went on the records as a victory then.

Those in charge saw fit to give the Lincoln Army Air Force Wings top rating on twin bills in the coliseum this year. Last night's game between Nebraska and Iowa took off at 7:15 while the Wings-Fort Riley Centaur meeting came at 8:30. This change in starting times was probably made because of popular demand, for last year when the Wings played along with the Nebraska team, fans would fill the coliseum to watch the air corps fellows play and trek out when the university team took the floor.

Info coming out of France tells what Lt. Richard P. Hagelin, head coach for the university from 1938 to 1941 in the swimming department, has been doing for himself as of recent.

Koenig Leads Husker Squad In 61-45 Loss

BY DICK DILSAVER.

Iowa defeated Nebraska on the coliseum court here tonight but the surprise of the evening was still in the Huskers. Tho on the short end of a 61-45 count, the Nebraskans started the Iowan fans and no doubt even Coach Ad Lewandowski in turning out a pleasant brand of cage-savvy against a highly rated Iowa team.

Bob Koenig was the big charge in the unrevealed Husker dynamite as he swarmed all over the Hawkeyes on the defense and accounted for 14 points himself. The South Dakota youngster also set up many plays for tall Art Peterson, lanky, but uncontrollable Husker center.

Also shining in the Husker light was one of the two lettermen to return to the Nebraska court, Buzz Hollins. The husky Hollins was constantly taking rebounds from the Iowa backboard as well as putting in some nice offensive floorwork.

Jim Strahan was another surprise as he constantly set up and followed in plays for the Scarlets. Strahan should soon develop into a regular starter tho he didn't see the initial whistle or too much time thruout the earlier part of the game.

Also too be mentioned on the appraisals is Jack Dedrick who accounted for 5 Husker points.

Clayt Wilkinson, formerly of last year's championship Uah team, was leading scorer of the evening, putting 10 field goals and 4 charity tosses thru the cords. Koenig followed with 14 counters.

Alpha Tau Cops IM Ping Pong Championships

Alpha Tau Omega took intramural ping-pong championships from Beta Theta Pi this week but the Betas found consolation in having handball honors returned to them from the Fijis after a mistake in pairing playoffs.

The Phi Gams still rate second in handball.

Most basketball teams have turned in their entries but the always late few must have their names in by Tuesday or be left behind in tournament pairing.

Before China's modern telephone system was installed, the service was so slow that it took 20 minutes to complete each call.
