

F. Hecox, F. Teller Win

NEBRASKAN

Vol. 45, No. 16.

Wednesday, October 24, 1945

UN Corn Cobs Reveal Plans

BY SHIRLEY JENKINS.

"What are the Corn Cobs?" "Who are the Corn Cobs?" You'd better start knowing the answers, because the Corn Cobs are coming back.

Wearing red sweaters with a pep emblem on front and huge white letters on the back spelling Nebraska, the two remaining actives of the pep organization have started recruiting pledges for Corn Cobs.

Dean Skokan and Dick Batchelder, with Col. C. J. Frankforter as adviser, are reorganizing the Corn Cobs.

Established in 1921.

Established in 1921 by three cheerleaders for the purpose of forwarding pep at athletic games. Corn Cobs grew from that nucleus to a powerful campus organization and a national pep organization, Pi Epsilon Pi.

Under the original set-up of the club, which was modeled after the Tassel organization, each organized house and barbs chose representatives as members of Corn Cobs. In 1937, a new constitution was adopted. Under the provisions of that constitution, only the 16 pledges who had the largest number of working hours were initiated as active Corn Cobs, out of the 50 to 100 pledges.

As set forth in the constitution, the purpose of Corn Cobs is "To cooperate with the Student Council and the Innocents society, in fostering and engendering student pep and enthusiasm." During the years before the war, Corn Cobs had a finger in almost every service on the campus.

Eligibility.

Eligibility to participate as a pledge requires men to conform to the requirements set up by the dean of student affairs office. A student must carry 12 hours successfully and must have completed 24 hours in the university.

Corn Cobs is a non-profit organization. All money made by the club is used to further its services and for the benefit of the university. Cob funds are handled by the university student activities office.

(See CORN COBS, page 4.)

Nebraskan Copies

Lorraine Abramson, business manager of The Nebraskan, will pay 5 cents for each copy of the Sunday, October 21, issue of The Nebraskan. They may be turned in at the office in the Union basement.

WOW Staff Man Speaks October 29

Ray Clark, WOW Pacific war correspondent, will speak at the first convocation of the year October 29 at 11 a. m. in the Union ballroom.

Recently returning to Nebraska from Tokyo on the E-29 "City of Omaha," Clark is making a tour of 25 cities in Nebraska, Iowa, South Dakota, Kansas and Missouri in behalf of the Victory War Loan Drive and war charities. His topic for the convocation will be "On the Road to Tokyo."

RAY CLARK.

While he was overseas, the correspondent interviewed more than 200 servicemen and women from the midwest. He was the first war correspondent, it is said, accredited with representing a single radio station in the Pacific.

Clark attended Yankton College at Yankton, South Dakota, where he majored in English, speech and philosophy.

Immediately following the convocation, Clark will conduct his daily "Forum of the Air" broadcast over WOW.

Sailors Linger At Navy Hall; Use Rec Room

BY MARILYN MEYER.

There's no place like home as someone once said and we agree it is pretty nice to have someplace to hang your hat on a cold winter night. Even a sailor doesn't like to venture out in the chilly blasts of a Nebraska wind when he has a comfortable place to be. So the Red Cross decided to decorate the third floor recreation room in Navy Hall.

Drapes, Rugs.

Blue print drapes on the windows and rugs on the floor form the background for the various chairs and couches, and it is rumored that a radio of some sort is on the way. Tables for games (poker is against the rules) are available for those who indulge.

As one sailor put it, "all we need is a 'reefer' (refrigerator) for—ah—food!"

John Burt Heads University Band For Coming Year

Heading the university band as president, John Burt was elected to the office at a meeting of the organization, Monday, October 15.

Director Don Lentz, announced that Marion Beckmann was elected as vice president and Martha Nickerson is secretary. Phil Fredrickson is promotion director and Dean Skokan head the publicity department.

Fred Hecox and Fred Teller will rule the senior and junior classes as the new presidents according to results of the election held yesterday.

Results were announced last night by the election committee of the Student Council after an afternoon of balloting.

Hecox.

Fred Hecox is president of Phi Kappa Psi. Mr. Teller is a member of Zeta Beta Tau, and belonged to the War Council.

Two hundred and seventy-three votes were cast in the election, which included only juniors and seniors in the university. Members of the junior class voted for the junior class president and seniors chose their president.

Among the duties of the new presidents is the traditional planting of the ivy at the Ivy Day ceremony. The presidents are also on the junior prom committee if the junior prom is held.

UN Students Cheer Team To Victory

Rallying once more to send the Huskers off, students will gather at the coliseum tomorrow night at 7 to cheer the team to victory over the Missouri Tigers.

The students will meet at the coliseum and begin a victory march down Vine street to 26th street. Cheerleaders and Tassels will lead the parade up fraternity and sorority row, calling all students out from organized houses, and dorms.

Union Steps.

On R street, the parade will head for the Union steps where songs and yells will be given. The team will be present at the rally, as well as Coach "Potsy" Clark.

A band will play for the parade which will stir up enthusiasm for the team, according to Colleen Kahoa, who is in charge of this rally.

Send Team Off.

This rally is the last rally before Homecoming rally at which students will have an opportunity to send the team off to an out-of-town game. Saturday the Huskers face the Missouri Tigers at Columbia for the third game away from home this season.

Mary L. Boehm Displays Talent In Sunday Recital

BY SAM WARREN.

Exploiting the pianoforte color range, Mary Louise Boehm last Sunday displayed keen musicianship in the first of four school of music faculty recitals. From the passages of Bach's "Chaconne in D minor" to the patterns of the modernist Ravel, Miss Boehm's technique proved one that presupposes intensive, hard work.

