

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 45, No. 15

THE NEBRASKAN

Sunday, October 21, 1945

AUF Drive Fails Goal; $744 Short

After closing the books on the AUF drive yesterday noon, a total of $2,256 was marked up as the university's contribution to the National War Fund and World Student Service Fund.

Jan Engle, director, announced that all envelopes must be turned in by Monday evening and if they are not, the workers will go around to collect them.

$3,000 Goal.

The drive lasted for three weeks and had a goal of $3,000 which was to be divided between the National War Fund and WSSF. In addition to Miss Engle, other members of the AUF staff were Mary Claire Phillips, treasurer; Ethelyn Lashinsky, head solicitor; Marilyn Stahl, clerical work; and Shirley Jenkins, publicity.

Members of the AUF Advisory Board are: Alice Abel, Barbara Griswold, Stuart Goldberg, Don Chapin and Betty Lou Huston. The faculty advisor was Professor C. E. Elliott.

Former Sports Editor Upholds Marine Slogan

BY SHIRLEY JENKINS.

Norris Anderson, former sports editor of The Nebraskan, firmly

Norris Anderson . . . Former Nebraskan sports editor covers war theaters as Marine correspondent.

believes in the slogan "Join the Marines and See the World."

Presently stationed in Jap-controlled north China, Anderson, a sergeant in the Marines has completed duty in the south Pacific as a Marine Corps combat correspondent.

First Assignment.

His first assignment upon appointment as a combat correspondent was in San Francisco where he did articles on the United Nations conference for service newspapers. After the conference ended he was detached to the south Pacific.

When the Japanese capitulated, Anderson and another combat correspondent were the first press representatives to contact Marine Major Gregory "Pappy" Boyington, the flying ace, after his release from a Jap prison camp.

Anderson had two articles in the Tientsin Daily Journal's first issue to appear since the Japs took over the plant seven years ago.

One of the Youngest.

The second youngest combat

(See ANDERSON, page 4.)

LOST!

One great quantity of school publicity, due to lack of school spirit.

If you wish to help make Nebraska known, come to the Student Foundation mass meeting, Thursday, Oct. 25, 7 p. m., room 312, in the Union. Student Foundation.

Iowa Trounces Huskers

Twelve Upperclassmen Run In Fall Elections Tuesday

Appearing on the ballots in the junior-senior class presidents election Tuesday, will be the names of five seniors and seven juniors.

Running for senior class president are Dorothy Caress, Mary Jo Gish, Stuart Goldberg, Fred Hecox, and Jim McGeachen. Candidates for junior class president are Virginia Buckingham, Don Chapin, Bob Creutz, Collen Kahoa, Leslie Metheny, Jackie Scott and Fred Teller.

City campus polls will be open from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m. in the Union basement. Ag polls will be held in Dean Burr's office in Ag Hall from 10 to 5.

Only juniors and seniors may vote in the election. When obtaining their ballots, voters must present their identification cards to election officials.

Issuing a warning against possible over-exuberance on the part of any candidate's supporters, Roberta Collins, Student Council judiciary committee head, reiterated the provisions of article IV of the elections rules:

"No vote shall be solicited at the polls or in the building in which election is being held during election day. No money shall be spent in behalf of any candidate. No printed, mimeographed, typed, or otherwise published material in behalf of any candidate shall be permitted except the impartial announcements of the candidates appearing in the press. Any candidate violating these rules either in person or through his supporters shall thereby become ineligible."

If the junior prom is revived this year, the junior president will head the planning committees for the affair. In the spring the class officers plant the ivy in the Ivy Day ceremony.

Activities of the candidates are as follows:

For senior class president, Dorothy Caress, Alpha Omicron Pi president, Coed Councilors, Tassels, YWCA. Mary Jo Gish, Delta Gamma, WAA president, Student Council, YWCA, Vestals of the Lamp. Stuart Goldberg, Zeta Beta Tau president, Student Council treasurer, Cornhusker staff. Fred Hecox, interfraternity Council president, Phi Psi president, N Club. Jim McGeachen, Phi Delta Theta vice president, Awgwan, Cornhusker, Nu-Med.

For junior class president, Virginia Buckingham, Student Council, Coed Councilor

See ELECTION, page 2.)

Nebraskans Lose Tough Fight 27-7

BY GEORGE MILLER.

