

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 45, No. 3.

THE NEBRASKAN

Sunday, September 23, 1945.

AUF Sets Goal For First Drive

Setting a $3,000 goal for the All University fund drive, which begins Oct. 1 and ends Oct. 6, the A.U.F. advisory board today began preparations for soliciting and collecting the goal.

Jeannette Engle, director of A. U. F., will head the campaign, which is set up on the basis of a $2 donation from each student. New A. U. F. staff members are Mary Claire Phillips, treasurer, Ethelyn Lashinsky head solicitor, and Eleanor Bricker, director of clerical work. Shirley Jenkins, publicity director, was appointed to the staff last spring.

Courtesy Lincoln Journal.
JAN ENGLE.

A new member to the A. U. F. Advisory Board, Don Chapin, has been appointed. Other members are Alice Abel, Barbara Griswold, Stuart Goldberg and Betty Lou Huston. Professor C. E. Elliott is the faculty advisor to the board.

Purpose of A. U. F.

Since the A. U. F. was established for the purpose of consolidating all drives and campaigns for raising funds on the campus into one annual fall drive, funds collected in the drive beginning Oct. 1 will be divided proportionately between the National War fund, World Student Service fund, and Nebraskans for Servicemen.

The World Student Service fund is an organization for supplying textbooks and study materials for students who are prisoners of war. Nebraska for Servicemen is a special edition of The Nebraskan published and sent to Nebraska alumni serving in the armed forces.

Miss Engle stated that each student on the campus will be contacted during the week of the AUF workers will meet Tuesday at 4 p. m. in the Community Chest rooms, fifth floor of Terminal building, according to Jeannette Engle, director. Instructions and materials will be distributed to the workers at that time, Miss Engle stated.

drive. Contacts will be made thru solicitors under the direction of the head solicitor.

Pledge Blank.

A regular pledge blank will be used in taking donations. Money See AUF, Page 4.

War Council, Student Council Meet for First Fall Sessions

Presentation and adoption of plans for the coming year will be discussed at the first meeting of the Student War Council to be held Wednesday at 5 p. m. in Room 316 at the Union, according to Alice Abel, president of the organization.

Selection of a new name for the group and nominations for vice president will be included in the business meeting. Marilyn Adler former vice president has resigned.

See WAR COUNCIL, Page 3.

Edith Pumphrey, president of the student council, announced the plans for the year today as she called the first meeting for Wednesday at 5:00, in room 313 of the Union building.

The plans include resolutions to call up the constitutions and check on activities of all organizations to discover if functions are being fulfilled. The council again will have charge of Homecoming decorations, stated Miss Pumphrey. Council meetings are open to all students this year.

Holler Announces Time for First Campus Vespers

The first all campus vespers of the year will be held Tuesday at 5 o'clock in the rooms XYZ of the Union. The services are open to all students, according to Myrlee Holler, chairman of the Vespers committee.

Gordon Lippitt, new Y.M.C.A. executive secretary, will be the speaker. The vespers committee consists of the chairman; Mary Lee McCord, secretary; Ava Bromwich, in charge of music; and Bill Roberts, Phyllis Sorenson and Margery Clark.

'Lucky Partners' Initiates Season Of Variety Shows

"Lucky Partners," a romantic comedy, will be the featured attraction of the variety show this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Union ballroom.

Ronald Colman and Ginger Rogers are the stars of the picture, with Spring Byington and Jack Carson in feature roles. After the show, Peggy Shelley will play request numbers on the piano in the lounge during the coffee hour.

Five Cheerleaders, Yell King, Lead UN Students

Cheering UN's football team to victory on the gridiron this season will be five newly-elected scarlet and cream clad cheerleaders, led by Bernie Urich, re-appointed yell king.

Those elected were Jackie Scott, Doris Easterbrook and "Hink" Aasen, from last year's squad, and new additions Lois Chantry and Art Beindorff. Miss Chantry is a sophomore in the college of Arts and Sciences and is a member of Delta Gamma sorority. Art Beindorff is a junior in Engineering college and a member of Kappa Sigma.

YM Begins '45 Program With Party

The year's functions of the university Y.M.C.A. will get underway next Wednesday evening, with a party held in the Temple building for all campus men.

The program will start at 7:30 p. m. when YM president Bill Miller and other members of the cabinet welcome the group and lead in songs and recreation. Movies are scheduled to be shown, and climaxing the evening's entertainment will be a welcome by Dr. Leroy T. Laase, chairman of the YMCA board and Mr. Gordon Lippitt, the executive secretary.

YM Program Plans.

In this meeting opportunity will be given for campus men to hear about and share in the program plans for the university YM. "We are anticipating the most interesting and active program this year that the YMCA has ever conducted on campus," President Miller said.

