

Peace . . .

government will make observations on the terms of the peace.

Of special interest is the propaganda collection in the Document Room of the library. Governments of countries in exile send out propaganda and the library has a large collection of these pamphlets. Some is donated by city newspapers but most of it comes direct from the embassy of the country. These articles cannot be taken from the document room but may be used there.

The library will be organized by the beginning of the second semester and students are urged to use the facilities that will be available at that time.

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis has granted the Medical School of the University of Minnesota $320,000 for the continuation and intensification of study in the field of infantile paralysis.
