

Ragged Edges

BY BET KING.

Grab your specs—another week end is past and here's the latest gossip on who's doing what.

The Navy ball highlighted the activities for this week end. B. J. Dickerson, Pi Phi, trekked up with Norm Lanspa, dent student. Betty Sparkes, Alpha Phi, was escorted by Kappa Sig Bob Tangeman. We'll no doubt hear more about it when they all get back.

Tom Cornish, Phi Gam, lost his lariat. Does that have any connection with his date with Pi Phi Jan Schwartzer Saturday night? A lariat is a novel method of getting a date, to say the least. Better watch that, Jan. Another Fiji—Chuck Peterson—was seen Friday night with Joan of the Theta Ackerman's.

Something Different.

Just when we had Sally O'Shea, Theta, pegged with Dan Lilly, Phi Delt, she's seen with someone different. In this case the scene was the Pike; the time, Saturday night; the man, Phi Gam Bill Burner. Variety is the spice of life! More confusion concerning Sigma Chi Prexy Bob Van Sant dating Alpha Chi Betty Chipman Friday night. That should bear watching.

Huskers . . .

on his last half spree. It was the fair haired Husker who really set the Husker's victory on ice as he scored twice in succession.

During the last five minutes Nebraska stalled consistently, tho when the KU five would get the ball they were but poor shots hitting the loop, missing several set-ups as well as long ones.

Strahan led the scoring of the evening with his 15 and Art Peterson was not far behind with 14.

Reynolds tallied 13 to lead the KU scoring.