The Chopin group—including a Nocturne, Etude and Ballade—allowed variety of expression and tone-coloring that makes such a recital complete. The difficult octave-passages of the Ballade were lucid and distinct; the familiar Etude was rendered with feeling, and the Nocturne with a singing quality. The sizable audience was well pleased with Miss Boehm's entire performance.

Joint Recital.

Contralto Kathryn Dean, partner in the joint recital, offered a group of four German art songs, of which the most effective ones were "Verborgenheit" by Wolf and Richard Strauss' famous "Serenade." Contributing to the effectiveness of the "Serenade" was the accompaniment of Earnest Harrison. Miss Dean's quality, tone placement and stage poise characterized her performance.

Next Sunday's recital will present two new faculty members—Sara Davis, cellist and Wilbur Price, violinist—together with Donald Lentz, flutist, and Earnest Harrison, pianist. Mr. Price is the new director of the university orchestra.

Homecoming Plans Swing Into Form

In keeping with the annual homecoming tradition, the highlight of the weekend is the homecoming dance following the game, when the '45 Pep Queen will be presented.

Eddy Haddad and his orchestra starring vocalist Don Rice and Ginny Lyons will play for the dance from 9 to 12. Last year's Pep Queen Jackie Scott, and Bernie Ulrich Yell King will introduce the new queen.

Card Section.

Celebrations strive to make homecoming equal to the one of prewar days, according to Ginny Demel, Tassel's publicity chairman. For the first time in three years, the Tassels will have a card section during the half of the game, and decoration rivalry between houses will be stronger than for some time.

Homecoming tradition predominates at the game when last year's Pep Queen rides across the field on the Victory Bell to be introduced by Chancellor Boucher.

Further announcements concerning house decorations, the homecoming dance, and other activities scheduled for the week end will be announced in The Nebraskan next week, said Miss Demel.

DuTeau Speaks At Foundation Mass Meeting

Mr. Ellsworth DuTeau, alumni secretary, will be the featured speaker at the Student Foundation mass meeting Thursday evening.

DuTeau will discuss the purposes of university activities and urge the cultivation of school spirit. The program will start at 7:30 p. m. in room 313 of the Union.

Vice president Lorene Novotny, treasurer Shirley Hinds, secretary Olive Pope, publicity chairman Marilyn Hartsook, Bulletin editor Pat Raun and Tassel president Gerry McKenzie will give short talks explaining Student Foundation work. They will all stress the value of school spirit.

Miss Novotny, yesterday, urged all students to attend this meeting in order to become better acquainted with the university and the part that Student Foundation plays in university life.

Army Okehs ROTC Unit Reactivation

Approval from the war department has been secured on reactivating the ROTC unit on the campus next semester, Col. J. P. Murphy, director of military training, stated Tuesday.

Training will be resumed for three branches of the service represented before the war which include infantry, field artillery and the engineers. Application for an air corps program has not yet been approved.

The quota for the university is 100 students and Colonel Murphy expects it to be filled quickly. "In view of the stepped-up discharge system, there will be many veterans returning to the university in January who will seek commissions in the peacetime army," Murphy said.

Honorably discharged veterans (See ROTC, page 4.)

Frosh Women Inspect Annual Activities Mart

Freshmen coeds may sign up for activities at the annual activity mart Saturday afternoon in the Union ballroom from 1 to 3 p. m.

The mart gives all freshmen women a chance to investigate all activities on the campus and enter those which interest them. The six weeks quarantine on activities for the freshmen ends Saturday.

Restriction.

AWS rules, for four years, have imposed that restriction on new students and the activity mart is held to give them an opportunity to enter activities.

Sponsored by the AWS, the mart includes booths set up by YWCA, Coed Counselors, Associated Women Students, Student Foundation, Tassels, WAA, BABW, the Nebraskan, the Cornhusker and all the honoraries which choose to be represented.

Jan Engle, activities chairman of the AWS board, announced that the Nebraska-Missouri football game would be broadcast in the ballroom and refreshments would be served.

Prof. C. McNeil, UN Economist, Writes for Review

Prof. C. E. McNeil, university economist in writing for the bureau of business research's "Review," stated that Nebraska railroads are ready to launch an all-out drive for a big share of post-war freight and passenger revenue in the coming battle of traffic. The railroads' vital problem is competition from trucks, airplanes and pipeline, Professor McNeil believes.

Need Funds.

The economist added, "Fortified with adequate funds saved from wartime earnings and reinvigorated with men possessing trained minds, the railroads are making ready to use new equipment, new schedules, new rates and any other new policy necessary to win the coming battle for traffic."

YW Membership Party Features Spooks, Witches

Corn stalks, pumpkins and witches will fill Ellen Smith Hall Friday night as the YW membership party gets under way at 7 p. m.

All upperclass members of YW are invited to attend the party which is the first of the year. Cleone Reetz, YW social chairman, is in charge of the party. It will last until 9 p. m.

Games, entertainment and refreshments will fill the evening, according to Miss Reetz. Jean Wolrath is in charge of games, Marilyn Graham is in charge of entertainment and Lorraine Kinney will provide the food and decorations.

Correction to Cornhusker Picture Schedule

October 22, 23, 24—Hesperia, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Sigma Psi, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Sigma Pi.
October 29, 30, 31—Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Phi Delta Theta.
November 5, 6, 7—Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Sigma Alpha Mu, Sigma Alpha Epsilon.
November 12, 13, 14—Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Xi.
November 19, 20, 21—Xi Psi Phi, Zeta Beta Tau, International House, Towne Club.
November 26, 27, 28—Carl Hall, Un-affiliated, Residence Halls for Women.