

Corn Meal

To start off with this morning, we want to say that what Rollie says about Andy is absolutely true, huh, Brownie?

At the Phi Rho house in Omaha New Year's Eve was Bonnie Hinrichs and not with pin (or ex) mate Jawn Wells.

Who were the UN students who were throwing bottles from the fourth floor windows of the Blackstone Hotel on the same evening—huh, Larson? What all of the girls on this campus would like to know is what Bob Brown's trouble that he won't give at least a few of them a break. Has Marge Heyn given her pin back or not, and if so, why aren't about half of the ten boys that are waiting for her to, getting on the ball.

How About It, Bette?

After all the trouble that Pete Anderson had in getting Ginny Turner to give her ring back to the Air Corps it would seem that he would at least date her. Ware Christinson and Joan Rae Bauer, have been hitting the steady road lately. Even the Fly Boys can't break into that league. Seen at the Motor Boat party last night were Dick Dilsaver, Fiji Sports Ed, and Virginia Hann, Gamma Phi Fred Hecox and Wilma Boettcher, Kappa have been seen in all the better places, and often.

How about all of these women that signed up for Student Directory, giving their address as that of the Sig Chi House. Nice spot you're running, Jim.

Joan Bohrer Theta, and John Van Sant have reached that stage—rocks or cross, Van? Everyone is eagerly waiting for Ike Steen to make the first big investment in Freddie's Tea Room, for that is the official opening of the outdoor party season at the Gulch. (Can't print picnic in the paper, Ike.) For a nice narrative, have Mycki McDonald, Chi Omega, tell about the train ride home.

Big announcement of the new year is that putting Mary Louise Weidman, Alpha Chi, Dougal "Snowman" Nelson, Phi Delt, on the steady list. Its about time this pair came to such an understanding.

Nog Chapin, the old reliable, comes in kind of handy when the fly boys fly, eh Hink? We like that twosome cause nothing upsets our stomach.

Merry "Butch" Winter of the KAT hut, had her Xmas vacation all planned until the maternal hand interfered. Anyway it was a good idea, and besides, Mommy doesn't live in Lincoln.

People live and people learn but still we run into something new now and then... even late dates or "working on the swing shift" are tossed about, but our time is up and we aren't ones to tarry. See 'ya.
