NEWS IN BRIEF

by BILL ROBERTS

ERADICATION of fascism and militarism in Japan is proceeding with all possible dispatch under General MacArthur's liberal attitude and vigorous leadership.

Monday, the Imperial General Staff was formally abolished; Tuesday, the General announced completion of demobilization of the army itself; Wednesday, reports reached the U. S. of public demonstrations of dissatisfaction with the Emperor.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN and Secretary Byrnes are now playing a waiting game in regard to U. S.-Russia relations, giving the Soviet Union an opportunity to cool off and make a move toward unity.

REFERRING TO current labor-management struggles over higher wages, Reconversion Director John Snyder told an industrialist's association last week that hourly rates must go up appreciably in the postwar period.

Because the take-home pay of a large segment of labor has fallen 23 percent, Mr. Snyder added, the whole economy will suffer if labor does not get "more money" to assure sufficient sustained buying power in future years.

ARCH-FASCIST PERON is back in the Argentine government again, after a brief period of forced retirement. The General benevolently claims that he will lead his party "of workers to further economic victories."

THE SENATE is now forging a tax bill expressing its dissatisfaction with certain features of the bill recently passed by the House. The House bill has been criticized in some consumer, labor, and

Committee Cuts Special Edition Of Nebraskan

Making plans to stop distribution of Nebraskans for servicemen, special edition of the Nebraskan, committee members appointed by war council met Wednesday night.

Distribution was started in 1941 and papers were sent to all UN students who were in the service. At the end of last year 1,600 Nebraskans were being sent to every APO in the country. Each state in the union and also Alaska, Cuba and Hawaii received papers.

Contained News. The Nebraskan contained news about the university and special news about former students. Letters from many of the boys were received expressing their appreciation of the paper, according to Phyllis Teagarden, editor.

Colleen Kahoa and Joyce Keckley served as assistant editors and Beverly Swartwood and Phyllis Fried were business managers.

'Atomic Jitters Prevail' States R. F. Schramm

"We have the atomic jitters now, but I believe that time will prove that the United States and all other nations who believe in the principle of 'live and let live' will solve the uranium and atomic problem of control," said Prof. R. F. Schramm at the Tuesday evening meeting of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific fraternity.

Professor Schramm, chairman of church circles as being overly generous with individuals and corporations having tremendous incomes, of the university geology department, added that splitting for atomic bomb production will produce a postwar rash of prospecting for the metal, but the chances of finding large deposits of the metal are slim.

Uranium Not Rare.

The scientist believes that uranium is not rare, but that there are few mining districts in the world which are capable of producing the ore in commercial quantities without paying sky-high production prices.

"Instrument makers and device venders whose success in business depends upon the stupendous gullibility of human nature will soon be placing their wares upon the market for the purpose of aiding the credulous prospector in his search for uranium ore," Professor Schramm announced. Russia,

Bulgaria, England, Brazil, and India are known to contain uranium deposits as well as Madagascar, Germany and Japan.

No More Sorority Pix

Sororities are requested to pick up the sweaters and blouses their members wore for Cornhuskers pictures, at the Cornhusker studio on Miller's sixth floor. No more pictures will be taken for any coeds who did not have their picture taken during the scheduled time.

Edith King's initial film role, with Alan Ladd, William Bendix, Gail Russell and others in Paramount's "Calcutta," requires the Broadway actress to smoke cigars throughout the story.

Why Fairmont's "Homo" Milk has Finer Flavor . . . Richer taste . . .

The milk fat content of ordinary milk is suspended in the milk in large globules. Homogenization breaks up these fat globules, distributing the milk fat evenly throughout the whole bottle of milk, thus giving every ounce an equal share of cream. This redistribution of milk fat gives the milk a wonderfully improved flavor, and a rich, creamy taste—though nothing has been added and nothing taken away. More people buy Fairmont's Homogenized Milk than any other kind.

"HOMOGENIZED"

Fairmont's Homogenized Milk tastes better. It is carefully Homogenized by skilled dairy-men, using the most modern equipment.