In addition to the regular Wednesday evening meetings, luncheon groups will be held on Monday and Thursday noons in the "Y" room of Temple building. These meetings will be devoted to the discussion of current topics. Special events for the year include social functions as well as numerous conferences.

Frosh Flies, Beanie Buys OK, YouGuys

I wuz readin' in 'na very secluded nook of the Union lounge when a muscular shadow loomed over the Tarzan page. "Where's yer buheanie, Frosh?" I humbly licked Allah's shoes and told him I'd missed getting my ticket on registration daze. "OK Frosh," he whispers gently in the one deaf ear. "The Union office still has a few beanie tickets fer sail." I staggered to the window and deposits 50 sence with the university. For witch I gets a ticket tellin' me to hurry down to Ben Simons. I duz so.

See BEANIE, Page 4.

Students File for Staff Positions on Cornhusker

Positions on the Cornhusker staff are still open, according to editor, Joyce Crosbie. However, all applications must be filed by 3 p. m. Wednesday. Students may apply any afternoon between 2 p. m. and 5 p. m. at the Cornhusker office in the Union.

Paul Robeson Heads Winter Concert List

Paul Robeson, widely known singer and actor, heads the 1945-46 program of the Lincoln Symphony orchestra.

Other artists scheduled are Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson, duo piano team; Jennie Tourel, mezzo-soprano; William Primrose, violinist, and Joanna and Nikolai Graudan, piano and cello. Student tickets for the concerts will be on sale at the school of music October 1-5.

Leo Kopp.

Conducting the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra for the first time this season will be Leo Kopp. For the past two years Mr. Kopp has been the musical director of the radio show "Your America," a coast to coast broadcast sponsored by the Union Pacific Railroad and originating in Omaha. Prior to that time, he conducted the Chicago Opera and the Minneapolis Symphony summer concerts.

Born in Budapest, Leo Kopp chose chemistry as his profession although he displayed musical talent as a child. He was heard extensively in Germany as a conductor of both opera and concerts. Among many novelties he gave the first German performance of Stravinsky's ballet "The Firebird."

Freshmen Eligible.

The continuation of freshman athletic eligibility this year will make cheerleading positions available to freshman men, it was announced by T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs. Therefore, further tryouts will be held Monday at 6:30 p. m. in the Union ballroom for freshman men. Edith Pumphrey, council president has urged that all those interested be there so that enough men can be picked to fill the squad.

Practices are scheduled for each night next week, beginning Monday at 7 p. m. The new squad will make its first appearance Saturday afternoon at the Husker-Sooner game. Bernie Urich has asked that all students sit in the special student section in order to create a unified cheering section.

Yearbook Pix Schedule Starts September 27

University students will have their 1946 Cornhusker pictures taken on Miller and Paine's sixth floor, in a new studio especially designed for them, according to Joyce Crosbie, Cornhusker editor-in-chief. The first of the organized houses to have their pictures taken on Sept. 17, 28 or 29, will be Alpha Chi, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi, and Alpha Xi Delta.

Schedules for the other organized houses on campus will be announced later and unaffiliated photographs will be taken in November. See YEARBOOK, Page 2.

YWCA Organizations Reveal Plans for Discussions, Parties

Louis Opper, Ag YWCA president, announced today the program of events for YW this week.

Tuesday at 12:20 p. m. there will be a meeting in the home ec parlor of the home ec bldg. Monica Ann Alberty will speak on "Religion at Camp Minawanka." Miss Opper stated that Geraldine Gowen and Mary Louise Helt are in charge of Tuesday noon meetings this semester.

Tuesday at 7:45 p. m., the joint ag YMCA, YWCA meeting will be in the home ec parlors of the home ec bldg. Virginia Bobbitt, cabinet member, will speak on "Summer Service Experience."

Thursday at 12:00 noon there will be a discussion period on "Estes." All coeds will bring their lunches and come to the home ec parlor of the home ec building.

The annual YWCA Rendezvous Tea for all upperclass women will take place Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 5:30 at Ellen Smith hall, Mary Ann Mattoon, president of YWCA announced. All sophomore, junior and senior coeds are invited to take this opportunity to register for YW activities in which they are interested.

Hostesses.

Hostesses will be cabinet members who will talk to each guest and aid her in the selection of activities by explaining the special enjoyment and advantages of each discussion group. After a girl has listed her choice for participation in the various groups, she will be served refreshments.

The YWCA will accept members about Oct. 15 or 20, when those interested pay their membership fees.

STUDENTS ...

FACULTY SEASON TICKET $7.20

Get Your Student Athletic Tickets

AT COLISEUM OR AT STUDENT UNION OFFICE

Your ticket admits you to all Nebraska Football, Basketball games, Track meets, and all athletic contests.

$6.60 Tax Inc.

Must Have Identification Card

Your ticket admits you to the Super-bomber Air Transport game Nov. 11.