

UN Outpoints Jayhawks, Wins First Indoor Meet

By Don J. Baker.

In the opening meet of the season, the Nebraska Cornhuskers, sparked by Dean Kratz and Norval Barker, outran the Kansas Jayhawks, 51 to 42. Coach Kanehl of KU, not being a superstitious man, brought 13 men from Lawrence; eight Navy trainees and five civilians.

In the first event, the mile run, KU was represented by Thomas and Hudson, two boys who had never before run a competitive mile. At the start, Hudson took the lead and managed to stay well ahead of Don Morrison for the first six laps. However, as they entered the seventh and final one, Morrison surged ahead and crossed the finish several yards in front of Hudson.

Kratz Takes Three Firsts.

In the 60 yard dash, Dean Kratz of Nebraska turned in one of his three first places, with Danneberg of Kansas second.

It was Kratz again in the 440 yard dash, stepping it off in 55 seconds even. Johnny Jackson of the Jayhawks was a close second.

The 60 yard high hurdles were second nature to Norval Barker, who cleared the sticks in 7.9 seconds. KU's N. Jackson ran second.

Dick Miller of the Cornhuskers, cleared 12 feet 7 inches in the pole vault, which was one better than Harvey Morrow of Kansas could do.

In the high jump, Jim Sargent of Lawrence, rolled neatly over the crossbar for a 5 foot 8 and one-half inch leap. This surpassed Miller's attempt by one and a quarter inches.

The lads from Lawrence took the broad jump with little trouble, garnering 8 points with Lynn Leigh's 20 foot leap and Ken Danneberg's second place jump of 19 feet 5 inches. Cornhusker Bob Shulte's attempt netted only 19 feet 3 inches, just 2 under Danneberg's.

UN's Buzz Hollins tossed the shot 43 feet 2 inches for a first, and Dick Pederit's heave measured 41 feet, 1 1/2 inch for second place.

It was apparent that it was Jiggs Whitmore's 2 mile run from the starting gun. He took the lead immediately and crossed the finish line well ahead of KU's Thomas.

Norval Barker, high and low hurdle specialist, again copped a first place in the lows, with N. Jackson of KU second. Barker's time in the low sticks was 7.2 seconds.

Dean Kratz turned in his third and final first place of the day by defeating Hamilton of Kansas in the half mile.

In the mile relay, Kansas took the lead at the start as Johnny Jackson pulled ahead of Don Morrison. The Cornhuskers couldn't catch Johnny Stites, Den Danneberg or Lynn Leigh, even though Jiggs Whitmore, Don Morrison, Norval Barker, and Dean Kratz were never dangerously labbing behind their man. Jayhawker Leigh finished first in the relay, just a few feet ahead of Nebraska's Kratz, who couldn't quite close the gap.

Coach Ed Weir was very well satisfied with the showing demonstrated by the squad, and it must be restated that Nebraska in track, as in all other sports, suffers extensively from the lack of personnel, and from this standpoint they should be congratulated upon their very fine showing against the KU Jayhawkers.

Mizzou Tiger Drops Huskers

BY CHUCK PETERSON.

The rejuvenated Nebraska Cornhuskers lost another close one in their series of long losses. The Huskers showed some signs of improvement and proved that the coaching of the Wings captain, Ahearn, had done some good.

The Huskers started out like a ball of fire, but the gradual and steady set shots of Mickelson and Weir soon proved to be too much for Lew's boys.

The boys from UN stretched into an 18 to 11 lead midway in the first half only to be overtaken by the one hand set and pivot of Weir and Bauer. Weir poured in two set shots from the center of the free shot circle. Bauer then counted with two one handed pivots. Peterson's free throw and Koenig's one hander moved the score up to 25 to 21 at the half.

A bucket apiece dropped in by Peterson, Strahn, and Hollins brought Nebraska to within two points of Missouri which was all the closer they got the entire second half. Three dribble-ins by Kurash, Missouri guard, raised the score to 37 to 31. From that point on until there were only three minutes left in the last half, a steady basket duel between Heinsohn of Missouri and Peterson and Hahn of Nebraska brought the score to 43 to 40. Then Mizzou flipped in two quick shots and brought their scoring to an end.

Nebraska's only score after that was a free throw by tall Art Peterson.
