

Home Economics Division Accepts Foreign Student

In connection with a $300 American Home Economics scholarship, the university home economics department is accepting a person from a foreign country as a student during the next school term.

The foreign students selected receive a $300 scholarship from the American Home Economics Association and the university that the student attends also issues a $300 scholarship.

Fund Organized.

With Marilyn Hartsook as chairman, a committee from the Home Economics club is sponsoring a Foreign Fellowship Fund in order to raise enough funds to provide the award. A bank has been placed on the first floor of the Home Economics building for contributions. A Silver Tea will be held May 6 to help collect the $300.

Thirty-six foreign students have been awarded these fellowships and have studied at various American universities. They have come from India, China, Japan, Brazil, Argentina, Philippines, England, Canada and Syria. These students have studied at Kansas State College, the Merrill-Palmer school, Oregon State College, Temple University, Purdue University, University of Wisconsin, Iowa State College, University of Chicago and others.

Capt. F. E. Roth, Former Student, Dies in Germany

Capt. Frank E. Roth, UN alumnus, died in Germany April 7 of wounds received in action, according to a telegram received by his parents Friday.

Several weeks ago, while serving with the Sixth armored division, Captain Roth was awarded the silver star, the citation reading, "For gallantry in action in the vicinity of Germany. He led his company across the river defenses, taking high ground and his assigned objectives. To accomplish this mission he overcame insurmountable odds. He took a dozen enemy pillboxes and overcame three mine fields, extensive barbed wire and numerous booby traps. His gallant and aggressive leadership was directly responsible for the success of the mission

Capt. P. Svoboda Receives Purple Heart This Month

The Purple Heart was awarded this month to Marine Captain Paul E. Svoboda, who was in command of a tank unit in the Fifth Marine division during the assault on Iwo jima.

Captain Svoboda was a Sigma Nu at the university and was editor of the Nebraskan. His brother, George, is a captain in the army air forces in the Pacific and his brother Richard is a private first class in the army in the European theater.

He was awarded the Purple Heart after receiving a Jap sniper bullet in his arm.

Students Return From High School Exhibition Tour

Don Kline, Robert Wilkins, Betty Jeanne Holcomb and Marthella Holcomb returned to Lincoln Tuesday night after an exhibition debate tour of six Nebraska high schools.

Discussing compulsory military training, the four members of the university junior varsity debate squad appeared at high school convocations in Hastings, Grand Island, Kearney, Holdrege, Elm Creek and Gothenburg Monday and Tuesday. They spoke Sunday night at the Congregational church in Geneva.

Accompanying the group, and acting as chairman for the discussions was Dr. W. T. Beggs, associate professor of education at the university teacher's college.

Purpose of the trip, according to Dr. Leroy Laase, chairman of the speech department, was to provide valuable information and stimulation of thought to high school pupils while offering experience in practical application of speech principles to student speakers.

which was accomplished with a minimum of casualties."

Captain Roth was graduated from UN in 1941 and was a member of Sigma Alpha Theta and Phi Beta Kappa.

We Feel Bad
 about Violets

POETS always call the violet the shrinking violet. We feel bad about anything that shrinks—but chiefly shirts.

So we've spent our life making the shirt that doesn't shrink, the Arrow shirt. It's Sanforized-labeled, which means fabric shrinkage less than 1%, and its Mitoga figure fit is superb. Arrow's collar is the world's finest. Try an Arrow today!