AMES, Ia.—Scoring once in each of the four quarters, Iowa State ran to a 27 to 7 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers before a homecoming crowd of approximately 13,000 fans at Clyde Williams Field.

The Huskers threatened in every quarter and were unstoppable between the 20 yard lines. Once into deep scoring territory however, the Nebraskans could get nowhere.

Moore Scores.

Gerald Moore, who kept the Huskers in contention with smashing line plunges, scored the only Nebraska score on the first play of the last quarter when he stole the ball from the Cyclone's Dick Howard and raced over the goal line from the Iowa State 20.

Bill Sloan added the point after touchdown to conclude the Husker scoring for the afternoon.

Speedy, breakaway running by Howard and Pflum put the Huskers on the defensive deep in their own territory many times during the game.

Howard Breaks Loose.

In the first quarter with the ball on the Iowa State 37, Howard broke loose for a 55 yard sprint to the Nebraska 8 before game captain Fred Lorenz knocked him off balance. Dedecker went to the two-foot line and Pflum scored with half of the first quarter gone. Marks added the first of three conversions to put the Cyclones out in front. Dick Skog returned the Cyclone kickoff after this touchdown to the Nebraska 40 and Moore and Robinson carried the pigskin to the 16-yard line. Skog then drove around end for a touchdown but the Huskers were offside and the score was nullified.

(See GAME, page 3.)

Group Reveals Plan for Return Of Corn Cobs

Preliminary details are being worked out for the return of the Corn Cobs, men's pep organization, by active members of the group and the faculty advisor, Col. C. J. Frankfurter.

Eligibility requirements for new pledges will be resided as soon as re-organizations plans have been completed. The group may begin activities by Homecoming according to Colonel Frankfurter.

Disband In '42.

Disbanding in '42, the Corn Cobs took part in every service activity on the campus and wore the traditional sweaters with the pep emblem on the front and the white letters on the back, spelling "Nebraska."

Sunday Variety Show Promises Two Programs

Appearing in person as a part of the Union Variety Show Sunday at 8 p. m. will be a Vaudeville team, Bill Murray, singer, Beverly Hannak, acrobatic dancer and June Simpson, tap dancer.

"His Butler's Sister," a musical comedy of disguise in which the butler poses as playboy in his boss's absence, will make up the remainder of the free show in the Union ballroom. Franchot Tone, Deanna Durbin and Pat O'Brien are starred in the comedy.

Tassels Sell Homecoming Dance Tickets

Tickets will go on sale Monday for the annual Homecoming dance scheduled for November 3, at the coliseum according to Virginia Demel, Tassel publicity chairman.

Pep Queen.

Eddie Haddad and his orchestra will play from 9 to 12. In keeping with the tradition of the Homecoming Dance, the new Pep Queen will be introduced by last year's queen, Jackie Scott and yell king, Bernie Ulrich.

Jackie Scott is homecoming chairman and head of the dance decorations. Admission to the dance will be $1.50 per couple and tickets can be purchased from any Tassel.

Yearbook Editor Announces List Of Pix Schedule

Joyce Crosbie, editor of the Cornhusker, announced today the complete schedule for Cornhusker pictures. Pictures will be taken from 9:30 to 4:30 at the Cornhusker studio in the sixth floor of Millers.

October 22, 23, 24:

Hesperia
Alpha Tau Omega
Beta Sigma Psi
Beta Theta Pi
Delta Sigma Psi

October 29, 30, 31:

Delta Tau Delta
Delta Upsilon
Kappa Sigma
Phi Delta Theta

November 5, 6, 7:

Phi Gamma Delta
Phi Kappa Psi
Sigma Alpha Mu
Sigma Alpha Epsilon

November 18, 20, 21:

Ki Psi Phi
Zeta Beta Tau
International House
Towne Club
Carl Hall
Dorm
Unaffiliates.

Museum Receives South Sea Curios

PAT WINTER.

. . . Appearing in items from Mr. Osborn's collection.

A large collection of South Sea island articles ranging from wooden hair combs, to shark-tooth spears was recently given to the university state museum in Morrill hall by Stanley R. Osborn.

A former university student and former resident of Elair, Mr. Osborn stated that returning southwest Pacific veterans will be familiar with some of the places from which the collection came: Tarawa, Ellis, Samoa, The Gilberts.

(See CURIOS, page 4.)