

Ragged Edges

The season has arrived for a fire, some weinies, and they tell there's going to be a shortage of the other commodity. Bud Marsh, ATO, and Joan Yonts, Theta, were out galivanting Friday night with Lilly Latham, Alpha Chi! Phil Oxley, ATO; Helen Schroeder, DG, and Hugh Allen, Delta.

We hear Butch Winter and Pat Chamberlin, Thetas, have been entertained by some handsome captains recently.

Belas John Smedley and Dean Neal journeyed to Denver, ostensibly to see John's parents. What's Denver got that Lincoln hasn't? Don't answer that one.

Hawaii Calling.

Definite proof that absence makes the heart grow fonder is Lt. Dale Wolfe's phone call from Hawaii to Gamma Phi Clarice Marshall. The conversation was most satisfactory even if Clarice did spend more time swearing to the operator to abide by the rules than she did talking to Dale.

"False Alarm" Kessler is keeping pinmate Betty Stanton, Pi Phi, up in the air. He still hasn't left UN. According to current reports he has a week's delay. That's subject to extension, so if you see Joe around three weeks from now, don't blame us.

Theta Mary Lancaster is anxiously awaiting the arrival of a certain lieutenant with whom she passed the candy a few months ago. He's due to arrive any minute.

Tom Cornish, Phi Gam, has Tri-Delt Merrell Shutt's Tassel hat. He promised to give it back if Merrell would do the town with him Friday night. They were together Friday night, but Merrell still doesn't have her hat. Maybe Tom's saving it for future reference.

When the campus recovers from the mumps and laryngitis maybe there'll be more news.

lions of persons are "statistically naked" and many more millions are in desperate need of clothing, shoes and bedding. In Belgium one family of seven shares one shirt. Crude shoes for children in Holland deform the feet permanently.

In Poland, four families, living in a single, unheated, windowless room, pool clothing when one has to go out. In Paris 3,000 students in the most bitter winter in years are without rooms, beds and blankets. Only 156 out of 1,022 students in Honan university in China (evacuated for the sixth time in May, 1944, penniless and ill clad) have bedding.

 April 1, 3 p. m., Mr. Dwight Kirsch.

Library Receives Keesing's Recent Reference Index

"Keesing's" news service presents the news of the world in condensed form, fully indexed. The service covers the day-to-day developments in world affairs obtaining its material from the world's leading publications as well as from official information departments and recognized international news agencies.

The main features of the reports are then condensed and translated into English from twenty-six world languages. This news service supplements that which is already in the library, "Facts on File" which is also an encyclopedia of current events and presents the news of the world in capsule form.

Historical Movie Depicts Struggle Of William Penn

William Penn comes to the Union today in the presentation of the documentary film, "Courageous Mr. Penn," which will be shown at 3 p. m. in the ballroom. The film stars are Clifford Evans and Deborah Kerr.

Relation of the film to present affairs is obvious. The story centers around the English love of justice, of freedom, of government in the interests of citizens, of democracy, and the strong inference that lands of the English race and speech have interests in common as well as beliefs in common. Penn's story is picturesque and romantic throughout. Young

Penn, moved by hatred of persecution and by sympathy for the oppressed Quakers, gives up the luxurious and morally lax society of the aristocracy of the day and becomes a Quaker. Unjustly condemned, beaten, imprisoned, he inspires a jury to insist upon their right to give him a verdict according to conscience.

A coffee and doughnut hour will be held at 5 p. m. in the Union lounge today.
