

LETTERIP

This is to clarify the position of Tri-Pi along with its founders. Tri-Pi was by no means a crooked or shady proposition. It was founded for the purpose of futhering Greek-Barb co-operation—a far worthfer purpose than those behind many sanctioned campus organizations.

And Tri-Pi is not charged with any accusations of dishonesty. As far as is apparent, the only charge against Tri-Pi is that it did not wait for the official sanction of the Student Council before becoming active.

The reason for Tri-Pi's negligence of the official channels was simply that the Student Council was not in session at the time when action was imperative for Tri-Pi. In order to fulfill its purpose Tri-Pi needed many members and it needed them as soon as they could be had if the fraternity were to function this semester.

The best time to get these members was during registration at the same time when the Awgwan and the Cornhusker were to begin their drives. The Student council was not yet in session.

So when Edith Pumphrey discovered the existence of Tri-Pi she was quite naturally highly angered. Imagine an organization daring to function without the official nod from her council! The audacity of the young upstarts! So without a moment's thought about the value of the young organization, Edith had its president whisked before the dean where Tri-Pi was dissolved without having had a chance to defend itself or an opportunity to prove its worth.

Apparently offending the dignity of the Student Council is such a dastardly crime as not to warrant a fair trial.

One of the most unfair claims of Miss Pumphrey is absolutely and entirely invalid. This is her statement that the money received from the members of Tri-Pi was mixed up with the Cornhusker receipts. The extra money discovered by the Cornhusker was the result of a lost receipt book. In other words the "extra" money represents no more than legitimate receipts of the yearbook which could not be put in the books without the missing receipts. But until now Tri-Pi has had no opportunity to defend itself.

So Greek-Barb co-operation (supposedly advocated by the Student Council) almost suffered another setback. Almost, but not quite, for Tri-Pi is now reorganizing. This time it will attempt to clear itself through the various channels required by university regulations. It will attempt to pass through the Student Council. The Council will never be presented with a better opportunity to display its fairness and open mindedness than when confronted with the petition of Tri-Pi.

Walter Johnston, freshman, has been appointed a new member of the cheering squad, Edith Pumphrey, Student Council president, announced. Freshmen tryouts for the scarlet and cream cheer squad were held Monday night followed by practice for all new cheer leaders.

Members announced in Sunday's paper are Jackie Scott, Doris Easterbrook, "Hink" Aasen, from last year's squad, and Lois Chantry and Art Beindorff, newly elected.

Bernie Urich, yell king, announces that the squad will make its first appearance at Friday night's football rally instead of at the Sooner-Husker game on Saturday.
