

Cornhuskers Bow Before Fast Oklahomans, 44-17

BY DICK DILSAVER.
Nebraska was slow, Oklahoma was fast. That appeared to be the difference Wednesday night as the Huskers bowed before a fast-breaking Oklahoma quintet by a 44-17 count. Though lacking the usual height that former Sooner squads have displayed, the Norman team made up for the lankiness with their quick breaks. Though not hitting the basket in usual style, Nebraska often appeared to be in form to defeat the Sooners but the final count proved otherwise.

UN Held Own.
Nebraska held her own throughout the first half until Oklahoma placed three baskets one minute before the first period ended and went into a 25-19 lead. The Cornhuskers held a 11-7 lead up to midway through the first half but then the Sooners started coming up and the lead see-sawed back and forth until the Sooner spurt. From then on the game was all Oklahoma though there was a late Nebraska rally with but three minutes to go.

Scouter Hines was the Sooner salvation as he twice broke loose for set-ups with only 30 seconds of play remaining and clinching the score. Despite being faster than lightning, Hines did not appear in the highly touted role that early reports here had given him. The fast Oklahoman was responsible for nine points, four of these coming of the two late set-ups and another two but three minutes before the final gun.

Rally Begins.
The late Nebraska rally started with Art Peterson laying in a set up. This was followed up by Bob Hahn and Hecox and then the lanky Peterson hit again. It was then that Hines raced for the cinchers.

Coach Lewandowski substituted freely in an attempt to set the Huskers back in swing but to no result.

Peterson was high scorer of the evening with five field goals and four charity tosses to account for 14 points. The lanky center was followed by young Bob Hahn and Sooner Lindenbergh, each tallying 11 counters.

Nebraska spirit was lost in the first half as Bob Koenig, Ed Strahan failed to hit the basket. Veteran Buzz Hollins was also having trouble in finding the net.

Next contest for the Huskers will be next Monday night when Iowa State invades Huskerland. Featuring Monday's program will be the high scoring Wings who will meet Ottumwa Naval Air Station.

Sports

Cornhuskers Win but One Holiday Tilt

Though students from the university were sitting comfortably in their home towns throughout Christmas vacation, Nebraska's young basketballers were active throughout the holidays. In five games during the breathing spell from books and college life, the Scarlet team met victory only once. Pentathlon University of Mexico City were the losers in the Huskers' lone and first victory.

Minnesota, Indiana, Illinois were three Big Ten foes who each successfully succeeded in downing the Cornhuskers. The other game went to Kansas State, Big Six darkhorse.

Hahn Leads Scoring.
Bob Hahn has kept the lead among Husker scorers with 64 points in the seven games of the season. Close behind the young Fremont cager is gangling Art

Peterson who has tallied 61 times. Next in line come Jim Strahan with 50, Bob Koenig with 41, veteran Buzz Hollins scoring 36, and Costello with 28.

Team average for the Cornhuskers is 45 points plus throughout the seven game schedule. Opponents against the Scarlets have made an average of almost 56 points. Next competitor for the Nebraskans will be Iowa State.

Oklahoma	fg	ft	r	pts
Hines f	4	1-3	5	9
Lindenbergh f	6	1-2	3	11
Koenig c	0	0-0	2	0
Brinagar g	3	1-1	4	6

Landon g (GC)	2	2-2	3	6
Whaley c	3	1-2	1	7
Buelow g	2	2-3	0	6
Totals	18	8-13	16	44
Nebraska	fg	ft	r	pts
Hahn f	5	1-2	4	11
Strahan f	1	0-2	3	2
Hollins c (GC)	0	3-6	0	3
Costello g	0	0-2	1	0
Koenig g	2	1-1	1	6
Hollins f	0	0-0	1	0
Hoemann f	0	0-0	2	0
Peterson c	5	4-5	0	14
Betz g	0	0-1	1	0
Buckley g	0	0-0	0	0
Hecox f	1	0-0	0	2
Totals	14	9-19	13	37

Score at half: Oklahoma 25, Nebraska 20.
Officials: Dick Pulliam, Grand Island college; Mike Oberhelman, Kansas State.

CALL 2-3515
For Prompt
PRINTING SERVICE
STATE PRINTING CO.
1218 P St.

I-M Cagers in New Schedule Next Tuesday

Intramural basketball gets its initial appearance of the season next Tuesday with fourteen teams now having placed their entries to Intramural head Gordon Ehlers. Ehlers is giving any other late entrants a chance to throw their hat in the ring with Friday, Jan. 5 being the final deadline.

All games will be played on Tuesday and Thursday evenings providing that there are no conflicts with varsity schedules.

A schedule of pairings and other information will appear in the following issue of the Nebraskan.

- Entrants:
Cornhusker Co-op
Pioneer Co-op
Zeta Beta Tau
Beta Sigma Psi
Alpha Tau Omega
Xi Psi Phi
Sigma Chi
Beta Theta Pi
Phi Gamma Delta
Sigma Phi Epsilon
Ac College
Kappa Sigma
Theta Xi
Phi Delta Theta.

Wings Defeat Hastings Navy

The playing was rough and the Wings were too fast for the Hastings Naval Depot as the local G.I. fliers galloped past the sailors, 65-28. The Wednesday night feature at the coliseum was the 13th victory of the season for the Lincoln five.

Hastings Tough.
Despite the Wings' superiority, the Hastings crew proved to be capable ball handlers and hard players. Perhaps a better showing would have been made if Tom Murphy, George Stewart and Hawk Hawkins had not been lost by fouls. Murphy left the court a few minutes before the first half and Stewart and Hawkins were fouled out midway through the second canto.

Juniors Resolve...

- to buy wisely and keep within the budget
- to choose fashions-with-a future
- to look neat, well-groomed all year'round

It's a smart girl who learns to co-ordinate her wardrobe and still keep Dad out of bankruptcy! It's the smart girl who comes to Miller's special junior fashion center—the MODERNAGE ROOM—for we cater to these very needs. Resolve this year to look your best—in clothes from Miller's.

second floor

MILLER & PAINE

TURNPIKE
Sat., Jan. 6

HARRY MYERS

Directing
LEE Williams ORCHESTRA
Adm. 50c ea. plus tax