

Ragged Edges

BY BET KING.

It's "open season" on house-parties now. Prepare yourselves for a busy social life, guys and gals. This week end starts things off with a merry whirl. Not only is there an abundance of parties, but Charlie Barnett graces the Pike with his orchestra.

Leading off the list of house-parties is the Chi Ohhh one Saturday night to honor all the spooks and ghosts soon to arrive with Hallowe'en. Phi Gam Chuck Peterson will be there with the gal of his dreams, Chi O Kay Blue. Donnie Wagner will have Beta Dave Speck to protect her from the ghosts and goblins. Shirley Crosby and Sig Ep Curly Elward are another couple that know a good thing when they see it. One party isn't enough for Chi O's Shirley Stapleton and Sue Golden. They and their dates, Sig Chi Hite Grainger and "Rusty" Galloway respectively, think the Pike will team up nicely with the house party.

Barn Dancing.

Tonight is the night the Sigma Nu's have chosen to go barn dancing . . . or should we say, to revert to the rustic. Whatever it is, Alpha Xi Jeanne Marchant and Stuart Harrison plan on enjoying it.

The Phi Deltas are entering into the swing of things once more with one of their famous parties. Bill Steuteville will escort Alpha Xi Laurine Hansen. The grapevine tells us that the odds on a Tom McCarville-Hac Lilly date are worth taking. It's nice to see one duo that remains constant. Pi Phi Lou Jane Johnson is the gal you'll see with Leo Beck.

Novel Party.

The SAE party Saturday night, from all reports, will be quite a novel affair. DGee Rita Fitzmorris and Harris Graves are going to be there to see what it's all about. Natch, Dana Rasmussen and steady, Marge Anthony, of the dorm are taking in the big deal.

Arrow gal Sherry Leeka and Phi Psi Joe Davis are planning a big evening tonight. They believe in having their fun while they may. Joe leaves the last of the month to don those navy blues. While Sherry plays with the about-to-be-navy, sister Sue Newman has decided to call it quits with another navy fellow. She is returning the pin of Beta George Penney now in the U.S.N.

Something new has been added to Sig Ep Evan Fristo's wardrobe—his pin. Understand he's looking for a gal that will wear it for awhile. Don't mob him, gals! Sig Eps Jim Riley and Lawrence Larson are trekking to the Mizzou game this week end. Rumor has it that they plan to do a little hunting, too. Just what kind of hunting, fellows?

Ahhh—Love.

In the "true love" department we find that Janet Kirkpatrick of the International House passed the candy Monday night to let the gals know about her diamond from Pfc. Bill Wenzel. Too long without mention is the Phi Psi pin of Theta Roberta Collins. The pin was the former property of Californian Jack Walker. Chi O Phyl Johnston has decided that marine Kenneth Larhs is the one and only. She's sealed the decision with a diamond.

Frequent two-somes seen around on the campus include AOPi Marilyn Miller and Sig Chi Vaughn Johnson (no relation to Van). The Crib is always the place to find "Shirts" McKenna, of the triple Deltas, and Phi Delt fellow, Bob Weaver. Tri Delt Mary Cox seems to prefer Bob Myers, DU prexy. Just look anywhere and you'll no doubt see Joyce Keckley of the Kappa key with Sig Ep Johnny Adams.

You Tell Us.

Here's a question for those in the know. Is it play practice that Fiji Dutch Meyers and Tri Delt Sally Whiteman enjoy, or is it each other's company?

FLASH—to the Kappa cook—best you whip up something special in the way of desserts for Monday night dinners or June Korb and Barb Blackburn will be lost to the Sigma Nu cook for Monday nights. We could think of worse fates.

Besides these newstips, a bulletin, "Nebraska Today," is published once each month and is sent out to 200 high schools of Nebraska to inform students of the activities of the various colleges on the campus. Pat Raun is the editor of the bulletin. Working with her are: John Adams, Kay Blue, Jean Compton, Kay Diers, Adele Green, Shirley Hampton, Doris Hoffer, Dorothy Hoffer, Helen Hormann, Kathie Legge, Sally Payne, Bea Smith, Bill Sturges, Bob Tegt, Joan Titus and Mary Jean Way.

The man on whom the Foundation relies is the new adviser, Dean John Clark.

Then, too, much credit for a smooth running organization rightly goes to Margaret Neumann, the Foundation's president this year.

- Organization Head.

Margie's the person who makes things fly about this time every year. Every day we notice another of her fingernails chewed down. Not that she's the nervous type . . . no, she has probably been worrying about the student directory and when it will come out. The publishing of that invaluable 50 cent information container is the annual job of the Foundation.

Other officers of Student Foundation include: Vice president, Lorene Novotny; secretary, Olive Pope; treasurer, Shirley Hinds; and publicity chairman, Marolyn Hartsook.

You see the Student Foundation has lots of support. It met a challenge and tackled an opportunity. There is a challenge for the students to help the Student Foundation to carry the ball of publicity over the goal line of increased enrollment, and a better known university.
