

Skyjackets Take 57-34 Win Sunday

NORMAN, OKL.—The Norman Navy Skyjackets walloped the Nebraska Cornhuskers by the score of 57-34 here Sunday night.

It was the third game in three days for both teams, and it was the third loss for the Scarlet and Cream in as many starts. The Jackets held a 30-13 half time lead, and the Navy reserves played most of the second half.

High scorer of the night was Nebraska's big Buzz Hollins with four field goals and four free throws for a total of 12 points. Second high husker scorer was lanky Jim Strahan, sharp shooting forward from Wayne. Leading the Navy scoring was Courty, with 11 points.

Sooners Face Next Big Six Rival Saturday

The Boomer Sooners of Oklahoma, defending co-champions of the Big Six, face another severe test from the north when the Kansas Jayhawkers invade the Okie's land Saturday.

The Sooners, fresh from their overtime victory over the young Nebraska Cornhuskers, will face Kansas loaded for bear.

Kansas is Improved.

The Jayhawkers' improved play indicates that this game may be the turning point for the Sooners, already beaten in league play by the Kansas State quintet. The K-State Wildcats eked out a thriller 55-54 and another loss would just about put the Sooners out of the running.

Even if the Sooner slip by the unbeaten Jayhawkers they still must face the like wise unbeaten Iowa State team, who has impressed all observers with their two league wins.

The Cyclones have a trip to Columbia and a date with the Tigers on tap for Saturday, but their task seems less difficult than that of the Sooners. The Tigers have played but one league game, that a 74-38 loss to

The big scare being thrown into the ranks of Americans 4-F athletes by Uncle Sam doesn't seem to bother big Buzz Hollins. It seems that the Buzzer, who was reclassified 1-A, went on a personal scoring spree during Nebraska's disastrous southern road trip. Mr. Hollins was high man in both the Oklahoma and the Skyjacket games.

Hollins is still behind Bob Hahn, tall Art Peterson, and Jim Strahan, flashy forward, in the scoring race. Hahn, the leader, has accumulated 86 points in 11 games for a point per game average of 7.81.

Nebraska has averaged better than 2 points a game, but has been able to win only one game in their 11 starts.

The individual scoring marks of Cornhusker players complete with last weeks scoring:

Hahn	11	38	10	24	86
Peterson	11	30	23	6	83
Strahan	11	32	17	26	81
Hollins	11	21	35	31	73

The Lincoln Army Air Field Wings have cancelled their game with Doane college in Crete and instead will play Patterson Army Air Tech at Colorado Springs, Colo. Thursday they face the Phillips 66 Oilers, National A. A. U. champions, in Colorado Springs, and then return to this territory in order to play the Sioux City A. A. F. in Sioux City on this next Saturday night. The squad left Monday for Colorado, all players making the trip except Red Mihalic, substitute guard.

Events of last week in review: Nebraska dropped three Big Six games in disastrous southern game trip. The A. S. T. P. hot shots defeated the Phi Gam mystery five 2-0 before 6,300 madly cheering fans. One incident in the games aroused the crowd when a tough A. S. T. P. knocked an innocent woman down. She was number 11 and played forward for the Fijis. The Air Base Wings played the Air Techs to provide half time entertainment and won after a close game, 56-49.

Iowa State Edges 50-48 Victory Over Skyers

AMES, Ia. (AP). Iowa State fought past the Ottumwa Naval Air station to annex a 50 to 48 win in a basketball game here Monday, after the Skyers had held a 26-24 halftime margin.

The Cyclones, finding the range 50 seconds after the second half opened, moved out to a 46 to 39 lead with three minutes of the game left but were forced to check a fast-closing Ottumwa rush to salvage the contest.

Coach Louie Menze called Bob Mott, starting center, out of the showers to shoot a last second free throw to insure the victory.

The Skyers, behind the rapid-fire shooting of George Hartley and John Kraft, broke two first half ties to grasp at 21-16 edge four minutes before the half ended, but could not check the basket ringing of Jim Myers who narrowed the gap to the 26-24 recess count.

In the last 50 seconds Ottumwa drew up to chop Iowa State's gap to 49-46.

At this point the Skyers committed four fouls, all of which the Cyclones refused, but after Hartley hit to make the count 49-48, Menze recalled Mott to the floor when a technical foul was called. Mott made the second of the two charity shots, standing up the score at 50-48.
