

Tassels Conclude Sales of Theatre Tickets Tonight

Sale of University Theatre tickets will close Sunday evening, according to Virginia Demel, Tassel campaign head.

All organized houses were covered last week, and any students overlooked in the campaign should see a Tassel some time today if they wish to buy a season ticket.

The season tickets, costing $2.60, will enable purchasers to attend the four major plays of the season, a number of one-act plays, and a Chopin program in the spring.

Pi Lambda Theta Chooses Theme For Year's Plans

Choosing Nebraska Women in Education as their theme for the year, members of Pi Lambda Theta honorary education organization, will hold their first meeting Tuesday at 7 p. m. in room 313 of the Union.

At this meeting representatives from each field of teaching will discuss the achievements of former Nebraska Pi Lambda Theta in that particular field.

Future meetings will include talks by outstanding women educators in the state and a possible visit to a rural school.

Faculty Members Present Concert This Afternoon

Three members of the music school faculty, Mary Louise Boehm, Kathryn Dean, and Earnest Harrison, will present a concert today at three o'clock in the Union ballroom.

This afternoon's concert is a part of the fall faculty series presented by the School of Fine Arts under the direction of Dr. Arthur Westbrook.

Program.

The program for today's concert will be:

Chaconne in D minor, Bach-Busoni, Miss Boehm.
Wie Melodien zieht es mir, Brahms; Meine Liebe ist grün, Brahms; Verborgeneheit, Wolf; Ständchen, Strauss, Miss Dean, Mr. Harrison.
Nocturne, Op. 48, No. 1, Chopin; Etude, Op. 25, No. 1, Chopin; Ballade, Op. 38, Chopin; Jeux d'Eau, Ravel; Tocata, Ravel, Miss Boehm.

Anderson . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

correspondent in the Corps, Anderson, at 22, has qualified for that assignment with seven years of newspaper work. He was sports editor of the Kearney Daily News at the age of 15.

In addition to his position as sports editor of The Nebraskan, while in the university, Anderson was on the editorial staffs of the Awgwan and The Cornhusker. He is a member of Phi Gamma Delta,

Music Groups Pledge Forty Coeds Friday

Forty coeds in the university school of music were pledged to the three professional music societies, Delta Omicron, Mu Phi Epsilon and Sigma Alpha Iota, on Friday afternoon. Following is the list of new pledges:

Delta Omicron Pledges.

Margaret Ann Amend, Mary Blitch, Betty DeBoer, Charlotte Ann Frost, Mariel James, Vivian Jarmia, Betty Knottwell, Patricia Loudon, Sara Jane Lyons, Helen Merrill, Molly Ann Morris, Nancy Pierson, Marjorie Premer, Em-bree Rains, Kathryn Schwartz, Marion Stapleton, Colleen TeSelle, Bonnie Van Wyngarden, Patricia Ver Maas, Elizabeth Wacker.

Mu Phi Epsilon Pledges.

Elizabeth Nicolai, Arline Shepard, Charlene Shepard, Shirley Wright and Marcia Yost.

Sigma Alpha Iota Pledges.

Helen Abdnor, Marjorie Anthony, Meredith Bowhay, Vivian Clarke, Janet Dalrymple, Pollyanne Hare, Patricia Lyon, Marcia Mae Moulton, Betty Nicodemus, Dora Lee Niedenthal, Nedra Ohmstedt, Shirley Pachner, Dorothy Taylor, Illa Faye Ulstrom, and Mildred Zuber.

Curios . . .

(Continued from Page 1.)

berts, The Marshalls and the Philippines.

Osborn's Father.

The curios were collected by Mr. Osborn's father, L. W. Osborn, when he was U. S. consul to the kingdoms of Samoa and Tonga from 1897 to 1901, when

Sinfonia Renews "Harmony Hour" Record Session

The Sinfonia "Harmony Hour" is back again after four years' absence from the campus.

Beginning tomorrow afternoon from 5 to 6 p. m. and every Monday thereafter, students can hear recorded selections from the world's great music in the Union music room. The programs will be arranged and presented by members of Phi Mu Alpha-Sinfonia, native art and customs were still uninfluenced by white tourists and traders.

Museum director C. B. Schultz stated that items of special interest are the Polynesian display of grass mats of such intricate design that two years were spent in making them. The display was prepared by Marjorie Shanafelt, assistant museum director who added that a family often received 200 of the mats on such occasions as births, marriages and death.

Shell Necklaces.

Other curios marked for specific interest are shell necklaces made with shells so tiny it takes 20 of them to fill a teaspoon; brilliantly colored grass skirts; fans of unusual designs and shapes; war clubs and shark toothed spears; and a heavy cumbersome breast plate, called a cuirass, which was the early native idea of armored protection from spears and arrows.

men's national music-fraternity.

Monday's program, the first one since the end of 1941, offers orchestral and piano music featuring portions from Cesar Franck's "Symphony in D minor" and Beethoven's "Moonlight" Sonata." The rest of the program includes "Marche Militaire" from "Algerian Suite" by Saint-Saens, Greig's "The Last Spring," and for piano, "Liebestraum No. 3," by Liszt and Mendelssohn's "Rondo Capriccioso."

The "Harmony Hour" is open to the public, but Sinfonians announce that the music room door will be closed at 5:15 p. m.

Ironically, Patric Knowles, veteran of both the Royal Canadian Air Forces and the U.S. Army Air Forces, has to pretend he has an allergy for airplanes in his role in Paramount's "Masquerade in Mexico."

Add Flight Training

to your curriculum.

Private courses now available at—

UNION AIR TERMINAL

Call 6-2885 for details.

BEN SIMON & SONS

Our Fortieth Year

THE MASTER'S TOUCH

Poised and Easy Going Sport Clothes!

NARDIS

Personifies everything you've ever wanted in sport clothes. Wonderful to look at . . . Wonderful in motion . . . Famed for subtle but sure tailoring!

Above . . . 100% wool, 100% wonderful! In gold, grey and Kelly. Sleeves and collar are of white knit. $29.95

Sizes 9 to 15

Left . . . Streamline stripes in three pieces. Skirt, slacks and blouse. Taupe and brown with white chalk stripes. $25

Sizes 10 to 18

Ready to wear, Fourth Floor

