Former Husker R. Long Plays On ETO Team

Roy Long, former Cornhusker backfield star, is carrying the ball again, but this time for the 71st Infantry Division's Red Circle team at Augsburg, Germany.

Playing halfback, Long is one of the service team's leading gainers this season. Undeclared so far this year, the 71st is one of the leading contenders for the mythical ETO gridiron championship.

Long played on the varsity team for the university in 1942 and has two years of competition remaining. He plans to return to the university after release by the army.

Husker Grid Team Leaves For Mizzou

Coach "Potsy" Clark and 28 hopeful Husker gridgers left early this morning for Columbia, where they clash with the favored Missouri Tigers in a Homecoming tilt tomorrow.

The squad will work out briefly this afternoon on Tiger sod in final preparation for their third Big Six engagement.

Fred Lorenz has been moved from his guard position to blocking back in order to add speed to the Husker ball-toters. It is probable that he'll start the game.

Ed Gradoville, Plattsmouth back who tossed two touchdown passes against Indiana, has been announced by Coach Clark as game captain.

Stop in Kansas City.

After spending Saturday night in Kansas City, the team will return to Lincoln Sunday.

Probable traveling squad:

ENDS: Kipper, Korte, Schneider, Sailors, Hornby and Bunker.

TACKLES: Tegt, Wilhelms, Williams, Sedlacek and Weimers.

GUARDS: Roitzmeyer, Johnson, Hoy and Lipps.

CENTERS: Costello, Fischer, Short and Buchanan.

BACKS: Robinson, Gradoville, Story, Young, Skog, Moore, Lorenz, Sloan and Bauer.

NOTICE.

The Has-Beens, a newly organized touch football team, have announced that they will challenge any other touch team on the campus, and that they will spot their opponents 12 points. Takers may call Herb Trapp at the Sigma Nu house.
